BIG SCARE OVER SMALLPOX Passengers Are Much Excited When Afflicted Porter is Taken

A supposed case of smallpox caused considerable excitement at the Burlington and Union depots for a time yesterday.

from Car.

Thomas Woodford, the colored porter or tourist car from Los Angeles bound for Minneapolis, was taken sick about the time of his departure from the former city. A few hours later his skin became covered with eruptions resembling smallpox. When the train arrived in this city a physician was called, who made an examination and unhesitatingly pronounced the case small-

As the tourist car was to go north via the Omaha road the car was delivered by the Burlington to the Union Pacific. It' set out at the south end of the depot and an employe placed to guard it and prevent people from approaching too closely.

There was but one passenger in the car when it reached Omaha-Clara Hill of Holstein, Ia., 14 years of age. She was detained in the car with the sick man. City Physician Ralph was sent for as soon as possible, and when he arrived on the scene until his case develops further, Woodford said that during the trip from he coast he had come in contact with doz ens of persons and that during most of the trip his car was crowded with passengers who had left the train at all points along the line, so that if the disease from which he is suffering does develop into a case of smallpox the seed of the disease has undoubtedly been well distributed.

TO BUILD AT COUNCIL BLUFFS Nebraska Elevator Company Will Erect Cleaning and Storage Station Across the River.

It is said that arrangements have been completed between the Rock Island and the Nebraska Elevator company for the building of a large cleaning and storage elevator by the grain company on the right-of-way of the Rock Island in Council Bluffs. It is understood that the railroad is to furnish the site and the elevator company will erect the building, work to be begun as soon as the weather will permit. Thomas Worrall, president of the grain company, was in this city Tuesday to meet H. Gower, freight traffic manager, and H. H. Embry, general freight agent of the Rock Island, and at this meeting the details of the plan are said to have been arranged. The elevator will be built after the plan of several large ones recently constructed Minneapolis, having immense metal tanks for the storage of grain in place of the old-style wooden tanks. The Nebraska Elevator company has twenty-six elevators on the line of the Rock Island and Union Pacific and all of these will be used as sources of supply for the large new building to be put up.

The reason Council Bluffs was chosen as the site in preference to Omaha is that all of the eastern freight terminals are located there, as well as some of the terminals of western roads, including the Union Pacific.

WILL TEST SCAVANGER ACT Joseph W. Woodrough Advises City of Intention to File Injunetion Against the Law.

City Attorney Wright has received notice from Attorney Joseph W. Woodrough that the latter would ask permission from the supreme court on January 19 to file petitions in a case to test the validity of the scavenger tax law. A copy of the petition was served also, Woodrough asserts he is the owner of property that will be affected and asks for a permanent injunction against the city and county to forbid the operation of the law, on the ground that it is in contravention with a number of the articles of the constitution. "It is the intention of both sides to expedite the case," said the city attorney. We shall try to get a decision early in March, but if it is handed down by May 1, it will be in time so we can operate under the law this year. It is certainly to the interest of the city to have the law adjudicated, as upon its strength depends whether or not we will recover the immense sums in back taxes that we hope to do. It is supposed that besides himself Woodrough represents other parties-either property holders or men who wish to invest in the tax titles.

NEW RATE BY ROCK ISLAND. Proportional Grain Tariff from Omaha to All Its Points in State of

A new grain tariff quoting proportional rates from Omaha to all points in Minne sota on the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway of 9 cents on wheat and 8 cents or corn has been issued by the Rock Island. The tariff also includes all grain products at the same rates. The only stipulation is that the grain shall originate west of the Missouri river.

It is said that this is a very valuable concession on the part of the Rock Island, as the Minneapolis & St. Louis has a number of stations where large numbers of cattle are fed, and these rates will permit of the shipment of feed for that purpose. The rates already in effect which are the same as those quoted above apply only to Minneeffective January 14.

Bernard Nicholls Here.

Bernard Nicholls, one of the best golfers in the United States, has arrived in the city. Mr. Nicholls' stay is to be a short one this time, but he is coming again this fall and then intends to put in some time on the local courses. Mr. Nicholls, in addition to being an expert on all points of the game of golf, is noted especially for his long driving, but few players in the world equalling him in this part of the game.

Still After Gas Lights.

Notwithstanding the depleted condition of the lighting fund councilmen still are trying to have gas lamps established in various wards. The last is a modest appeal from Councilman Back for a single new post and lamp at the southeast corner of Seventh and Leavenworth streets. His colleagues honored his request, but the mayor will veto it.

Permit to Gund Brewery. That another brewing company is bent on doing some business in Omahah is shown by the fact that the J. Gund Brewing company today secured a permit to build a $3,560 brick store house at 123 William street. It will be one story high and 22x50 feet in size. Bridges & Hoye are the contractors.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Receipts for the market house rentals for December show a marked falling off from November, the total amount being but $356. In November something like $400 was collected.

The council, in accordance with the dictum of the Board of Public Works that it will do nothing until funds are provided, has set aside $1.000 from the general fund for necessary street cleahing and repairs.

R. J. Copeland, a driver for P. Boquet, transfer and expressman, has been arrested on complaint of the Humane society for working a team alleged not to be properly shod. Mr. Boquet has also been arrested.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Coal, Hay and Building Supply company were filed with the county clerk. The capital stock is fixed at $25,000. The incorporators are John Power, P. C. Heafy, J. E. Woodward and T. J. O'Brien.

L. C. White, a youthful vagrant, who has been a frequent caller at the shrine of Judge Berka the last few months, was assessed $55 and costs for accepting money from fallen women and was remanded to the city juit to serve out the same on his fallure to pay.

J. A. Brown of $15 South Transferred

J. A. Brown of 616 South Twenty-ninth street, likes country butter, so last Monday he laid in a supply. It was a jar full and he put it in the ice box for sife keeping. He reports to the police that some miscreant saw him hide his butter and now he wants it back.

Attorneys Cooper and Dunn have notified the city that they would like to effect a settlement in the claim of Henry Coombs. Coombs asserts that on November 5 his buggy was run into from the rear by a sewer department team and wagon in charge of George Rigby; that Coombs was thrown to the pavement and had three ribs fractured. He has not asked a specific sum and the matter was referred to the legal department.

City Engineer Rorewater Declares Garbage Company Violates Its Agreement.

FAVORS MUNICIPAL CONTROL OF WORK

Cites Cost of Destroying Refuse in Other Cities to Show Advantage of the System Which He Advocates.

Severe criticisms on the methods of the City Garbage company are made-in the report on the garbage and refuse situation which City Engineer Rosewater has submitted to the council. He declares that the company has been violating its contract for years; that parties interested in the contract protested against a river dump and then employed such a means of disposing of the waste matter, and, finally, that the threat of injunctions if the city tries to establish its own dumping ground are poorly founded.

Mr. Rosewater says he is satisfied municipal operation yields far better results. No figures are at hand showing the cost per capita in Omaha and it can be gauged only, by the individual bills of residents and property owners.

From twenty-five to thirty-five loads of stable manure are thrown in the river every day, according to the engineer, which should be collected and sold to farmers or the highest bidder, as it is valuable for fertilizing on farms in the vicinity. The total amount of kitchen refuse, nightsol and indiscriminate waste hauled each day is estimated between thirty-five and fifty loads, the greater portion being deposited In the river at the Jones street or City B. Garbage company's dump

Speaking of the notorious ten-year contract with this company, which expired December 31, the engineer says:

Genesis of the Contract.

December 31, the engineer says:

This contract was for ten years and was procured without competition, and brought about by a clamor that the dumping of city trash at the foot of Jones street was an unbearable nuisance. The contract expressly provides that all garbage and other trashes were to be hauled a distance of not less than two and one-half miles from the city limits, and if not further than three miles from the city limits, be dumped at such place or places as may be designated by the Board of Health. It is needless to state that the spirit of this contract was never carried out, and that shortly after going into effect the dump was resumed at where some of the former parties to this contract objected to its delivery under injunction threats.

The parties to this contract now intimate that if the city locates a dump at a point below the Union Pacific bridge near The parties to this contract now intimate that if the city locates a dump at a point below the Union Pacific bridge near Poppleton avenue, where the trash of much more offensive matter from the distillery is being discharged, the courts will be invoked for injunction to prevent it. This feature of possibilities has actually been presented to your honorable body to insure an extension of the present contract under which dumping is going on much nearer the heart of the city without molestation.

Cost of Public Ownership

A careful perusal of official reports as to ost under public ownership to collect and active are garbage shows it to range from the container capita per year. This incherate garbage shows it to range from the to 3Mc cents per capita per year. This compared to the tax on citizens by garbage collectors will be quite a surprise and still even under proper contract systems many of the large cities expend even less than this amount, but I am satisfied the service is not as efficient.

The following table shows the cost per capita per minum for collecting and destroying garbage under contract and municipal systems.

Municipal Per Capita. New York........211/2 Chicago ..... Philadelphia Washington .

Second only to the problem which confronts Kasturkedich is that which bobs up from this labyrinth of woe in front of the police authorities and lawyers interested in the case. No Remedy in Sight,

Assistant Prosecutor Weaver says nothng can be done and City Prosecutor Lee cannot well take a hand because the case does not come within the pale of the law which governs his actions in court. With out a complaint Judge Berka has no jurisdiction and the case evidently will have to go by default.

Last July Mr. Humelstein got the postal order at the local office. Last Saturday Mrs. Humeistein, with the help of Kasturkedich, got it cashed at the Omaha National bank. Last Monday the order was presented at the postoffice for payment and retifrned to the bank marked with a red lead pencil "No good," and last Monday afternoon Kasturkedich, who has money

Enos Perkins of Cambridge, Arrested for Alleged Counterfeiting and Forg ng.

FLUSH WITH TEN-DOLLAR GOLD PIECES

Default of Bond is Brought to Omaha and Confined in

> Douglas County Jail.

Enos Perkins, a farmer of the vicinity of Cambridge, Neb., is an occupant of the Douglas county jail, pursuant to the instructions of United States Commissioner E. W. Beghtol at Holdrege, in default of $2,000 ball, because of his inability to satisfactorily explain how he happened to be business as a farmer and horse trader

The charge is making, forging and counterfeiting certain United States coins and moneys, and that he "did have the same In his possession and did then and there, about January 1, 1904, utter and pass the same, knowing them to be false and forged and counterfeit, in the city and town o Cambridge, Nebraska and elsewhere. Deputy United States Marshal Walling brought the accused to this city Tuesday night from Cambridge, Perkins is said to have borne an excellent reputation in his vicinity, his home being about twenty miles north of Cambridge where he filed and proved up on a home stead about twenty years ago. Some years ago he disposed of the homestead and disappeared from the vicinity and all knowledge of him was lost until his reappearance there recently, when he seemed very "flush" with money and bought back his old homestead, where he has since resided. The story goes that he has disappeared from the vicinity at intervals and mained absent for some little time, and accounted for it in the fact that he was looking after some farming interests he had near Sabetha, Kan. Origin of Suspicion.

Coincident with his reappearance near Cambridge, a greater or less quantity of bogus gold $10 pieces were found to be in circulation thereabouts. No particular suspicion, however, attached to Perkins, as he seemed to be an industrious and fairly prosperous farmer. However, there was recently received at Cambridge a gold plating machine to be delivered C. O. D. The party to whom it was consigned was unable to take it out of the express office because of the charges and Mr. Perkins kindly consented to take it out for him, advancing the necessary money and would and neighbors until the amount of C. O. D. charges had been met. This circumstance caused a little suspicion to be directed toward Perkins and later investigations by detectives and secret service agents of the small girl, who smothered the flames with government resulted in the arrest of Per-

The case was worked up by Captain Mark J. Thomas of the United States secret service of Kansas City, who is now in the city, and yesterday secured an order from the United States circuit court transferring the case to the Kansas City district. The counterfeit coins were passed mostly in northeastern Kansas at points from Sabetha to Hiawatha. Nine of the ten coins presumed to have been passed by Perkins were recovered by Captain Thomas and were practically traced to him. Captain Thomas is reticent regarding the metter, but is of the opinion that Perkins is but one of a gang of counterfeiters, or at least the distributing agent for them. His in possession of certain $10 gold pieces in along the Kansas and Nebraska line is aight to have afforded a good oppor tunity for passing the spurious coins, which

Heed Nature's Warning.

No. 1117 Terpsichore Street, New OBLEANS, La., March 30, 1903,

I suffered for two years with profuse as well as too frequent menstruction, sometimes returning after a cessation of from ten to sixteen days, causing great prostration, faintness and debility. I had used so much useless medicine that I had become completely discouraged when Wine of Cardui was brought to my notice.

I used it for three days, when I found to my great relief that I felt generally better. After two months' continued use my health had been greatly improved and I seemed like a new woman. I became regular. The flow was painless and natural, and in four months I was in perfect health. Words can but poorly express my gratitude and happiness over restored health, and I shall always be a firm friend of your grand medicine.
