trip. This, his friends take it, means that he yesterday will say something that will attract the attention of democrats all over the country though it is not believed that any candidate will be endorsed by him in that speech. The discussion of the banquet since Mr. Bryan's return has become the paramount question here and that it will be a success from the standpoint of attendance and interest there is no question. Already 450 tickets have been sold and there is ous to enable all the pupils to make their

the largest single delegation of any town in the state. Chairman Worrall of the entertainment committee is elated at the indications of success as well as are the other members of that committee. Mr. Bryan has talked to some members of the committee, but even they do not know what might happen when the speechmaking beging.

In the meantime, those democrats who have been saying that Mr. Bryan had better look a little out or he will not get to run things as he desires at the democratic state convention are not saying a word and it is generally accepted that they will pay down the dollar and sit among the elect. Bryan here and Bryan in Europe are certainly two different beings when it comes to having influence on Nebraska democrats.

From 7:30 until $:30 o'clock State Chairman Hall of the state committee and Mr. Bryan will receive in the Lindell hotel lobby.

Lincoln Alleges Discrimination.

A vigorous campaign is at once to be ineugurated by the freight bureau of the fiat rate contract. Commercial club against the alleged discrimination in the matter of freight rates in favor of Omaha and against Lincoln. This was decided upon at the annual meet. ing of the bureau held this afternoon at which a resolution was adopted calling for a public meeting for the discussion of the subject and for the raising of the funds tests. Others have preferred the sliding scale, $4 per ton for 14 per cent beets and necessary to carry on the fight to stop the alleged discrimination.

Denies All Liability.

The Union Pacific Rallway company this norning filed in the supreme court a brief disclaiming any liability for the death of Michael Smith, a Woodlawn farmer, who was killed in October, 1899, while driving home from Lincoln. The plaintiff, Mary Smith, who acted as administratrix of the estate of her husband, sued the company on the ground that it was negligent in not fencing its track as required by statute, and therefore ought to be held liable for the death of her husband, who drove over the banks of a cut at Woodlawn and was thrown on the track ahead of an approaching engine.
