sonian club and others, is that the democ racy of Nebraska should send Congressman Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Count Creighton and Ed P. Smith to the national convention," said Mr. Weaver last evening to a reporter for The Bee.

"This comes directly from me." contined Mr. Weaver, "and is not to be construed, as an action of the club. The men I have mentioned are recognized Bryan men. I would have Congressman Hitcheock for delegate-at-large and Count Creighton and Mr. Smith as our district delegates." -The club held an adjourned meeting last night and besides routine business, considered the advisability of chartering a special train from Omaha to St. Louis, the national convention city, where the democrats meet July 6.

These committees have been named by President Weaver:

stronger. Even at that the market is all of logific lower than a week ago. The re-port is that the beef market is the east is in rather bad shape and as a result the de-mand from packers as well as shippers is rather limited. Short-fed and common cat-tle are selling from $4.15 down, fair to good grades from $4.25 to $4.50 and good to choice from $4.50 to $5. The cow market has also been in rather bad shape, the course of prices being much the same as noted above for steers. Wednesday was the low day of the week, but even with Thursday's and Friday's im-provement the market is right around 1000 its lower for the week, except possibly in the case of something that just suited, buy-ers. Canners and cutters are selling largely from $1.50 to $2.55, fair to good grades from $2.40 to $2.90 and good to choice from $3 to $2.50, with something prime from that up to $3.75. Bulls have cased off about 15025c, the gradest loss being on the better grades. Sloux City Live, Stock Market. HEEP-There were several cars of sheep sale this morning, but most of them re sold to arrive. For the week, receipts about 5.000 head short of last week, but compared with the same week of last ar there is an increase of over 7.000 year there is an increase of over 7.000 head. The market the first half of the week was in rather bad shape and prices reached the low point on Wednesday. Since that time the general tone to the trade has been decidedly better and the tendency or prices which amounted to 25c to 40c, has been re-gained. The part fat and common kinds have been neglected and hard to sall at any prize. Commission men are advising their patrons to make their sheep and invibs fat before disposing of them. Feeders have been scarce all this week, so that in spite of the drop in the price of Others Won Prizes ROOMS Last Week. RENT.

Why Not You This Week?

Rent a room and win a prize at the same time,

Beginning Sunday, January 24th, The Bee will give prizes to those who rent rooms as a result of an advertisement in The Bee, Read the conditions carefully, CONDITIONS.

The prizes will be awarded either to the party letting the room or to the roomer, respectively, as designated in the prize list.

Prizes will be awarded in the order named to the party letting or to the party who rents a room according to the day and hour rented, as the result of a Want Ad appearing in The Bee on Sunday, January 24th, or during the days following.

Each candidate for a prize must have both the certificates which appear below, filled out, one by the party letting the room and the other by the roomer, attesting the genuineness of the transaction and the exact time that the bargain was made.

It makes no difference whether the advertisement appears under the heading of "Furnished Rooms," "Furnished Rooms and Board" or "Unfurnished Rooms."
