(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 71 .- (Special.)-With a visit to Havelock this afternoon and a theater party at the Oliver tonight, the editers concluded their annual sojourn in Lincoln, and if the bouquets thrown at this town will get more advertising than a fat man at a country fair.

This morning the men of the press took advantage of the early hours to recover from the effects of their seance at the Elks' club rooms last night, and also grasped the opportunity to try the novelty of sleeping late, consequently it was late before the session got down to business, and the program had to be railroaded through like the last news item just before press time. But it was carried out just the same, all except the part assigned to Bixby, the poet, and A. B. Woods of the Gering Cour-The latter didn't come and Bixby didn't get around until this afternoon, when he did his stunt, with Will Maupin to whoop it up after he got through George L. Wheeler of the Fairfield Herald and H. Gordon Cross of the St. Edward Sun talked about the "Ready Print Problem from a Printer's Standpoint."

Ex-Governor Furnas, who won the heart of every newspaper man in the state for his generous recognition of the press during the late state fair, talked about the old newspaper days, as did M. A. Brown of the Kearney Hub. Then C. E. Byars started his round-table. This afternoon this program was carried out:

Buys No More Warrants,

After February 1 State Treasurer Morten sen will not take up warrants with the current fund as he has done in the past. Today he turned into the current fund sufficient money from the school fund to take up the warrants and has closed the account for good. From the money coming into the school fund, in a short time, the treasurer will have to go abroad for investment unless something at home turns up.

While it is technically contrary to law to buy warrants with current funds, Treasurer Mortensen has done so, and by so doing he has saved many dollars to the state in interest and has secured possession of many warrants that now would likely be hard to get, and incidentally saved the credit of the state that might have been jeopardized by the inability of the state to sash the warrents when they were pre-

Richardson S. Horton, trustee of the Greater American exposition, that is try-ing to recover from Hayden Bros. of Omaha $10,000 that the exposition management paid them and that the supreme court said was right to pay them, has filed a brief in the supreme court asking for a rehearing. The lower court decided against Hayden Bros. and this decision was overruled by the supreme court some time ago.

Island Case Up Again. In the famous island case from Buffalo ounty, in which George S. Whittaker and Mary I. Whittaker were ejected by order of the court and fined $25 and costs for returning to the Island, Judge Hamer, attorney for the paintiffs, has filed in the supreme court a brief asking that the decision of the lower court be overruled. The case involves ownership of the island in the Platte river, upon which Whittaker had lived for a number of years.

Puts on More Cars. Manager Cox of the Traction company, who recently took charge of the affairs of the company, has already begun to get a warm place in the hearts of the people of Lincoln. He has ordered several extra cars placed on the Havelock, South Seventeenth and College View lines during the busy morning and evening hours of the day, adding much to the comfort of travelers. Heretofore the supply of cars at morning and evening was inadequate to the demand and busy people were subjected to long waits and much inconvenience. Boy Captures a 'Possum.

PRISONER'S BRIDE IS TRUE Convict Who Violates Parole and Gets Married Reincarcerated, but Her Pleadings May Avail.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Jan. 27 .- (S) -An interesting story is connected with the return of William Richle, otherwise known as William Nation, bridegroom and paroled convict, to the penitentiary. Richle was married last week to a young widow of this city. He was taken back to the penitentiary Saturday evening. Richie was convicted, it is stated, of arcony and sentenced to serve three years. At the present time all but two months of this sentence had expired. Some weeks ago he was paroled, a liveryman at Lincoln being responsible for him. Richie says he found work in the barn, from 4 a. m. to 9 p. m., rather irksome. He considered Hastings a better proposition, and unmindful of the rules in such cases made and provided, left for Hastings quietly rithout giving notice of his destination. He worked for a few weeks in a broom factory at Hastings and about five weeks ago came to Grand Island to accept similar place. He took up boarding with widow named Mrs. Ehlers, who kept a private boarding house. He continued in his work and in the course of a few weeks became smitten with his landlady. The attraction seemed mutual. Last week the couple went to Hastings, where they were quietly married. Coming back to this city, they changed their occupation a trifle and opened the Cottage cafe on Third street, in the business section, and were apparently endeavoring to better their condition and succeeding nicely, so far as a beginning was concerned.

FIRE CAUSES SEVERE PANIC One Hundred Roomers Driven Out Into the Street with Scant

Attire.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 27 .- (Special Telagram.)-Fire of uncertain origin in the McMurtry block at Eleventh and M streets, discovered about 11 o'clock tonight, drove over 100 people from their rooms in the block, most of them clad in their nightelothes and wrapped in blankets. Only the coolness of the firemen and Police Officers Bently, David and Overton prevented a panic and doubtless saved many from injury. The fire started in the basement under the feed store of G. A. Greenamyer in some old books and a mattress, and fhough doing little damage itself completely filled the fourstory building with smoke and in several instances almost suffocating the roomers. several of them being carried down stairs from the second and third floors by firemen and others. On the north side of the block was a stairway by which the inmates could have escaped by walking over a portion of the roof, part of the building being four stories and part three stories, but in their excite ment they all attempted to come down the front stairway, which was dense with smoke and only added to their terror. It was here that the police did good work in calming the crowd. Owing to the smoke it was only after hard work on the part of Chief Clements and his men that the fire was located and extinguished.

The building was inspected by Chief Clement several days ago and he recommended that it be condemned as being un fit for occupancy. Besides lodging rooms there are several offices in the building Until an investigation is made Chief Clement would not hazard an opinion as to how the fire started.
