Has the Best of the Fighting for Four Rounds

RYAN LANDS REPEATEDLY ON STOMACH

Honors Were About Evenly Divided Up to the Sixth Round and Both Men Take Considerable Punishment.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—Jack O'Brien and Tommy Ryan fought one of the fastest six-round bouts ever seen in this city tonight and the Philadelphia had a slight advantage. O'Brien clearly outboxed Ryan in the first four rounds and in the fifth Ryan took the count of eight and came up groggy. He saved himself by clinching until he had regained his bearings. A moment later Ryan drove a vicious left to O'Brien's stomach, which sent the Philadelphia to his knees.

Ryan seemed to regain his wind as the round progressed and landed repeatedly on O'Brien's stomach with vicious lefts. It was only the gong that saved O'Brien from being knocked out. In the sixth round honors were about evenly divided. Ryan received severe punishment. When the gong sounded, ending the fight, both men were in very bad shape.

Near the close of the fifth round O'Brien was on the floor, one of his seconds threw a sponge full of water over him. Many persons were of the opinion that this ended the fight, but the referee said "No."

PANAMA SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Simmons First Democratic Senator to Support Bill on the Floor.

COMMITTEE AUTHORIZED IN SMOOT CASE

Bill Granting Citizens of Newly Acquired Islands Naturalization Privileges Discussed and Voted On.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The senate proceedings today included a speech by Mr. Simmons, of North Carolina, in support of the Panama canal treaty, and the passage of a number of bills and resolutions. Mr. Simmons was the first democratic senator to favor the measure on the floor of the senate. He announced his disapproval of the intervention of the United States in the Panama revolt, but said that as the revolution was an accomplished fact, and was such before the treaty was made, he could not accept the theory that the treaty itself was invalid.

Among the bills passed, was one granting to citizens of Porto Rico and the Philippines the right to take advantage of the naturalization laws of this country, but Mr. Spooner moved to reconsider the vote, thus leaving the question undisposed of. The resolution giving authority to the committee on privileges and election to proceed with the investigation of the charges against Mr. Smoot, was passed.

Mr. Simmons said he believed the president and the secretary of state should be relieved of all charges of complicity in the Panama revolt. He added that he did not believe the possession of information concerning an approaching revolution should be accepted as discrediting the president, and added:

Should Accept Statement.
In deference to the views of others on the subject of the Panama canal, I do not wish to make a statement. I think the statement of the president in this respect should be accepted. Undoubtedly the president was in a difficult position in view of the fact that the canal was under construction. It was his duty in view of imminent insurrection to have on the ground sufficient force to protect the lives and property of American citizens. This he did and if he had done no more than his duty under the law.

Mr. Simmons announced his belief that the change of recommendation by the Isthmian Canal commission from Nicaraguan to the Panama route had been the result of honest conviction. He also accepted the Spooner act as a deliberate pronouncement by congress in favor of Panama, and a direction to the president to construct the canal by that route, "if possible to acquire title in a reasonable time." He continued:

It is vehemently asserted by some of the opponents of this treaty that a vote for its ratification under the circumstances is tantamount to condoning the action of the administration as to the resolution and the recognition of the revolution. I do not think I can do better than to join my colleagues in condemning whatever was wrong in the premises. I do not believe I have done anything to justify the charge that I am an independent state, possessed of equal rights and powers to make this treaty as valid as any other. I do not believe I have done anything to justify the charge that I am an independent state, possessed of equal rights and powers to make this treaty as valid as any other.

Mr. Simmons also announced his intention to vote for the various resolutions of inquiry and closed with the expression of a desire that Colombia might be compensated for its loss.

Discusses Citizenship Bill.
Considerable discussion followed of a bill providing means for citizens of Porto Rico and the Philippines to become citizens of the United States. The fact was developed that citizens of these and other countries similarly situated to the United States have no means of becoming naturalized as citizens. Mr. Pettus, during the debate, suggested that the island of Porto Rico should be made a territory and Mr. Foraker said he had not as much objection to that end as some of his colleagues. The bill passed, but Mr. Spooner entered a motion to reconsider, which went over.

The following bills were passed: A bill authorizing the erection of a monument at Point Pleasant, W. Va., to commemorate the battle fought there with Indians in 1774.

Authorizing the secretary of the interior to restore the public entry lands embraced in aggregations for the reservoirs. Extending to the mine at Denver, San Francisco and New Orleans the privilege of mining minor veins.

Granting 50,000 acres of public lands each, in the state of Idaho and Wyoming for the maintenance of soldiers' homes. The senate went into executive session at 3:55 o'clock and at 4:50 o'clock adjourned.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—Moncure Robinson and Sarah Sison Abell, members of two of Baltimore's richest and most fashionable families, have eloped to Chester, Pa., where they were married by Mayor Howard H. Houston. They went to Chester, where Robinson's brother-in-law has a country home, and the wedding had been arranged to take place in a church of which the bride is a member, when a telegram from a higher ecclesiastic in Baltimore put a stop to the ceremony. The police also appeared with telegrams commanding them to stop the wedding. But the party appeared before the mayor and satisfied him that the license was regular. After the bride had sworn she was of age he granted them the license. The bride's mother appeared a few minutes too late. Differences in religion are said to have caused the attempt to stop the elopement.
