

TEBEAU CARRIES HIS POINT

Reinstated to Full Standing in the Western Base Ball League.

ONLY SIX CLUBS TO PLAY THIS SEASON

Milwaukee and Kansas City Drop Out and Sioux City is Awarded the Peoria Franchise—Tebeau One of Directors.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—One more of the scars left by the late ball warfare was obliterated today, when the Western league, magnates in special meeting at the Grand Pacific hotel patched up all their differences with George Tebeau, admitting him to full membership under his rights in the Kansas City and Denver Western league franchises, of which he was deprived by vote of the league a little more than two years ago, and decided on a circuit of six clubs for the season of 1904, retaining the vested right to return to an eight-club circuit at any time. This was done by rendering the franchises in Milwaukee and Kansas City inactive for the time being.

The 1904 circuit will include Denver, Colorado Springs, St. Joseph, Omaha, Des Moines and Sioux City.

The magnates did not get into session until late in the afternoon, devoting the rest of the day to reaching an agreement with Tebeau. It was decided to admit Sioux City, the franchise formerly held by Peoria being awarded to W. B. Nation. The application of A. B. Beall of Minneapolis, who was at one time looking for the Sioux City franchise, was withdrawn. The Milwaukee franchise was then formally transferred to Pueblo, Colo., and the Kansas City franchise to Lincoln, Neb., but these cities will be nonplaying members, their franchises being vested in the league. The purpose of this action, as explained by President Sexton, was to retain the Western league's rights in that territory and enable the league to remain in class A as an eight-club organization, the intention being to place clubs in the two idle cities as soon as practicable. Tebeau, while surrendering the Kansas City franchise to the league, retains a half interest with R. E. Burke in the Denver club. C. H. Myrick of Des Moines was chosen vice president and the new board of directors will be W. A. Bourke, George Tebeau and T. F. Burns.

The directors were instructed to revise and report needed amendments to the constitution at the schedule meeting, which is set for March 19 in Des Moines. President Sexton was authorized to draw the schedule, which will call for 140 games.

The following is a resolution adopted by the league regarding George Tebeau: Whereas, We have examined the minutes of the Western league's annual meeting on November 21, 1902, when said Tebeau, who was the sole owner of the Denver franchise, was also voted the Kansas City franchise for a period of four years; and whereas, We have discovered further evidence which clearly defines the said Tebeau's rights in the premises, and believing it our duty to redress these wrongs, insofar as it is in our power, be it resolved, That we, the members of the Western league, hereby recognize George Tebeau as legal rights in the Denver and Kansas City membership and he is hereby restored to all rights and powers as a member in good standing.

MORGAN WILL NOT DEMAND

Alabama Senator Hears President Intends to Send Letter He Wants.

CULBERSON INSISTS UPON RESOLUTION

Refuses to Amend Request Calling for All Correspondence on Subject of Panama Republic and the Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Among the petitions presented in the senate today was one from the members of the Boards of Trade of Philadelphia and Brunswick, Ga., for the prompt ratification of the canal treaty.

The joint resolution authorizing the acceptance of citizens of France of a reproduction of D'Angers's bust of Washington was passed. When Mr. Morgan's resolution asking for Minister Buchanan's letter concerning amendments to the canal treaty was laid before the senate Mr. Morgan withdrew it, saying that he had been informed that it was the intention of the president to send the document to the senate in executive session.

The resolution of Mr. Culberson, introduced at the instance of the democratic caucus, requesting the president to inform the senate whether all the correspondence relating to the construction of an isthmian canal had been sent to the senate, was taken up. Mr. Culberson objected to the resolution as too broad as to date, and on his suggestion Mr. Culberson amended it so as to limit the request for correspondence since June 28, 1902, the date of the approval of the Spooner act.

Mr. Cullom then suggested that the resolution be further amended so as to relieve the president from the necessity of sending information to any which would be in his opinion, be incompatible with the public interest. Mr. Culberson declined to accept this amendment and made a speech in support of his objection and in favor of the adoption of the resolution as it stood. Mr. Cullom assented Mr. Culberson that whether his amendment was accepted or not "the senate will get all the information there is in the documents on the general question."

Hale Favors Amendment.

Mr. Hale advocated the amendment. Mr. Tillman contended that there is a difference between nominations and treaties, but Mr. Cullom contended the president as the head of that branch of the government has rights which pertain to his office exclusively.

"Our friends on the other side," he went on, "seek after a week or two of caucusing to get some advantage. My hope is to catch the president in an unguarded moment, but for three never was in the White House a president who was less liable to be found in such a predicament."

Mr. Culberson disclaimed any intention of reflecting on the president's veracity and added that it did justify such an interpretation.

Mr. Cullom gave assurance that the information sought would be forthcoming. Mr. Gorman replied, saying that "there is not now and there is not likely to be a resolution presented on this side of the chamber which is not couched in the most respectful language. We have too high a respect for that high office to pursue any other course." He stated that the discretionary clause had been purposely omitted from this resolution, but said that the omission was no indication of a desire to reflect on the president.

Mr. Aldrich suggested that the resolution should be so amended as not to include papers covering present negotiations which may now be on for the ratification of Colombia, and Mr. Gorman replied that he had not before heard that there were such negotiations in progress. He was delighted to hear that such was the case and he hoped for the honor of the country that negotiations would be pressed to a successful culmination.

Mr. Gorman said that Mr. Cullom should not be sensitive about the president. That he could take care of himself and no senator should refuse to give his assent to a request for the fullest possible information on a question so important. "There is no hesitation in the resolution," he said, "and why hesitate about its passage?"

President Not Servant of Senate. Mr. Spooner replied to Mr. Gorman. The resolution, he said, was understood to be the fruit of the collective civilization of the democratic side of the senate. He did not adopt the suggestion of Mr. Cullom that there was an ulterior motive in its introduction, for he knew "how absolutely guileless were the senator from Maryland and the senator from Texas in matters political." He could not restrain the thought that possibly there was a purpose of using the matter on the stump.

The president is not, Mr. Spooner argued, the servant of the senate and the senate could not command, and although the senate is a part of the treaty-making power, the president still the head of a co-ordinate branch of the government and could exercise authority in his own sphere of duty.

In conclusion Mr. Spooner said: "I intend to vote now and always, no matter who is president, because it is in the interest of the country and in respect and decent to the president, for a proposition or amendment leaving to the discretion of the president the right to withhold any papers which he believes should not be made public."

Mr. Lodge supported the position taken by Mr. Spooner.

TALKING FOR CONSTITUENTS

New Jersey Democrat Takes Time of House to Get Speech in Record.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—When the house convened today Mr. Van Duser (Nev.) sought to secure consideration of a resolution calling on the secretary of war for information as to what articles manufactured for that department are made by convict labor. Objection to its consideration on the ground that it was a privileged resolution was sustained.

The joint resolution authorizing the urgent deficiency bill was extended until 5 p. m. Consent was given to make the Connel-Howell election contest resolution the special order for February 9.

The house then went into committee of the whole and resumed consideration of the urgent deficiency bill.

Mr. Benny (N. J.), speaking in defense of Mr. Bryan, said he need not feel hurt as he was in good company. He quoted Senator Dooliver as having said at a banquet in Newark that no man had a right to his name of W. J. Bryan. Mr. Benny said it is the republican party that is sick.

"They have not got Dr. Penn to say a word to help them out," he said. He would inscribe on the shaft to the republican party at its death that its policies of "Let well enough alone," "Stand pat," and "We hold the ace," killed it, with a postscript signed by Hanna saying if the republican had used the word "edge" instead of "ace" they would have been all right.

"You brag and blow here about the great courage of the man who is president of the United States," said Mr. Benny. "The courageous man is a man who dares to do right. The man who shoots a lion or a Spaniard in the back does not necessarily have to be courageous."

The prophecy that to nominate Mr. Roosevelt for vice president would take him out of New York politics did not come true. He said it was proposed to stop the use of carriages by department officers and asked if anything was done to stop the president from using a free train, declaring that he had heard that a free train was at his disposal.

He said there will be one issue that cannot be dodged, declaring that to be: "Are the railroads to be permitted to drive one set of men out of business and make millionaires out of another set, and are they to be permitted to favor the Standard Oil company?"

Mr. Bede (Minn.) began his remarks by stating that if the democrats would agree to stop abusing Mr. Cleveland he would agree to have the republicans stop abusing Mr. Bryan, saying they are working in the interest of the republican party. He created a ripple of laughter by inviting the democratic party to disband.

Mr. Roosevelt, he declared, will be triumphantly elected president, and he asked the democrats to make it unanimous. The only opposition to Mr. Roosevelt, he said, was a little bunch of populists down in Wall street.

DEFENSE BEGINS ITS CASE

Trial of Mächen and Others Charged with Fraud is Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—When the trial of August W. Mächen and others, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government, was resumed today, Mr. Maddox made the opening argument for the defense. He explained how the Groff fasteners came to be invented and said that before it was patented a half interest in the patent was assigned to D. B. Groff. He also told how Dr. Lorenz paid $200 for a one-half interest in the entire patent and received, therefore, 50 per cent of the profits, the Groffs receiving 25 per cent each.

Taking up the indictment, Mr. Maddox said he was prepared to prove that the Groffs never offered the fastener for 25 cents.

Mr. Maddox was followed by Mr. Kumlir for the Lorenz. Kumlir asserted that as far back as 1888 Mächen, George E. Lorenz and his brother engaged in the oil business in Ohio and that as a result of their various transactions George E. Lorenz owed Mächen $25,000 and that whatever money Lorenz paid to Mächen was in settlement of an honest debt.

Conrad Syme, on behalf of Mächen, agreed with what Mr. Maddox and Mr. Kumlir had said and added that he would prove there was no conspiracy. When Mr. Kumlir, in the course of his opening remarks, said that Mrs. Lorenz had been scandalized by the government, which had treated her with cruelty, Mrs. Lorenz broke down and wept bitterly. She was led from the room by Mrs. Mächen and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. Mächen's sister. She recovered her composure during the recess and occupied her accustomed place in court.

The first witness for the defense was Miss Ina S. Liebhardt, chief clerk of the rural free delivery division, who had testified for the government. She gave in great detail a statement of the administrative duties of the superintendent of the free delivery division and said since 1886 she had placed Mächen's name and initial on many avery paper going out of the free delivery division.

She further testified that Mächen never had talked with her on the subject of Groff fasteners, except in connection with the trial of this case. The witness had not concluded when court adjourned until tomorrow.

When the blood is in bad condition a bruise, cut, scratch, or any slight injury to the flesh, is apt to become an ugly-looking sore or ulcer. Sometimes a boil, blister or pimple is the beginning of a large eating ulcer or open, discharging sore. Often the blood is naturally bad, and is that way from birth, and such people suffer with various kinds of sores from infancy through old age. The blood may become so weak and watery from the effects of malarial sickness, debility or some old chronic trouble, that the impurities break out in bad sores on the lower extremities or other part of the body. There is always some morbid, unhealthy matter in the blood that keeps the sore discharging, and must be gotten out before it will heal. Washes and salves, while cleansing, soothing and helpful, will not do it, because they do not reach the poisoned blood; but S. S.
