Farnam St. WALKER CASE BEFORE COURT Application for Injunction is Argued

The application for a restraining order which was brought by Victor B. Walker, colored, in his capacity as president of the Silver Leaf club, whereby he seeks to estop the frequent arrests which the police have made of persons in his place of busi-ness on Dodge street, at the headquarters of the Silver Leaf club, was argued before Judge Baxter this morning. City Attorney Wright produced some af-fidavits tending to prove the fact that Walker's reputation was bad. Walker argued that the local police should not be permitted to raid his place repeatedly. It was said that none of the officers over at-Walker also urged the fact that the Sil-
