PIONEER OF COUNTY DEAD
Samuel Haney, for Forty Years a Resident of Elkhorn, Passes Away.
County Commissioner Peter Hofeldt reports the death of Samuel Haney, one of the oldest settlers of Douglas county. Haney died Monday afternoon. He settled in the vicinity of Elkhorn forty years ago, and at the time of his death was a well-to-do stock raiser. He had been sick for two weeks. He leaves a wife. The funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, following which the interment will be made in the British cemetery.

Announcements of the Theaters.
The bill on at the Orpheum this week is proving magnetic in drawing a series of big houses. In acrobatics it is difficult to find anything new, but the four Nightings are doing an act different from the many that have been here. The next matinee will be given Thursday.

On tomorrow evening Blanche Walsh returns to Omaha with her great play, "Resurrection," based on the Tolstoy novel of the same name. Omaha people who saw this piece during the earlier part of the season, when Miss Walsh first offered it here, still recall with great vividness the impressive situations and powerful acting of this great woman, who gives vitality to one of the strongest sermons ever preached from the stage. One club woman remarked after seeing the piece, "It would not have missed it for anything; it has done me a world of good, for it has opened my eyes to things I didn't understand." The engagement is for two nights and a matinee on Friday afternoon.

The cucumber is of tropical origin. Perhaps that explains why it hits one in the region of the equator. But it doesn't explain why ready-made trousers fail to fit well in the equatorial region. That they're made for a dummy, not a man, explains that. How foolish the ready-made wearer is, when this Fall Stock Reducing Sale is making to your measure $4.00 and $7.00 Trousers for $5.
