OMAHA WINS TEAM SHOOT

Last Day of Tournament Sees Exciting Race at Traps.

KLINE OF SPIRIT LAKE MAKES STRAIGHT

Only Man in Bunch of Thirty-Five to Get Twenty-Five Live Birds Takes Nice Pot of Money.

Friday afternoon saw the close of the interstate target and pigeon shoot, which has been in progress at Douglas park since Tuesday and which the large number of sportsmen who have been in at-tendance are unanimous in saying has been one of the most thoroughly enjoyable and successful events of the kind ever held in this part of the country.

In spite of the fact that the weather for the first two days was bitterly cold, and on this account the scores made were omewhat less creditable than they otherwise would have been, the unusually favorable conditions of the last two days about evened things up and all the shooters who departed for home after the close of the tourney did so more than satisfied with the general result.

Yesterday's race was between seven teams of five men each in which only residents of Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and lowa were eligible to participate, and furnished some rare sport as well as some good money for the shooters. There was nuch jubilation among local sportsmen last night over the fact that Omaha teams Nos. 1 and 2 won first and third purses, espectively, out of the four offered. Omaha team No. 1 won the first prize with ill birds out of a possible 125. Kansas City and the All-Nebraska team tied for nd place with 107 kills, Omaha team No. 2 scored 106 and Iowa and St. Joseph tied for fourth by dropping 105. With only birds difference between the highest and lowest prize winners and thirty-five men contesting, the kenness of the rivalry may be easily appreciated. All-Kansas finished without the prize winning limit with 101 birds killed.

The only straight kill of the day was made by Russell Kline of Spirit Lake, Ia., who dropped his twenty-five without the suggestion of a miss. This was worth to him the pretty little sum of $112. Four en were in the 24 hole, which made them each; four in the 23, $14 each, and seven in the 22, $6.85 per man.

During the morning there were a number of minor shoots at clays not down on the program which kept the men busy. During the match of four days over 20,000 clay targets have been broken. This afternoon the Omaha teams are to have their regular Saturday live bird shoot and many of the out-of-town cracks have stald over to participate in this.

Thursday night a meeting of the association was held and it was voted to hold the next shoot at Sensca, Kan., the 19th of March. Following is yesterday's summary:

"I was in very poor health and weighed but 92 pounds, and my stom-ach was in such poor condition that I could not enjoy my food. I secured a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and when I had taken one bottle I was able to eat a great deal better and felt a desire for food, so I continued taking it. Iowa and Michigan will probably meet on

Iowa will next fall attempt to even up with the total score 35 to 21 in Omaha's favor.

There was some exceptionally fine individual work done by a member of each team. Cherrington of Omaha, besides scoring over twice the points of any other member of the team, displayed uncommon ability in securing the ball and contriving to throw it for a goal. He was the fastest on his feet and was plainly the ablest player on the field. Besides this he participated in three of the athletic events, winning the high jump. He has played with the team for the last three years and has developed into the best young player in this vicinity.

Anderson was easily the star for Sioux City. He, too, is an old player and, as usual, showed up the best of his team. The game on the whole was remarkable for the absence of fouls and the perfect fairness of the officials. Below is the resout of the athletic events and the lineup of the teams: REPORTS OF THE CLEARING HOUSE. Transactions of the Associated Banks During the Past Week.

STAPLES ARE MATTER OF CONCERN.

Growing Feeling That Spring Trade May Open Late.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.-Bradstreets to weather conditions unfavorably affected trade and transportation throughout most of the west, while wildly fluctuating markets of cotton, coffee and the cereals make the speculative situation of those staples a matter of concern. The feeling grows that a later opening of spring trade and conservative buying are to be looked for in many lines. Exceptions are to be found in the south, which reports wholesale trade active, especially in fertilizers, live stock and implements, all preparations looking to an immense acreage in cotton. Next to this may be classed the southwest, which, despite bad weather, reports trade satisfactory, the outlook good and bank clearings very large.

Eastern trade experience are good as to retail winter trade, which is said to have riesned up old stocks of goods. As to spring trade, however, irregularity is noted. The spring business in shoes has been fair with eastern hanufacturers, but all trade is as yet absent and shipments are not as large as a year ago. Men's wear woolens are not moving quickly for fall delivery. Ciothiets are buying conservatively.

Wool is firm with stocks light and 5 to morrow will say:

are not as large as a year ago. Men's wear woolens are not moving quickly for fall delivery. Clothists are buying conservatively.

Wood is firm with stocks light and 5 to 10 per cent higher, prices being at London sales. Cotton goods are much disturbed. Buyers and sellers are alike uncertain. Mills that bought below 12 cents are able to sell goods and run freely, but those with short stocks on raw material are reported considering short time.

The Iron trade shows little change. Reports of large buying of plg fron are denied. Snow blockades have shortened temporary supplies of eastern markets and strengthened prices. Southern 17on is lower at western centers, though reported firm at Birmingham. Buying as a whole is slow and of a hand to mouth character. Finished products show no great expansion. Two pools, the hoop and band and the locomotive lire pool, are reported to have dissolved. Plates and structural are rather backward and the arongest item is wirs, which is selling well. Agricultural hardware is in good demand in the west. The other metals, copper, lead and tim are all lower in price.

to Get Ald.

LONDON, Feb. 5 .- An interesting bit of ante-war history was revealed by the liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Hannerman, in the House of Commons today, in the debate on the proposed amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Referring to Joseph Chamberlain's gibes at the attitude of the opposition when Mr. Chamberlain yesterday defended the course of the government toward the Transvani, Sir Henry said that when Mr. Chamberlain interviewed him June 20, 1899, prior to the war, and asked him if the opposition would support the government in sending out 10,000 troops to Cape Colony, he, Sir Henry, expressed surprise, whereupon Mr. Chamberlain said:

"You need not be alarmed. There will be no fighting. We know those fellows won't fight. We are playing a game of bluff." As a result, Sir Henry added, the opposition refused to relieve the government of any responsibility regarding the course it chose to pursue.

The statement of Sir Henry was greeted with roars of laughter from the opposition

Mr. Chamberlain, in reply, said he did not emember using the word "bluff." His on'y object in approaching Sir Henry was to make sure that the South African question should not be treated in a party spirit so that the Boers might be convinced of the earnestness of Great Britain.

Government Majority is Eighty-Six. In the ultimate division in the House of Commons today on Mr. Robson's amendment to the address the government had a majority of 86.
