BROADWELL GETS DECISION Democratic Candidate Declared to Be Elected Over Bingham as Clerk of the District Court. The long-drawn-out Broadwell-Bingham election contest was finally brought to a close in Judge Vinsonhaler's session of the county court yesterday, much to the expressed relief of all parties concerned. Judge Vinsonhaler's decision, delivered immediately at the conclusion of the arguments, was to the effect that Frank A. Broadwell, present incumbent, was elected clerk of the district court by a plurality of sixteen votes.

The court wasted but little time in sum ming up the case, because the same ground has been gone over so many times as. in his opinion, to make it unnecessary,

The contention of Mr." Bingham's counsel was, in substance, that certain irregularities which existed in several precincts of different wards at the time of the election, were such as to invalidate the vote in these precincts and that it should therefore be thrown out. This done, they claimed the count would elect Mr. Bingham as elerk. The court declined to rule in any instance that the irregularities charged were such as to invalidate the election in any
