GO EAST TO MEET HARRIMAN

More Officials Called to New York by Their Chies

GENERAL MANAGER BANCROFT THERE

Harriman Confers with Northwestern and Alton Men Regarding the Purchase by Northwestern of Alton.

Thomas M. Schumacher, traffic manager of the Oregon Short Line, passed through Tuesday evening in his private car. He was on his way from New York where he has been in consultation with President Harriman regarding affairs of the Short Line J. Kruttchmitt, fourth vice president and assistant to the president and general manager of the Southern Pacific, came in ever the Union Pacific Tuesday evening and went east via the Northwestern on his way to New York, where he was called by President Harriman. Owing to the fact that these two officials and General Manager Bancroft of the Union Pacific have been called to New York to consult with their chief it is judged that some extensive plans are under considera-

Mr. Harriman's calling these officials to New York just when and where he is conferring with Northwestern and Alton official regarding the purchase by the Northwestern of the Alton, is considered very significant. It is believed in railroad circles that the Northwestern, with which the Harriman interests are closely allied in traffic arangements, will take over the Alton and that this will have material effect in facilitating some of Mr. Harriman's most cherished plans for better eastern outlets.

Firemen for Union Pacific.

Thomas Dailey, an ex-fireman in the Omalia department, has been employed by the Union Pacific to take charge of the firefighting force which has been organized at the headquarters of the company. For a time Mr. Dailey will give instructions in the science of fighting fire each day. The members of the volunteer company were assembled on the walk south of the headquarters building and the scientific principles of the chemical extinguisher were explained. One of the tanks was carried to the sidewalk and a student operated it by breaking the glass and directing the stream upon an imaginary fire in the same manner that would be employed should a real fire occur. The rest of the class stood by and noted the proceedings carefully. There are about twenty members in the volunteer company and they have been selected from the various offices in the building. All of the changes which were recommended by Building Inspector Withnell to make the headquarters building more safe have been completed and with the thorough organization of the volunteer company it is believed that little danger from fire is to be feared.

E. Montmorency, assistant general freight agent of the B. & M., is in Kansas City attending a meeting of freight men called to check lumber rates.

On June 1 the eastern division of the Wabash will be opened for passenger traffic, and on and after that date passengers from this city to Pittsburg can go directly through with but one change of cars, at St. Louis, and all the way on the rails of the Wabash.

J. M. Gruber, general superintendent; W.

J. M. Gruber, general superintendent; W. A. Deuel, superintendent of the Nebraska division, and C. J. Lane, assistant general freight agent, all of the Union Pacific, left Tuesday evening about 3 o'clock for an inspection trip over the Nebraska division of their line. It is not known just when they will return.

Eight companies of the Twenty-seventh United States infantry passed through Omaha Tuesday evening bound for Fort Sheridan, Ili. They came direct from the Philippines, having landed in San Francisco February 13. Two special trains were run over the Union Pacific and the Northwestern to accommodate the troops.

A. J. Ewing has resigned his position as Northwestern to accommodate the troops.

A. J. Ewing has resigned his position as local contracting agent of the Erie Dispatch Fast Freight line, effective March I. Mr. Ewing will take charge of the advertising department of the Western Woman, the new Omaha magazine. He is succeeded by Ralph M. Darling, formerly with the Missouri Pacific in this city, but lately with the Denver Commercial club as assistant secretary. mistant secretary.

Under present conditions after a title is abstracted the responsibility of all persons who have had to do with it ceases, It is the object of the organization that Mr. Krauss is forming to make the them so far as any error in the title may

On inquiry among the abstracters of the city it was learned that most of them protect their clients by giving a guarantee ond in the sum of $10,000, under which bond they are liable for errors made in the abstracts they issue. "So that such an organization as that contemplated would be unnecessary unless it contemplates giving a larger surety than the amount named," said one local

There was a bill introduced in the last session of the legislature which provided that all abstracters doing business in the state should give a bond in the sum of $10,000, but it failed to pass, so that the giving of a bond is entirely optional with abstracters themselves. A member of one of the leading abstracting firms stated that so far as he knew there had never been
