"Tillie: A Mennonite Maid," It an Absorbing Dramatic Romance.

LIFE AMONG THE PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH

H. Irving Hancock's "Japanese Physical Training" Gives System of Exercise and General Mode of Living of the Japa.

The Century company publishes Helen R. Martin's "Tillie-a Mennenite Maid" in unusually tempting form. The cover of green cloth has a charming medaliton head in tint of Tillie, framed in a conventional scroll design, and the numerous full-page illustrations by Florence Scovell Shinn are printed in brown tones on deep cream paper and the tinted insets help to make an exceedingly attractive book. The story deals with life among the Pennsylvania Dutch and is a story that the jaded novelreader will enjoy-there's dialect in it, but the kind that is easily read and very amusing, and there is the story of the heroic struggle of a young girl out of her lot of household drudgery into education and refine ment, told simply and with many touches of sly humor peculiar to the characters themselves. Tillie is the young daughter of an ignorant farmer, whose religion does not prevent him from being a very unpleasant person. There is a delightful village doctor who aids and abets Tillie in her struggles, a pertinacious Dutch lover and a young schoolmaster from Harvard-a real lover. The book is not only a most unusual portrait gallery, it is an absorbing and dramatic romance with a charming love

The Putnams have published a book by H. Irving Hancock, entitled, "Japanese Physical Training," which gives the system of exercise, diet and general mode of living that has made the mikado's people the healthlest, strongest and happlest men and women in the world. Some years ago the author became interested in the wonderful evetem of the all-around physical training that has made the Japanese, small people though they are, the greatest athletes and the happiest of the world's people. This system is known as flu-jitsu. Mr. Hancock has devoted much of his time during the past seven years to a thorough study of all its principles. In this volume he explains in detail all of the causes that have contributed to make the Japanese our superiors in health, endurance, vitality and cheerfulness of temperament. He gives descriptions of athletic feats that will properly develop each part of the body and explains the tricks of defense and attack. He gives also the Japanese principles of diet, clothing, bathing and general good and rational living.

The March number of the Beader Magn-zine is the first to appear under the new management and from the press of the Bobbs-Merrill company. To issue the February number from New York and the March number from Indianapolis means more than appears on the surface. Under the most favorable conditions the difficulties to be overcome in the transplanting of such a property must have been tremendous. Every department of the magazine was reorganized, complete and unusual arrangements for distribution were effected, additional typesetting, printing and engraving facilities were added and hundreds of details adjusted until the February number was off the press in New York. And yet the Reader Magazine appears on time, its cover adorned by a newly designed title letter, its table of contents long and appetizing, its pages clearly and beautifully printed, its advertisements increased and its own announcements for the future enterprising and encouraging. The whole performance is a remarkable aclevement, yet it is probably no more than the friends and admirers of this energetic western firm

The novelette in Ainslec's for March is "Miss Vanity." edited by Mary Hamilton Park. 'The list of contributors includes such well known names as Maarten Maartens, Geraldine Bonner, Edgar Saltus, Roy Horniman, Dorothy Dix, E. Nesbit, Miriam Michelson, Kate Masterson, Edith M. Thomas, Joseph C. Lincoln, Lillian Bell and James L. Ford.

Houghton, Mifflin & Co. will publish this spring a comprehensive and timely book by Nicholas Paine Gilman on "Methods of Industrial Peace." Prof. Gilman's previous works, "Profit Sharing Between Employer and Employe," "A Dividend to Labor, and " Socialism and the American Spirit give assurance of a thorough and well considered treatment in this new volume of trade unionism, employers' associations, collective bargaining, labor disputes and the various forms of conciliation and arbitration practiced in the United States, England, Australia and New Zealand.

It will be an interesting item of news to many to hear that Dodd, Mead & Co. are shortly to bring out another volume of Maeterlinck's miscellaneous essays. No only as a mystle, but as an essayist has Maeterlinck gained an extraordinary hold in this country during the last few years, and in this new work we are promised es-Bays similar in quality to his famous essays on the "Deeper Life." "The Inner Beauty." "Silence" and "The Invisible Goodness." The book will be uniform with "Wisdom and Destiny" and "The Treasure of the Humble."

Mrs. Catherine Donnelly of Omahs Dies at the Age of Ninety-

Mrs. Catherin Donnelly widow of the late William Donnelly, died at 11 yesterday Mrs. P. M. Mullen, 1914 Grace street. Mrs. | ter in the columns of The Bee, Donnelly was 93 years, 10 months and 25 days old, and old age is ascribed as the cause of her death. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Mullen, the deceased leaves a son, Patrick, who lives at Sutton, Neb.

Mrs. Donnelly has divided her residence between Omaha and Friend since the death of her husband fifteen years ago, living with her daughter here for the past two years. Mrs. Mullen returned from an Alaskan trip last Tuesday because of her mother's condition.

The remains will be sent from Taggart's undertaking rooms Friday afternoon to Friend where the body will be interred Saturday beside Mrs. Donnelly's late

TO FORCE BOARD TO CERTIFY Battin May Ask Mandamus Against Commissioners In Irvington License Case.

The probability now is that Attorney John W. Battin will add another chapter o the Irvington saloon license tangle by asking the district court to issue a writ of mandamus against the Board of County Commissioners and thereby compel them to show cause why they will not certify to the transcript of the proceedings whereby they granted the license to Frederick Anderson in the face of the remonstrance of several interested parties and residents in the vicinity Anderson opened his saloon. The executive committee of the Ohlo club met at the Commercial club yesterday and furthered arrangements for the club's cele-

The delinquents are settling up now at the rate of about $250 per day, but even at this rate it would take a long time to clean up the $250,000 that Mr. Fink proposes to have and so he is getting things in readiness for the issue of warrants on all who are still in arrears after the first few days of next month. Very few of the sums exceed $10 or $12 in amount and in very many cases the interest exceeds the mount of the principal,

Wednesday evening for St. Paul, Minn. where General Carr will enter upon his new duties as commander of the Department of Dakota, having just relinquished the command of the Department of the Missouri, which he has held since January is, to Brigadier General T. J. Wint. it is thought at army headquarters that the Eleventh Infantry may not be assigned to station in the Department of the Missouri after all, but may be assigned to Columbus. O. barracks and other eastern posts. This impression artises from the fact that the Third infantry has been taken from the Department of the East and sent to Panama to relieve the battailon of marines now stationed there to protect the Panamal canal interests.
