Republican Editors Ask to Have Change Made in the Date of Holding the State Convention, Set for May 18.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Feb. 26 - (Special.)-The legislative sessions for today were rudely broken up by a terrible accident which occured in one of the elevators of the state capitol, resulting in the death of two women. Mrs. Dr. Charles B. Fountain, aged about 35, and her mother, Mrs. A. Houck, aged about 72, were the victims. The legislature adjourned as soon as the accident became known.

There was very little legislative work done in the two houses. The house had just got through with the morning preliminaries and had passed the bill to crease the punishment for chicken thieves from a fall sentence to two years in the penitentiary, a bill which had been left over from the previous day. There was no further debate on the bill. Mr. Cheney called up his resolution memorializing congress on the bill to repeal the bankruptcy law and this was before the house when adjournment was taken,

In the senate one bill was passed, that providing that live birds shall not be used as targets in gun tournaments. This passed without serious opposition. tercollegiate oratorical association was tion coming over from the house providing and completes the state farm largely occupied with considering charges for an investigation of the voting machine proposition and for a report on the O. Knapp of Coe college. The charge was advisability of adopting such machines the winning oration in the last contest. few bills were introduced, the only notable one being a bill to establish a bureau of marriage reform and to provide for charges, the vote standing 24 to 20, as the publication of books at state expense on constitution required a two-thirds vote to this subject, the bill introduced by Senator throw him out of the contest, the charges Bleakley and similar to the one which was condemned in a house committee by Mr.

State Convention Date. It is probable that the date for the republican state convention of Iowa will be changed from May 18, which was the date fixed upon in the committee meeting reterfere materially with the plans of a large number of the editors of the state. The executive committee of the Iowa Press shoulders near the neck. association had called a meeting of the association for the lowa building at St. Louis for May 16 or 17, and that the officers of the various local associations of Ames appeared before the ways and means committee of the house last evening to pre sent their views in regard to the millage tax proposed for the college. President Storms was there to talk on the matter with others, but so many of the members were absent that the hearing was put off. One strong argument in its favor among the members that is being used with telling effect at this time is that with the millage tax fixed the sums which are annually appropriated for the state educational institutions will be lessened to that extent and the sum total of general and extraordinary appropriations each session will be that much smaller.

State Gets the Land. The state of Iowa did not get chested out of the land for which an appropriation was made at the State Orphans' home near Davenport. It was in fact bought by the state at auction. The state appropriated $6,000 for the land. It was known the Board of Control was determined on having the land, and a scheme was put up to compel the state to pay over the full $6,000 Instead of doing so Chairman Cownle stopped short with a bid of $4,591 and let a milkman take the land at that price. As the milkman was a son-in-law of a farmer who owned land adjoining it was supposed he desired to retain the land at all hazards, but no sooner did he get his deed than it was transferred to the state for $4,600. Now the Board of Control will have turned back $1,400 to the state treasury as money saved by fusing to be taken in by a scheme to bleed the state. The land purchased lies between the Orphan's home and a part of the land already owned by the state

Mrs. Rose Waca of Chicago, daughter of Mrs. Betsy Smith, a life orbioner at Anamosa, appeared before the loint pardons committee and gave her testimony to the effect that in her belief her mother did not murder Michael Smith in Des Moines. She declared her belief that the crime was committed by her sister, under the influence of her aunt, just as the sister has since confessed. Isaac Brandt appeared and presented the papers in the case to the committee and read letters from Auamosa indicating that Mrs. Smith is a model prisoner and deeply interested in the Christian work at the prison.

Complete Treatment for Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofule.

The agorizing itching and burning of the skia, as is eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as is scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a rem edy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them toat is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief. the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

The grandest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against monied hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale.
