POLICEMAN STATES HIS SIDE OF CASE

Says Two Young Men Attempted to Take His Club and He Was Forced to Defense.

George O'Neill, the young man who was injured on the head while being arrested at an early hour Sunday morning, died or the operating table at St. Joseph's hospital about 10 a. m. yesterday. The injure1 man grew worse during Sunday night, the occasional lucid intervals becoming less frequent, and this morning but little hope was held for his recovery. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital with the hope that possibly an operation to remove the blood clot that had formed near the brain would save his life, but even that hope proved Officer Moore with whom O'Nelli had the scuff has been suspended from the police Sheep Butchers' Union, No. 36, for their the state are said to be implicated in the force and is under arrest, to be held pend- kindness and sympathy during the illness making of this arrangement and are so ing action by the coroner's jury and the and death of our beloved son and brother, county attorney.

The young man was 19 years of age, had lived in and around Omaha nearly all his life and was well known. He had been living with his parents at Florence and had worked for John Hussie, 2407 Cuming street, and in the stove department at Hayden Bros. His sister, Mrs. J. W. McGinnis, lives at 2510 Bristol street, whence he was taken Sunday after being attended by the young man for years that he seldom was the worse for intoxicants, and his mother stated Saturday evening that he had but little money with him and she thought he

Moore's Statement of Case.

In his report to Chief of Police Donahue "About 5 o'clock Sunday morning I no ticed two young men going into Keating's saloon and I followed them into the place and questioned them regarding their movements at that time of the morning. Fred Bush turned to his companion and said: 'Don't wil that - - - anything. Then turning to me he said: Tve licked better bulls than you.' Then Bush made a lunge for me, and his partner tried to take my club. In the scuffle that followed the screen mirror was broken, and I think Bush's head was hurt from contact with the glass. I arrested Bush for being drunk, orderly and resisting an officer. At the a patrol box he threatened me with a razor. The other fellow got away."

O'Nelli's body has been removed to the oroner's office where an inquest will be held today at 2:30 p. m.

Announcements of the Theaters. Choice seats are still obtainable at the Krug theater bex office for Mrs. Fiske's engagement Wednesday night. Mrs. Fiske has in her supporting company this season two leading men-Hobart Bosworth and Vaughan Glaser. Both are players of tried and proven ability, and they have roles of practically equal importance in "Mary of Magdala." Mr. Bosworth has filled leading roles in support of Henrietta Crosman, Julia Marlowe and other stars, and recently won success in the leading male role in "Marta of the Lowlands" Mr. Gleser is best known perhaps for his excellent work as leading man with Mrs.

ter Thursday and Friday nights. The demand was heavy, but as the engagement is for two nights many of the best seats in the house are still available. The company comes here direct from the most remarkable theatrical engagement in the history of San Francisco. The Weberfieldians played at the Grand Opera house, San Francisco, and the receipts for the engagement of two weeks reached $63,000, which is capacity business, a feat never before duplicated on the Pacific slope. San Francisco took the Weber-Fields Co. to its heart as warmly as did its home city, New York. The bill for the Omaha engagement will be the same as it was in New York and San Francisco, namely, 'Whoop Dee Doo" and the burlesque,

The county assessors, so far as the city of Omaha is concerned, are not a bit worried over the embarrassment that other men holding like official positions in different parts of the state seem to be getting scheme to get around the provisions of the

The plan, in brief, is that an assessment of the taxes shall be made on a valuation of the property to be agreed upon by the assessors, while the law is that the assessment shall be made upon the basis of the actual cash value of the property. The assessors in a dozen counties in this part of much in earnest about it that a meeting has been called for today at Norfolk o consider the question.

The reason for the lack of any apprehension of the consequences of this meeting on the part of the local assessors is that they are not in it or party to it in any way, for before the revenue law as now in force was enacted they had adopted the plan of assessing the taxes upon the real valuation trip tickets at very low rates to certain of property, as the law later made obligapoints in Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, tory. In speaking of this matter County Treasurer Fink said:

Commends Uniform System. "There could be no doubt as to the advantage that would accrue from a uniform system of assessment at actual valuation throughout the county. Where there is a lack of uniformity in this rogard, if one assessor makes too low an appraisal, it establishes a standard for others that it is hard to explain or get around, and that mixes things up generally, while if the assessment were made at the actual valuation it would not only simplify things, but would reduce the levy from 22 8-10 mills, the mills. "DEAR MES. PINEHAM: - Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily, and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for thehelp I obtained through its use."—MRS.
