LINCOLN, March 2-(Special.)-George Berlinghof of Beafrice will superintend the construction and make the plans for the new State Normal school to be erected at Kearney. He will receive for his services 3% per cent of the appropriation of lested nearly all day.

Borides Mr. Berlinghof there were these contractors who appeared before the board with plans; W. T. Wisener of Omaha, State Architect Tyler and J. H. Craddock of Lincoln. The latter did not file any plans, but merely made a proposition to the board. State Architect Tyler agreed to superintend the work as state architect without any extra compensation.

The plans submitted by Berlinghof will be revised by the state architect and a comraittee composed of Superintendent Fowler, Rev. Ludden and Treasurer Mortensen They contemplate the erection of a main building at a cost of $50,000 in such a manper that it can be added to from time to Continue Bankers' Inion Case.

The hearing of further arguments in the ease of the Bankers Union of the World has been continued until the next sitting of the court, consequently the injunction against the company will operate until that time and until a decision is reached. Today the superintendent issued this order:

"It is ordered that the sheriff of Douglas ounty, hereinbefore appointed temporary seelver and custodian of the property. books and papers and assets of the defendant association be directed to turn back to said association all such property, books, papers and assets as have come into his dssession except moneys collected by him. king a proper receipt therefore. He is further ordered to retain in his hands the money collected by him as such temporary receiver and to file in this court a full and complete report of his doings as such temporary receiver by the next sitting of this court. The injunction heretofore issued and as herein modified, to continue in force until the further order of the court. The further hearing on the application for confirmation of the report of the referee and for judgment thereon and of the objections and exceptions to such report is continued until the next sitting of the court."
