

DOES NOT MARRY THE GIRL

John McCabe Gets License and Deceives Katie Riplige of Benson. GIRL JUST AWAKES TO THE SITUATION

Finis She is No Wife and that Man Parents Warned Her Against is Not Her Husband. Pretty Katie Riplige, 18 years of age, who until within a week or more since has lived with her parents on a small farm near Benson, has been rudely and cruelly awakened from a dream of happiness and under circumstances that will make one young man a welcome guest at the penitentiary if he is apprehended as if the facts are borne out by what the young woman says.

On the morning of February 23 last John McCabe went to the marriage license clerk and asked for the paper that should allow him to take Katie Riplige as his wife. This was duly made out and after it was done McCabe said he would take the girl to the office and have the marriage performed there and at once. Later he did return with her and after a conference announced that the young woman was sick and that the ceremony could not take place for a little while. So the couple went away, McCabe announcing that they would be back again in the course of a few hours. He took with him the license, which had been made out in due form, and which, incidentally, he did not pay for.

OMAHA IS BACK IN REPORT

Relinstated by Committee on Indian Affairs for Red Men Appropriation. Omaha has been reinstated in the report of the Indian committee, from which it was dropped in the report made several days ago. Senator Millard has received this telegram: WASHINGTON, March 3.—Hon. J. H. Millard, Omaha: Indian affairs committee has voted to restore Omaha to Indian appropriation bill. C. M. FITCHCOCK. "The appropriation is $1,000," said the senator. "Omaha always has had an Indian depot and the annual appropriation for its maintenance is made with other similar appropriations in the report of the Indian committee, which is usually passed by the house and the senate. The appropriation for Omaha was intentionally left out. When we heard of this I telegraphed to Mr. Fitchcock that congressman Hinshaw of the Fourth district was a member of the committee and that we must have the appropriation. I have just received the message in reply. The appropriations recommended by the committee must be approved and passed by the house and the senate, but I should be surprised if the Omaha Indian money was not allowed now that the committee has reported favorably for its appropriation."

TRIES RAZOR ON STUDENTS

Negro Goes to Jail for Attempting to Injure Medical College Attendants. James Gibson, colored, living at 1213 Davenport street, was sentenced to thirty days by Judge Berka in police court. Gibson was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Detectives Mitchell and Davis on a charge of threatening to cut up the whole student body of the Creighton Medical college, and the body of L. A. Delaney in particular.

RUN ON CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

Overflow of Drivers and Peddlers to Pay for Licenses Since Scott's Raid. Legions of peddlers, expressmen and milkmen descended upon the city clerk's office and demanded licenses to do business. They had been frightened by the edict of License Inspector Scott, backed by his armed men, that no unlicensed individuals Wednesday. Those who had escaped the police court tumbled into the city hall and handed out their money as rapidly as the deputy city treasurer could care for it. Assistants in the city clerk's office were kept busy all the forenoon writing out the official documents.

WITHNELL AMENDS PETITION

Gets Privilege of Altering Form of Request to Enjoin Council Committee. A hearing was scheduled to take place before Judge Troup yesterday on the matter of the latest injunction in the Withnell case. The parties and their attorneys appeared in due season and City Attorney Wright promptly moved that the restraining order be dissolved on the ground of half a dozen technical amendments.

Today is the Day of the Big Sale of Oxford Ties The "Cohen" Samples Like Those in Sample Line of Slippers $3, $4, $5 and $6 Oxford Ties On Sale Today

On Our Second Floor at $1.98 Messrs. B. Cohen & Sons, 6th avenue, New York, the finest oxford tie and slipper house in the United States, retiring from business, we purchased their entire line of samples. Up to now they were the makers of the smart slippers and low shoes worn by the great society people of New York. Two weeks ago when we placed most of the slippers on sale they created quite a sensation. Today's sale of Oxford Ties is fully as interesting, is not more so, as the sizes are so varied that any one can be fitted.

commissions. This led to very heated discussion on the part of counsel, the upshot of which was that the plaintiff asked for and was given a chance to amend his petition. Unless something else now unforeseen comes up to continue the matter again it will be argued once more this week, probably Saturday morning.

ON THOUSAND DOLLAR BOND Man Who Takes Offense at Some Faces Admitted to Jail at Station.

J. H. McDermott, 529 South Thirteenth street, arrested Monday afternoon on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. James Slane, on a charge of assault and battery on her husband last Monday afternoon, has been released on $1,000 bonds, a friend calling at the police station today and handing ten $100 bills for the bond. It is stated that Slane's condition is serious.

The assault was made, it is claimed, because Slane made poor faces at McDermott, to which the latter did not take kindly. Slane said he was a stranger to his assailant who met him on the way to work and kicked him on the head several times.
