Mr. Louis Gumberg, 667 Driggs Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y., says: "I have been troubled with my nerves for about a year and a half and I did not know what to do for it. When I got up in the morning I used to tremble and imagine all kinds of strange thoughts. When I all kinds of strange thoughts. When I had anything in my hand I used to shake so, and if I was sitting in a theatre and heard a pistol shot I would jump way out of my seat, and no matter what I heard I would jump and be so nervous, and even when anyone spoke to me I would be startled.

"I had been to lots of doctors but they falled to cure me and I heard of Dr. Greene's Nervora blood and nerve remedy and thought I would try that. I had no idea it was such a wonderful medicine, but it is the greatest medicine I ever heard of for

Dr. Greene's Nervura to all my friends, for I am a new man since taking this wonderful Think what cure means to you! Try to realize how happy you would be with the old strength restored. Jockey Redfern Refuses to Ride at Ascot Park and is Ruled from the Track.

LOS ANGELES, March i.—At Ascot to-day Jockey Arinur Regiern was ruled off the train, together with his father, W. W. Relieff, together with his father, W. W. Relieff, for disobedience of the orders of the judges. Fresiding Judge A. W. Hamilton instructed Redfern to ade Laureatea in the last race of the day and askel if he had any objections to the horse. The juckey replied that he had not, but would see his lather, who looks after his interests. A few moments afterward Rodfern, sr., sont word that Arthur would not ride Laureatea. Judge Hamilton issued a tederal order to the clerk of sales instructing him to put Resiern on Laureatea.

Redfern, sr., came to the judges' stand and stated that his boy would not ride the horse. Judge Hamilton immediately called an officer and instructed him to lake up W. W. Redfern's badge and put him off the track. As official rullug was then made, barring the two Redferns from the turf. Redfern's refusal to ride Laurentea is said to have been the result of a disagretment some time ago with the mare's owner. J. Peiter. Ascot results:
