LEE HERDMAN LEADS ANTI-BRYANITES

Will Be Repulsed in Effort to Control Convention by Bryan Himself as Commanding Gen-

ernl.

A virulent fight is on within the ranks of democracy in Nebruska and it centers in Omaha and Douglas county. The combatants are Bryan and auti-Bryan forces. Robert E. Lee Herdman is the selfconstituted leader of the antis and the "peerless leader" himself is to be the plumed knight of his own brigade. The bone of contention is control of the state convention, with the ultimate purpose of seizing the delegation for the national convention in St. Louis for the overthrow of William Jennings Bryan. Realizing the width of the breach and its dangerous consequences, the Bryan men have begun to fortify themselves. A few of the chief guards held a private meeting Wednesday night in Omaha and to some extent mapped out their plan of action. They will hold these meetings regularly. Mr. Bryan has promised to enter the arena as the active and actual general of his own forces. He will make at least one speech in the Boyd theater and as many more here and at South Omaha as deemed advisable,

Next week the state executive committee meets in Lincoln to fix the time and place of the state convention.

"It probably will be held as early in April as possible," said a Bryan man, The Bryan faction wants an early convention, believing its interests can best be subserved in this way. The antis favor a late convention. They realize they were rather late in getting started with their fight and want time to properly and effectually array their forces.

To Renominate Thompson. The plan of the Bryan men is to reominate W. H. Thompson of Grand Island for governor. Judge Sullivan had been talked of when it was thought Thompson might not want to run again, but Sullivan has said he did not want to be a candidate.

The meeting last week in Lincoln of certain democratic editors of the state brought the party sore to a head. At that meeting Richard L. Metcalfe, editor of the World-Herald, was endorsed with a big shower of boquets for delegate-at-large to the national convention. Metcaife, of course, is first, last and all the time a dyed-in-thewool Bryan man. Therefore these editors declared for Bryan.

"It is time for action," says Herdman, and he proceeds to call his warriors to arms.

Herdman, it seems, has not decided on any one man to bear Metcalfe for delegateat-large, but has declared he must be defeated, no matter by whom. He proposes first to name the two district delegates, and his first choice is Ed P. Smith. Then he proposes to support John A. Creighton, who will, by the way, be the candidate of the Bryan forces,

"They can never beat Metcalfe in the state, though they might encompass his downfall in Omaha and Douglas county and even that is extremely doubtful," said a strong Bryan man. "Metcalfe could, however, lose Omaha and Douglas county and still be elected delegate-at-large. But why should be lose this district? Hasn't be always supported the ticket, no matter who the nominee or what the office? Didn't he swallow Howell last spring and doesn't anybody who knows Metcalfo know that that was the bitterest pill that possibly could be thrust down his throat?"

Ingratitude of Lee Herdman.

And in this connection the Bryan people things about Herdman and Howell. They a showing at St. Louis in the presence of and urged him to block his election on the his strength in Omaha and Douglas county. grounds that he was a corporation mas and To start with, he cannot even control the Omaha, and was told that they could not to follow him; in fact, some of the strongsubstantiate these charges; that Metoalfe, est Bryan men will come from the Jackwhom Herdman now seeks to defeat, was sonians.
