mand. Buyers were all out early and trading ruled active from start to finish. Anything at all desirable could safely be quoted strong to a dime higher, with inferior grades about steady. As the demand was fully equal to the occasion, the pens were cleared at an early hour. As high as $4.00 were paid for old ewes and some yearling ewes brought $4.25. There were no prime wethers or yearlings offered, but as high as $4.75 was paid for some yearlings.
