FINK GETS MANY THREATS County Treasurer Blamed for Enforcing Tax Collections, but Ignores it All.

The sale of 152 head of cattle recently taken on a warrant by County Treasurer Fink on account of the unpaid personal lamps, but it was done by resolution and taxes of J. M. Holt and Holt. Murphy & Scott for the years 1899 to 1903, inclusive, will take place at public auction Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The sum for which the sale is made to satisfy now amounts, with the costs that have necessarily been made, to $1,700, which sum includes the taxes accrued on livestock that was fed here during the years mentioned and on which not a cent ever was paid to the county. Mr. Fink, in his capacity as treasurer, and on account of his energy in getting him to account for, is threatened with no end of litigation by the people upon whom he has made requisition for sums long since overdue. Even his bondsmen have been notified that they will be held responsible for his acts, at all of which Mr. Fink smiles blandly and continues to issue his little notices to please call and settle.

Announcements of the Theaters.

"Happy Hooligan," the genial hobo made so famous by Mr. F. Opper in the New York Journal and put into dramatic form by Frank Dumont, will be the offering of the Krug tonight and the remainder of the week. The company presenting "Happy Hooligan" number forty people and the scenery, costumes, music and other features are all new and of the most expensive nature. W. H. Mack will be seen

Mischief. On tomorrow evening the criginal New York production of "The Eternal City," with the original New York cast, save one, will be presented at the Boyd theater. Mesars, Liebler & Co., the producers, have spared no expense to give the Hall Caine play a proper setting, and in addition to providing an unusually strong and capable ompany, have lavished pains on scenery and musical accessories, so that the piece will be given under the most artistic of conditions. An appropriation ordinance started on its as Happy Hooligan and Mae Phelps as way to passage by the council Tuesday night shows that nine new horses for the fire department cost the city a total of $1,765, or nearly $200 each. Two horses for use of the police department's patrol wagons cost $450, making the total expenditure for horseflesh during February $2,215. Judging from the bills returned by H. L. Ramacciottf, city veterinarian, for medicine, there must have been a good deal of bad health among the city live stock, as the remedies and restoratives amounted to $91.85.

MAYOR TAKES UP THE BROOM

Says He Will Help Clean City and that Everybody Must Fall in Line.

A "clean-up" campaign such as the city has never known is predicted by Mayor Moores for April 1, and the days imme stately following. He told representatives of the Civic League of Improvement clubs. that he proposed to co-operate with the organisation in secureing a clean city and that he was glad the efforts of the police, health and public works department was to be supported and assisted by such an organization.

"A thorough cleaning up of yards, alleys and areaways, also streets, never has been possible before." said the mayor, "simply because public sentiment has not been properly crystallized. Now, with the sentiment aroused by the league, anything along this line will be possible. The members will feel bound to help the employes of the city, and no effort will be spared by the government to get the town in as good a shape as possible with limited funds."
