SCAVENGER TAX LAW HELD TO BE GOOD

Supreme Court Passes on the Case Brought in Douglas County Under the Bill for Collecting Buck Taxes.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 17 .- (Special Telegram.) -Acting under the law enacted by the last legislature, the supreme court today discharged six commissioners and retained these three: J. H. Ames of Lincoln, W. D. Oldham of Kearney and C. B. Letton of Fairbury.

Those let out were Commissioners Alberts, Glanville, Duffle, Fawcett, Hastings and Kirkpatrick. The law requires that six commissioners shall serve for one year and three for two years;

Uphold Scavenger Law.

The supreme court sustained the constitu tionality of what is known as the scavenger act, an act of the last legislature for the collection of delinquent taxes on real estate. This act was supplemental to the new revenue law and provided for the sale of lands for what they will bring, less the amount of the taxes due. The constitutionality of this provision was questioned on the grounds that it provided for a release or commutation of taxes. A county as well as an individual may be a purchaser. The promoters of the new law believe that it would permit counties to clear up longstanding delinquent taxes.

The case passed upon is entitled Joseph W. Woodrough against the County of Douglas. Following is the syllabus of the opin written by Judge Barnes:

The sale of real estate for the payment of delinquent taxes, where the provision of chapter lxxv of the have of 1963, entitled "An act to enforce the payment and collection of delinquent taxes and special assessment on real property," does not deprive ment on real property," does not deprive the owner of his property without due process of law.

Lands purchased by the county under the provisions of this act are held in trust for itself, the state and all other political subdivisions entitled to any portion of such delinquent taxes. Such lands are not acquired by the state by escheat or forfeiture, and do not belong to the permanent school fund. The proceeding provided for by this act is a suit in equity in the district court, and the owner of real estate in question therein has no constitutional right to a jury trial.

The sale of lands in such proceedings for what they will bring though less than the The sale of lands in such proceedings for what they will bring, though less than the amount of the decree for the taxes due what they will bring, though less than the amount of the decree for the taxes due and delinquent is not a release or commutation of taxes within the meaning of section 4, article ix, of the constitution.

The act is not vulnerable to the objection that its provisions are broader than its title; it is complete in itself, capable of enforcement, and is not open to the objection that it is amendatory of other laws.

The law provides for one of two methods of collecting delinquent taxes on real estate and permits the county board to choose which method it will pursue. This does not amount to a delegation of legislative authority. The remedy provided for is declared by the act itself to be cumulative, and therefore it is not in conflict with nor does it take away any other remedy provided by statute.

Held, that the act in question is not in conflict with any other provision of the constitution so as to invalidate it, and is a constitutional exercise of legislative signal victory over Rt. Rev. Thomas Bonacum, bishop of the diocese of Lincoln, in the supreme court today. The bishop dispossessed Father Murphy of the ecclesiastical power and endeavored to enjoin him from using the church property at Seward on the ground that he had willfully vio-lated the canons of the Catholic church. The district court of Seward county, Judge Sorenberger presiding, gave judgment in favor of Father Murphy. The bishop appealed to the supreme court and that tribunal has affirmed the judgment of the lower court in every particular. Father Murphy claimed he had appealed to Rouse from the decision of Bonacum and the case had not been decided. Bonacum claimed Rouse had upheld him. Commissioner Duffie wrote the opinion. It says:

Rouse had upheld him. Commissioner Duffie wrote the opinion. It says:

The courts will not review the judgments or acts of the governing authorities of a religious organization with reference to its internal affairs for the purpose of ascertaining their regularity or accordance with the discipline and usages of such organizations, but they will inquire and determine whether or not a church tribunal which undertakes to expel a member, has been organized with the constitution of the church, and whether a member of such a tribunal is disqualified under the rules and casons of the church from sitting as the judge in the oase. These questions are not ecclesiastical and within the exclusive jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical tribunal, although the decisions of such tribunal, properly and legally constituted, would be binding on the civil courts on all matters properly before it for trial.

Where a church tribunal of original jurisdiction proceeds to try and discipline or expel a member of the society and the member proceeded against alaims that the presiding judge is disqualified from acting on account of a challenge interposed before the commencement of a trial, and where such challenge has been disregarded and an appeal has been taken by the accused to an appellate church tribunal, the civil courts have jurisdiction to enjoin the enforcement of a sentence pronounced against the accused until the appellate ecclesiastical tribunal has disposed of the appeal.

Boyd Labors for Celebration. Ex-Governor Boyd was here from Omaha this morning, a caller at the office of Governor Mickey, with whom he talked over the celebration to be held in Omaha during May in honor of the fiftieth annivermary of the organization of the territory of Nebraska, Governor Boyd is a member of event of state-wide interest. He was given the endorsement of Governor Mickey, who assured him that the committee would have his support in making it an event worthy of the occasion. Governor Boyd expressed the belief that

If You Pity a Sick Friend Tell Me His Name. Let Me Help Him

Just write a postal card—only the cost of a penny. All I sak is the same of a friend who needs help. Tell me the book to sand.
Then I will do this.—I will arrange with a druggles near him so that he may take it a bottlee Dr. Bhoop's Restorative. He may take it a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it falls, I will pay the druggles myself. And the sick one's mere word shall decide it.
Don't think that too fair to be possible, for I do just as I say. I do it to convince those who don't know me, and so that everyone who needs help will accept it. know me, and so that everyone who needs help will accept it.

I have learned that the cured ones are fair. I have furnished my Restorative to hundreds of thousands as just those terms, and 3s out of each 40 have paid gladly, because they were cored. I have willingly paid for the rest.

And I seems a lifetime in perfecting the remedy before I ever offered it to anyone. At thousands of bedsides. In hospitals and homes, I have watched it ours the meat difficult cases that physicians ever meet. I learned that it does not fail, save where gome cause—like scaces—makes a cure impossible.

My success comes from strengthening the inside nerves. My Restorative brings back that here power which alone operates every vital organ of the body. Common treatments merely doctor the organ, and the results at best are but temporary. My rundry restores the inverse power that makes these organs act. No pines restiment does that, and there is positively no other way to make week vital organs well.

COURT COMMISSIONERS OUT among democrats of the country there was stiver question in the campaign and that it reemed to be the desire prevalent everywhere for a return to old-time democratic principles. He would not my, however, whether Douglas county would send a delegation to the state convention op posed to the allver plank.

> Statistics of Cattle Diseases At the request of the state veterinarian, the labor bureau has included in its schedule for the collection of statistics the number of cattle and horses that have dled from the cornstalk disease. These schedules have just been sent out to the various assessors and their attention is especially called to this change from the change in the schedule of last year. The number of deaths among cattle because of this disease has been so numerous that statistics are desired, that just how serious the disease is may be known.

Sullivan Not Sanguine. Former Chief Justice Sullivan is not taking seriously his indorsement by the democratic state committee as a candidate for vice president. In discussing it he said:

"I appreciate the good will shown by the committee, but I am afraid that I am partially committed to John L. Webster, o it would ill become me to get out and fight for the place, as it is not likely that the two vice presidents would come from the same state."

The democrats, however, are not taking the matter so lightly, and will insist that Mr. Bryan use his influence in securing the omination of Judge Sullivan, and claim that would compensate him for the loss of the free silver plank-should he lose it. In the meantime it is the belief of the reorganizers that there will be no fusion this year in national affairs and probably not in state affairs. One of them said this morning that Mr. Bryan's action in absolutely refusing to listen to any reason advanced by the reorganizers would prevent any compromise and that the result would be that the radical reorganizers would be in control of the national convention and that neither Mr. Bryan nor the populists would get anything at all.

Democrats Name Ticket.

At a city convention of the democrats last night municipal positions were extended to the part;sans and were declined with monotonous regularity. Finally the following were persuaded to run: For city attorney, J. M. Day; for water commissioner, S. S. Lintner; for councilmen. First ward, Robert Malone; Second ward, M. #### Sarpy Republicans.

PAPILLION, Neb., March 17 .- (Special.) The republican central committee of Sarpy county convened yesterday at the court house and called the county convention for April 11. 1804, at Springfield. It was the sentiment of the committee that an early convention would greatly assist the candidacy of Judge Wilson for commissioner of public lands and buildings, as well as that of W. S. Raker of Gretna for congress. The committee recommended that arrangements be made at the convention for the selection of delegates to the congressional and senatorial conventions to be called later. The meeting was well attended and very harmonious.

Groundless Mad Dog Scare.

PAPILLTION, Neb., March 17 .- (Special.) -The residents of the eastern portion of Papillion were considerably excited yesterday over the appearance of an alleged mad dog. Children going to school were terrorized and hurriedly sought refuge in the committee on arrangements and it is the nearest buildings when they saw the the idea of the committee to make the animal, foaming at the mouth, coming down the street, making attempts to bite other dogs and exhibiting all the symptoms of being mad. Chief Gatewood was called and succeeded in shooting it before any damage had been done. Afterwards it was discovered that the dog had been

VICTIM ONLY SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE

Murderer Was Thirty-Two Years Old and Employed on the Farm Where Miss Maxwell Made Her Home.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 17 .-(Special Telegram.)-A double tragedy occurred today near Nemaha, a small town south of this city, that has no parallel in the history of this section. David Carroll, a farm hand, shot Miss Anna Maxwell and then committed suicide. Insane jealousy is supposed to be the cause.

Miss Maxwell spent last night at a neighbor's and returned home this morning about o'clock. She started to do the milking, as was her usual custom, and when she did not return within a reasonable time s search was made for her, and her dead body was found on a horse blanket near the barn. Carroll had fired two shots, one entering her left temple and the other the Miss Anna Maxwell was the adopted daughter of John Maxwell, who was for thirty years superintendent of the Nemaha county poor farm, and since the death of Mr. Maxwell she has resided with his vidow. She was but 16 years old.

David Carroll was about 25 years old and originally came from an orphans' home in Chicago. Miss Maxwell did not favor his nsane passion for her and had recently shown favor to a young man in the neighborhood. This fact is supposed to have caused temporary insanity and is responsible for the act of Carroll. The tragedy was probably planned and consummated when whetted to an insane jealous rage during the interview that they must have had this morning. Carroll has never before been considered deranged and has worked on the Maxwell farm for several years, family ultimately led to the crime of today. where his intimate acquaintance with the

The care and worry of a large family brought Mrs. Ella Bollon to death's door with general breakdown and consumption. She says Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cured her.

Buffalo, N. Y., December 22, 1903.

"I am the mother of ten children, my youngest boy being now in his fourth year. I had been gradually falling in health for more than a year. My trouble started with indigestion and dyspepsin. I got no nourishment from my feed. I grew rapidly worse until I was compelled to take to my bed and was there four months. Finally nothing would stay on my stomach. I suffered from shortness of breath and heart trouble. Gradually wasted away and consumption took hold. Our family doctor was in constant attendance, but his medicine failed to do me any good. I lost flosh rapidly: was awfully weak—a complete nervous wreck. None of my family expected that I would be about again.

"One day my sister brought me a bottle of Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey. I began with a few drops at a time. It stayed on my stomach and I began to get better at conce. By the time I took four bottles I was able to sit up, and now, after taking it according to directions for two months, I am completely cured, my life sayed by your wonderful Mait Whiskey, which I recommend to every mother."

How To Buy Graham Crackers

CUT out dotted section and send to your grocer with your next order.

In the future send me Graham Crackers, only in air tight packages bearing this trade mark of the National Biscuit Company in red and whife, on each end of the package.

Signed.
