

FIREMAN FALLS OUT OF CAB

Lozes Balance While Pulling Grate and Plunges to Ground. ENGINEER DOES NOT SEE OR HEAR IT KNOWS NOTHING OF Fireman's Disappearance for Some Time Afterward—Fireman Lives to Tell the Story.

When Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 37 was near Fort Crook on its way from Kansas City to Omaha Thursday night Engineer J. F. Quitt, who was running the train, suddenly missed his fireman, Riley Boltman. He stopped the train and informed the conductor of the disappearance of Boltman, and it was decided to back up and see if he could not be located. The train was run back about four miles, where Boltman was found walking along the track. He had fallen off the engine while in the act of shaking the grate.

THE GIRL AND THE BEE.

A Story of the Ignorance of a City Girl.

The city girl coming down to breakfast at the farm house, an observing plate of honey on the table said: "Oh, I see you keep a bee."

That's about the way some people talk about the blight of baldness—just as if a bald head was something one got all at once instead of being the result of long development by an insidious germ which thrives upon the roots of the hair and accumulates to only one known remedy, Newbro's Herpicide.

Newbro's Herpicide is not a tonic any more than electricity is a fluid. It is an exterminator, pure and simple.

"Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., special agents.

Announcements of the Theaters.

The last two performances of the vaudeville bill for the present week will be given at the Orpheum, matinee and night, to-day.

The program for the coming week, beginning matinee Sunday, includes some features in the extraordinary class. Heading the list is the Girl with the Auburn Hair, a beautiful and impressive act and one of the most successful that has been conceived for vaudeville.

Another prominent "top-line" attraction will be Grand Day, the distinguished actor-playwright, and his company, presenting one of his own sketches entitled "Shipmates." The remainder of the program is varied, including World's Trio, a man and two women; Josephine Garsman and her pekaninnies; Lizzie Wilson, the German dialect comedienne; Gillian and Murray, singing comedians, and the Kinetone.

This afternoon and evening at the Boyd "The Eternal City" will be repeated. This play has duplicated in Omaha its success scored everywhere it has been shown.

On Sunday afternoon and evening at the Boyd "Ole Oleon" will be the attraction. This popular dialect play is given with better effects and surroundings than ever before.

Seats are now on sale for the engagement of Miss Fay Davis, the eminent English actress, and the Empire Stock company in Henry Arthur Jones' latest success, "The Whitewashing of Julia." The engagement is at the Boyd for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and a matinee on Wednesday.
