Electric Line to Papillion Expects to Have Cars Before Many Months. PAPILLION, Neb., March 19 .- (Special.)-Stockholders in the Omaha & Southwestern electric line have received word that several cars of material are on the way here and that work will be started about April 1. Ties are being shipped from Arkansas. All the steel rails have been purchased and will be shipped to South Omaha and Papillion, and if the necessary arrangements can be made part of them will be shipped to Sarpy Mills: This line will run from South Omaha to Papillion, with the intention of extending later, and will handle all the feed and refuse of the stock yards, besides the freight and passenger traffic of Papillion and intermediate farms and dairies. It is stated that all the refuse of the stock vards will be moved at night, so as not to interfere with the day traffic.

All the right-of-way has been bought and the grading contracts let. The contractors have their outfits at South Omaha and by requested Judge Good to rule upon the April 1 they will commence work at South The officers of the company are as fol lows: W. H. Elbourn, president; E. S.

Streeter, vice president; C. E. Miller, secrefary and treasurer; Lyman Waterman, general manager. Several Omaha business men have been in Papillion recently looking over the SAVED FROM DROWNING BY GUN. Hunter Falls Into Deep Water, but Weapon Rests on Ice.

FREMONT, Neb., March 19 .- (Special.)-John Haurigan of this city had a narrow escape from drowning in the Platte river yesterday afternoon. He was out hunting with Frank Rhoades and broke through a piece of slush ice where the water was deep and the current swift. Fortunately, his gun rested on two pieces of solid ice or he would have been swept out of sight. Rhoades was unable to give him any assistance and for twenty minutes he clung desperately to his gun, struggling to get out. He finally succeeded in pulling himself out onto solid ice and reached the shore almost exhausted.
