While the ostensible reason for going to the capitol is to listen to senatorial eloquence, the committee room luncheons are the real arguments in favor of taking all the lovely women to the big building. The senators' cafe used to be popular enough in the good old days when Uncle Sam allowed champagne to flow in public. But now that there is a law prohibiting the serving of wine in the capitol restaurant, the most delectable luncheons take place in committee rooms. or course, it is more exclusive and a thousand times more interesting, to lunch behind closed doors with a congenial party of friends and be introduced to the private "speak easies" that yield up their richness like magic. PARIS, March 26 .- M. Guillemin, under chief of Foreign Minister Delcasse's cabinet, leaves Paris today on his way to St. Louis, where he will represent the minister for foreign affairs at the opening of the exposition. He represented M. Delcasse on the Rochambeau commission. M. Lagrave and other officials will heave here early in April. The secretary of the French commission says no delays are occurring in the shipment of the French exhibit so far as the commission is aware. All the preliminary work of obtaining low rail and ocean rates and obviating tariff delays has been completed, and most of the exhibits are actually on their way. Therefore, if they have not arrived, the commission says, it must be incident to distant transportation An official report will be issued about April 10, showing the satisfactory results

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconventence from their stomachs. If such persons would lay their prejudice aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic man, women and Invalids and children, even the most dell-

How to Break Up a Cold.

Everyone knows the first symptoms of a cold and the dangerous consequences which often arise from its neglect. A severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time if prompt and proper treatment SOUTH SIDE BRANCH LIBRARY is given. The first action should be to relieve the lungs, which is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. When this remedy is taken in double doses every hour on the first appearance of the cold it will counteract its effect and a complete cure soon follows. Deep-seated colds or coughs also yield readily when this medicine is used.
