Questions Right of Company Incorporated in New Jersey to Do Business in Louisiana as Corporation.

NEW ORLEANS, March 26.-Challenging its right to exist in Louisiana, Attorney General Ginn brought suit against the New Orleans Railway company of New Jersey which is in control of all the street rallway properties in New Orleans. The object of the suit is to prevent the making over to the railway company of leases by local railroads running up to the date of the ex- ing from a threatened attack of pneu-piration of their franchises. The attorney general contends that under its New Jersey charter the railway company cannot lease railroad property in Louisiana; that the acquisition of the leases would create a monoply of a public utility, and that the railroad company is there will be but one pardon granted, that not legally authorized to act as a corpora-
