AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

City Officials Getting Ready for the Coming City Election.

REGISTRARS WILL SIT ALL DAY SATURDAY

Clerk Completes Arrangements for Completing the Elections Rolls and Announces Places Where Registrars Will Meet.

On Saturday, April 2, there will be a sitting of the Board of Registration for the purpose of registering new voters and making note of transfers. This board will sit from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Saturday of this week. All persons eligible to vote who did not register at the last general registration must register this spring. Those who have changed their places of residence since the November election will be required to secure transfers.

A heavy vote is expected. Some say that the vote on the city ticket will run as high as 4,500, while for members of the Board of Education the vote is estimated at 5,000. This increase in the latter is on account of the women being permitted to vote for members of the Board of Education.

Places for holding this revision of registration have been designated by the city clerk as follows:

- First Ward—First precinct, Fitzsimmons' barber shop, 435 North Twentieth street; Second precinct, Collins' Music store, Twenty-fourth and K streets.
Second Ward—First precinct, Hoffman building, Twenty-first and Q streets; Second precinct, Kilar building, Thirtieth and Q streets.
Third Ward—First precinct, Broadwell-Rich coal office, Albright; Second precinct, Melious' building, Thirty-third and U streets.
Fourth Ward—First precinct, O'Farmer building, Twenty-fifth and Q streets; Second precinct, Kilar building, Thirtieth and Q streets.
Fifth Ward—First precinct, Bradford-Kennedy lumber yard, Thirtieth and G streets; Second precinct, Good Shepherd's building, Thirty-sixth and N streets.
Sixth Ward—First precinct, Guthrie's meat market, Twenty-fourth and E streets;

Flock to Rich and Knight. As previously stated in The Bee, the republican school board ticket is very popular with all classes. C. M. Rich and J. C. Knight are well known business men, splendidly educated and fitted for positions on the school board. They have lived in South Omaha since an early day. The present policy of the school board is economy, and the members who are pushing the candidacy of Messrs. Rich and Knight claim they must be elected to subvert the best interests of the taxpayers and the schools. These members have issued a statement showing that they have saved during the last year the enormous sum of $50,000 by strict economy, and they want to continue this policy by electing Mr. Rich and Mr. Knight. For this reason the business men are for Rich and Knight and the citizens are flocking to them. Many democrats announce their intentions to vote for the republican school board members.

Popularity of O'Neill. Business men are rallying to the support of O'Neill for tax commissioner, who has lots of friends among the republicans. Democrats who have no use for O'Connor because of the corporate interests he represents do not want to be quoted by name, but they are putting in good words for O'Neill wherever they can. A few samples of the general talk which way the wind is blowing:

G. F. Beavers—Republicans have the best city ticket ever put up here. O'Neill, I know him personally and have every confidence in him. In fact, the whole ticket is good.
Bergquist—The ticket is all right—all of it. O'Neill is my choice for tax commissioner, and if I had my way he would be elected.
T. J. Nolan—O'Neill ought to be elected by all means because he is so much better qualified for the office than his opponent, and much more trustworthy.

Republican Rally Tonight. Tonight there is to be a big rally of republicans at Workman temple, Twenty-fifth and M streets. It is expected that all of the candidates will be present and that a rousing meeting will be the result. Some speakers aside from the candidates have been invited to deliver short addresses. This rally will really be the closing big meeting of the campaign. On Monday, the day before election, meetings will be held in every ward in the city, but no attempt will be made to hold a big rally. At tonight's meeting there will be a band and the streets in the business portion of the city will be paraded before the meeting is called to order.

Democrats Are Worried. The statement made in The Bee of yesterday, regarding the advent of Ed Johnston into South Omaha politics again, caused considerable consternation in democratic ranks. The leading democrats say that the fact that Johnston has taken the management of the campaign out of the hands of the city central committee and is running things to suit himself, is enough to drive democratic voters to the republican ticket. Another thing against the democrats now is that Johnston had declared his intention of going west to live. He expected to leave here on April 1. Now that he is running the campaign he is credited with making the statement that if Hector is elected he will remain here and be the power behind the throne.

Postoffice Receipts. For the three months ended last night the receipts at the South Omaha postoffice amounted to $2,244. During the same period of time in 1903 the receipts amounted to only $1,144. The comparison shows an increase for this year of $1,100. The total receipts for the twelve months ended last night amounted to $23,094, an increase of about $2,000 over the same months a year ago.

Register Saturday. An effort is being made to get out all voters who have not registered to go to the booths and register on Saturday. In order for those who want to vote they must have registered last fall or else register this spring. Especial attention is called to the fact that those who have moved since last fall's registration must secure transfers. Those desiring transfers will first go to the place they registered last fall and give their new address. Then the registrars will issue a certificate and the name on the original registration book will be marked out. In this way the voting of two persons under the same name will be prevented.

Miss Rowley Secures Honors. Miss Catherine Rowley carried off the honors at the North Nebraska oratorical contest held at Columbus Wednesday night. In the high school contest here, held to determine who should be sent to the North Nebraska contest, Miss Rowley easily carried off the honors. She was the recipient of many congratulations yesterday from class mates and others. Superintendent McLean said last night that Miss Rowley delivered her oration in a manner most satisfactory to the judges. He further said that this is the fifth consecutive year that pupils of the South Omaha high school have carried off the prize at the North Nebraska contest. Miss Rowley may enter the state oratorical contest to be held later in the year.

Three Months' Receipts. Last night closed the first three months of the year at the Union stock yards. Receipts show an increase as compared with the same months of last year of 1,394 cattle, 26,725 hogs and 114,188 sheep. The total receipts for the three months here are 236,277 cattle, 565,091 hogs and 332,172 sheep. By shippers the South Omaha market is considered the best on the river and the figures given above show that shippers appreciate a market where good prices prevail and the best of treatment is given to stock immediately upon its receipt at the chute.

Modern Woodmen Entertain. Camp No. 1055, Modern Woodmen of America, held a meeting last night at the hall over the South Omaha National bank. A half hundred members of Hazel camp No. 171 from Council Bluffs dropped in unexpectedly, but arrangements were immediately made for an entertainment. A program of music and recitations was put on and before the close of the meeting light refreshments were served. The visitors upon leaving gave the local lodge a vote of thanks for the entertainment furnished.

FIGHTING IN BRITISH INDIA. Tibetans Repulsed with Heavy Loss and Town Captured.

ATTEMPT ON YOUNGHUSBAND'S MISSION. Effort to Disarm the Enemy Leads to Pistol and Bayonet Charges and Death of Commanders.

TUNA. British India, April 1.—News has been received here of severe fighting, the Tibetans having attacked the British mission, under Colonel Younghusband. There were two engagements and the Tibetans were repulsed with heavy loss. The British captured the Tibetan camp at Guru.

At 8 o'clock this morning a flying column started to reconnoiter the Tibetan camp at Guru, whereupon a general from Lhasa asked the colonel to retire with his mission to Yanting for the purpose of carrying on negotiations.

Colonel Younghusband replied that negotiations had been proceeding fruitfully for fifteen years and that retirement was now impossible.

The attitude of the Tibetan leaders convinced Colonel MacDonald of the necessity of disarming them. The Tibetans numbered 1,500 and their resistance led to a smart engagement. The situation for a few moments was critical. Revolvers and bayonets were used and then a rifle fire was resorted to, at which the Tibetans fled.

Nearing the Tibetan camp at Guru a second attack took place, in which the artillery played the largest part. Finally the Tibetans retreated over the hills.

The village was finally taken by a mounted bayonet charge.

Among the Tibetans killed were the Lhasa general, the military commandant of Phari and Lata and the representatives of the golden monastery to whose influence and violent hostility the existing difficulties were largely due.

The Tibetans are believed to be over 600, while the British casualties are about a dozen.

DIXIE CLUB BECOMES A FACT. Southern Born Citizens of Omaha Complete Organization of Their Body.

A generous amount of real southern enthusiasm was uncoiled at Arcadium hall last night when the Dixie club of Omaha became a fixed organization, with a constitution, by-laws, officers and all the incidental things. It is the aim of the organization to have club rooms, probably in the Paxton block, which shall be open at all times to members and be used by them not only for club purposes, but for the entertainment of strangers who may be within the gates of the city, provided they hail from the lower side of Mason and Dixon's line.

reserve; R. G. Cane, Eleventh Mississippi cavalry; R. E. Stringfellow, Second battalion Virginia reserves; W. T. Canada, Third Kentucky; W. S. Wedge, First Maryland; J. E. West, Eleventh Pennsylvania cavalry; Erasmus Heathman, First Nebraska, Company D; W. C. Galloway, Eighth Virginia volunteers.

After much discussion as to the adoption of the constitution and by-laws as submitted by the committee that drafted them, they were accepted in toto and the following officers elected to serve for one year: President, John Hicks Howe; first vice president, Captain C. G. Cunningham; second, Edward P. Berryman; third, D. M. Vinsonhaler; secretary, George W. Dunham; treasurer, Harry S. Byrne; executive committee, James L. Logan, Paul Froelich, John H. Butler, John T. Yates and Frank H. Dunlop. Telegrams were read from a number of well known southerners, including General Joe Wheeler, expressing regret at being unable to be present, and the transaction of the rest of the business was interspersed with the rendition of songs and instrumental music, essentially southern and reminiscent of the good old ante-bellum days, that awakened much enthusiasm.

Those present were greeted under the heads of the states from which they hail, and were escorted to their seats by attractive young women, each representing a state, prettily attired and carefully labelled. They were called sponsors and were as follows: Miss Cecil H. Skogg, Kentucky; Miss Mae Yates, Maryland; Mrs. Paul Froelich, Tennessee; Mrs. Fannie Colburn, South Carolina; Miss Cora Jack, Florida; Mrs. Clara E. Miller, Texas; Miss Grace Conklin, Mississippi; Miss Sue King, Alabama; Miss Nell M. Griscom, North Carolina; Miss May Bright, Missouri; Miss Corrie Lee Norris, Virginia; Miss Grace Dagley, Arkansas; Miss Margaret Burdock, Delaware; Mrs. Charles Bressman, West Virginia; Mrs. Fannie Edmondson, Louisiana; Mrs. J. L. Carlson, Georgia; Mrs. S. B. Stewart, District of Columbia; Miss Eugenia Elvina Howe, the press.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Ella Hurst's Nameplate. A woman went to the police station last night and asked permission to see Ella Hurst, the woman accused of robbing various houses in the city while working in the capacity of a domestic. As Ella Hurst has a steady refusal to divulge the name of her associates or give any clue which may lead to the discovery of the booty, Captain Mostyn readily gave his consent and a wink to a couple of detectives, who closed in upon the stranger and are continually asking me when I got out of jail and things of that sort. As I happened to be a visitor in Omaha, I thought I would like to see the woman. Thank you, you are kind. Much obliged to you. So saying, she walked out, leaving Captain Mostyn and the two detectives gazing at each other in amazement.

When the Hurst woman was first arrested Captain Mostyn received a telephone message from an uncle of Ella Hurst of Glenwood, Ia. When the people saw the account of the robberies they immediately connected me with them and are continually asking me when I got out of jail and things of that sort. As I happened to be a visitor in Omaha, I thought I would like to see the woman. Thank you, you are kind. Much obliged to you. So saying, she walked out, leaving Captain Mostyn and the two detectives gazing at each other in amazement.

Good Month for the Census. March was a good month for census figures in Omaha. The population was increased by 117 new babies, or about a score more than usual for each thirty days. Of this number there were eighty-two white males, eighty-five white females, three black males, one black female and three pairs of twins.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

"Mlle FI-FI" at the Krug. May Howard and her company opened an engagement at the Krug last night which is to continue until after Saturday, offering "Mlle FI-FI," a musical extravaganza.

Amateur Night at the Orpheum. A large audience attended the Orpheum Thursday matinee. The special feature was an amateur olio given immediately after the regular bill. This included Master Johnny Dilliance, a chap of about 10 years of age, who played the mandolin. The Brothers Brader, also youngsters, pleased the audience with song and dance. A juvenile team styling themselves Bear and Pain, and not inappropriately either, attempted the cross-fire humor in conversation. Their effort was just about as primitive in the amateur school as curiosity will ever desire. That amateur performances have an interested clientele cannot be gainsaid in the face of the demonstrative crowds they draw.

Last night a company of amateurs, under the direction of Mr. C. W. Warner, gave the third act of a play, "True Friends," which was very well received. Only the principals of the long cast appeared, but their work was heartily applauded by the audience. The company will give the play in full next Thursday evening at Bohemian hall on South Thirteenth street.
