MONEY CAUSES INSOMNIA

Countryman's Purses Keep City Friend Awake and Follows Him Off

HUMPHREY MAN PROVES EASY VICTIM

Invites Congenial Stranger to Share His Bed and Later Gets Away with Two Hundred Dollars.

Alfred N. Hittner, a visitor in the city from Humphrey, Neb., has reported to the police that a stranger, with whom he slept for one night at a Douglas street hotel, left the room at 4 yesterday morning, taking with him Hittner's supply of currency, amounting to $200.

It appears that Hittner left Humphrey three days ago, after having disposed of what property he had and straightening his affairs incident to the recent death of his wife. The amount of country life, becoming particularly distressing to him in his lonely state, so he thought he would visit Omaha for a while and forget his sorrow in the madding crowd. Soon after his arrival in Omaha, Hittner met the stranger, who gave him his name, but which the Humphrey man declares was of such unusual spelling that he could not recall it.

The stranger is said to have been of such pleasing address that Hittner was much taken with him, confiding his recent bereavement and money affairs to the new acquaintance. The stranger recently lost a dear and only sister, which, with Hittner's loneliness, had the effect of establishing a strong bond of sympathy between

THE TWO GRIEF-STRIKEN MEN

Hittner is then said to have told his companion that he was afraid to sleep alone in so large a city as Omaha with $200 on his person and did not care to trust any one else with the wealth, so there was no other alternative but that the stranger should share Hittner's bed and board at the hotel. The stranger had urgent business that needed prompt attention and could not see his way clear at first to accept Hittner's hospitality, but after much importuning the companion accepted the invitation to stay with the Humphrey man and help guard his strong box.

Soon Falls Asleep

Soon after taps were sounded at the hotel Hittner was asleep. About 10 o'clock he was awakened by a noise in the room. The man with the dead sister had suddenly been stricken with a severe cramp in the stomach and was pacing around the room in his agonies. Hittner was sorry for the man, but soon was asleep again. About 4 a. m. Hittner was again disturbed in his beauty sleep. The stranger's stomach was still in distress and he was going to a drug store for some relief. A few minutes later Hittner missed his money and a great revelation dawned upon him as the minutes passed away and the stranger did not return.

It was the first day of April and a glad-some springtime morn at that. The air was a little chilly, but the sun was shining brightly over the Iowa hills. It was Good Friday and "every prospect pleased and only man was vile." Hittner had lost his money and he did not notice the associations of the day and the expressions of nature. He had lost his late associate and there were other expressions more fitting to the occasion. He went to the police station and told the story.

BEGINS ON PRIVATE SEWER

J. O. Corby Starts Work on Drainage System for Benefit of Krug Park.

Contractor J. O. Corby has begun work on a private sewer system that will drain Krug park, the summer resort to the northwest of the city. The system will be a large one when completed, and was designed by City Engineer Rosewater. A septic tank will take care of the matter from the sewer. It is impossible to have this section of the country served by the city system of sewers. The park management is building its own system of pipes to be supplied with city water. A new story pavilion has been erected and other improvements planned for the resort's season of 1904.

United States Marshal and Old Staff Says Wailing in Office.

BEGIN NEW TERM WITH THE NEW MONTH

Lincoln Deputy Resigns Because of Ill Health and Goes to Pacific Coast for a Continued Visit.

United States Marshal T. L. Mathews has entered upon the duties of his office under reappointment as United States marshal for the district of Nebraska. Marshal Mathews has reappointed all of the old deputy marshals already named in Lincoln, who tendered his resignation several weeks ago because of ill health. Mr. Welling will leave during the coming week for a visit of several months on the Pacific coast to enjoy a much needed vacation. He is succeeded by John F. Sides of Dakota City. Deputy Marshal Sides was for two years sheriff of Dakota county, being elected as a republican in that strong democratic balliwick.

Roman, Moore and Allan.

Henry A. Roman is reappointed office deputy marshal, having first been appointed from Omaha six years ago.
J. O. Moore is appointed office deputy marshal, having already served in capacity for four and a half years. His home is at Palmyra.
James Allan of Omaha also is honored with a reappointment as office deputy marshal, having served for seven years as field deputy marshal.

All of the deputy marshals are virtually field deputies, though appointed as office deputies. All are salaried officials, the chief deputy receiving $1,500 and the other $1,200 per annum. All of them maintain their headquarters in Omaha and their duties cover the entire state of Nebraska, all instructions to them emanating directly from the office of Marshal Mathews. No fee officials now are connected with the marshal's department.

ROBBER MAKES GOOD HAUL

Theft Enters Beaton Drug Store and Gets Bundle of Valuable Articles.

The store of the Beaton Drug company, Fifteenth and Farnam streets, was entered at 4 yesterday morning by burglars, who gained entrance through a doorway leading to the basement in the alley of the Barker block. The intruders then worked their way through the engineer's room and through the long basement to a partition separating a room under the drug store. Several boxes of the partition were pried off and the men then entered the Beaton store by way of a trap door. After bundling up a large quantity of cigars, patent drugs and ointments, one of the burglars himself, when Officer Jackson noticed the man, and before the policeman could locate an open entrance the burglar got away. The night engineer states that a man passed him hurriedly through the engine room, saying he was "How do, pard," and then passed. Before the engineer could suspect anything was wrong the intruder got out, so the former states.

Several bundles of drugs and cigars were found in different parts of the basement of the stock. Most of the stolen goods are thought to have been found in the basement. It is thought that this is not the first time the stock has been entered in the same manner, but who it is who has been making the supposed systematic robbery is a matter yet to be proved.

Dog Taps on Trap.
More than fifty men, women and children attended the opening of the dog trap sale in the city clerk's office. The disposal of the brute life securities was brisker than ever before. Councilman George T. Nicholson obtained tag No. 1 for his notorious cocker spaniel Jack. The hour of wearing tag No. 1 has belonged to John S. Westberg's great-grand glory for years, but since Mr. Westberg ceased being controller he has not taken such a keen interest in things around the city hall as he used to.

CALL WOMAN A KIDNAPER
Officers Arrest Mrs. Nettie Chuman of Nemaha County on Sheriff's Order.

On receipt of a telephone message from the sheriff of Nemaha county Mrs. Nettie Chuman was arrested on a charge of kidnaping and held at the city jail awaiting further advice from the Nemaha sheriff.

Mrs. Chuman says her husband became insane about a year ago and has been in an asylum unit recently. The custody of the child, which she is charged with kidnaping, was given to Mrs. Ireland at Brock. The child, a girl of 10 years, is said to lately have left her custodian, going to her grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Chuman, and about four weeks ago coming on her own volition to her mother, who works at the Meridian hotel, Twenty-fifth and Dodge streets, where Mrs. Chuman was arrested.

It has been said that Mrs. Chuman suddenly left the home of her mother-in-law a few weeks ago and came to Omaha with her child, riding eight miles across country on horseback in the middle of the night, but when seen in the matron's department at the police station Mrs. Chuman denies this and states that the daughter came to Omaha of her own accord.

TELLS OF TALK WITH HOAR
Frank N. Clarke Expals the "Standard" Conversation with Massachusetts Senator.

Frank N. Clarke, manager of J. L. Brando & Sons' bank, who has returned from the east, protests that he is not and has not been a candidate for the chair of instructor in technical English to the senate committee.

"Reports of this matter have been grossly exaggerated," said Mr. Clarke. "Senator Hoar and I had no particular difficulty in understanding each other and I think that with plenty of light and room we would be able to talk together pleasantly on almost any topic. In testifying to the conversation that I was taken to Washington to tell, I quoted myself as saying, 'It's just a question whether you should turn state's evidence or stand pat.' Senator Hoar asked me if that were the word of the conversation as it occurred, or whether it were merely my translation. In commenting on the testimony, he said,

"I stand pat, whatever that may mean." But I imagine the senator was not born yesterday, and had a fair idea of what would be necessary in standing pat.

"I will say that my experience with the senate investigating committee has given me more respect for the manner of receiving evidence and conducting a trial in an ordinary court. The senate committee is just a party of gentlemen sitting about a table. The manner of procedure is a good deal according to how they feel. Sometimes they admit a sort of evidence and sometimes they do not."

Mr. Clarke found the east in good financial condition and the failures of some time ago and the conditions which brought them about a thing of the past.

Mr. Clarke was accompanied by Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Detweiler, and after the investigation visited Baltimore, where he was much impressed with the great fire damage, Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburgh and Boston, in which latter city he formerly lived for some time.

New Bottling Works.
The Great Western Bottling Works, a new concern, has opened an establishment in Omaha at the corner of Twenty-fifth and Farnam streets, to carry on a general bottling trade fountain fixtures and ice cream manufacturing business. D. A. Woods of Omaha and C. M. Prince of New York are the principal stockholders in the firm, which has been incorporated.

BURLINGTON CUTS ITS FORCE

Discharges Over One Hundred Men in Few Days at Lincoln.

HOLDREGE SAYS DUE TO LACK OF WORK

General Manager Says This is Time of Year When Less Men Are Needed and Reductions Common.

A report has been received from Lincoln to the effect that the Burlington is systematically cutting down its force of shopmen, engineers and other employes at that point and that over 100 have been discharged during the last few days. It is said the reduction in the force of employes is steadily going on at that point.

General Manager Holdrege said concerning the report that it is customary at this time of the year to reduce the force at all division headquarters on account of lack of work and that work is more slack this year than last, or for several years past. He says business has fallen off considerably.

When asked if a like reduction in the force of employes is being made here, he replied that it is not necessary, but that some men had been laid off at the freight houses, though just how many he could not state.

He did not know when the force would be sufficiently reduced, but thought that would depend entirely upon the state of business of the company.

Other reports involving labor difficulties come from Lincoln as to the cause of the reduction in force, but they are denied by the officials in this city and are said to have no foundation in fact.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY "ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.
Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can beat the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal condition, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.
