Very Little Doing Among the Omaha Smart Folks Just Now.

FUTURE HOLDS NO MORE THAN THE PAST

Week of Small Things to Be Followed by One of Same Sort, but Talk Indicates a Bigger Time.

In Memoriam.

(To a Little Friend's Cart.)

Sweetly she lived and sweetly died. Not great, but in the flowering of her days; Not proud, but in the dignity which fate To noble impulse leads.

Her little children lifted in to see— At last their eager hearts were not denied And they could hug her hand and be The nearest to her side.

But when they pressed the arms that lay so still And called her name and smoothed her pretty hair, She answered not; nor calmed with quickened will Their unfamiliar care.

And then at this their souls were crushed and blind, Pity them! Prisoners of vague unrest, When ceaseless yearning fills the untaught mind, And brooding death is guest.

How softly lay the faces on her breast— Surely she was so lovely in repose That even Paradise was still more blessed In claiming this sweet rest.

A rose that thrives in sunshine or in shade, Gaily at length death swept its fullest bloom, And withered it just when it would have stayed To brighten in the gloom.

And so she sleeps! The jasmine blooms again, And Nature bears its warm life from the deep, And summer birds will waft the haunts of men, But still, alas! she sleeps.

The Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mrs. R. C. Patterson entertains the Sewing Circle.

TUESDAY—Mrs. J. H. Hillworth entertains the South Side Whist club.

WEDNESDAY—The Lynch-Higginson wedding.

Another week gone and still the roll call of the fashionable brings only the response "Nothing doing." Altogether last week scarcely afforded enough for one day, ordinarily, and this week promises nothing more.

For more than a year it has been a tie between Fort Crook and "the younger set" when it came to furnishing material for engagements, but there seems to be plenty of evidence of late that Cupid is no more a respecter of sets than he is of persons for the contagion seems to be general.

The small son of a prominent family set one particular act against recently by telling a playmate that his aunt—who happens to be a great aunt—got a letter every single day from a man who sent her a gold heart with a diamond in it for Christmas, "while the secrets of still another family were let out by a maiden aunt who recently expressed herself very forcibly regarding the engagement of 'eighteen-year-old girls and boys who were only of age.'"

However, the busy-bodies are keeping their eyes on Fort Crook and asserting the fact of the fashionable folk that it is well worth while, though there is a very interesting case in their very midst, one of last season's debutantes and a well known young society man, and, as the young man recently came into business in Council Bluffs, society is expecting an announcement before long.

Weddings and Engagements.

The marriage of Miss Marie Antoinette Lowe, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Lowe, to Lieutenant George P. Guild will take place at the home of Mrs. Lowe at Fort Crook in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Parker have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emma Parker, to Mr. Clarence Lloyd Matthews. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whidden of 421 Lafayette avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Georgia Whidden, to Mr. Frederick H. Hansen. The wedding will take place later in the spring.

Important among the week's affairs, though invitations have been issued to but comparatively few, will be the wedding of Miss Rowena Higginson, daughter of Mrs. W. B. Melke, and Dr. Frank Worthington Lynch of Cleveland, which will be solemnized at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Melke, 802 Worthington place. Miss Julia Higginson will attend her sister as maid of honor. Dr. Lynch arrived in Omaha Saturday and will be at the Omaha club until after the wedding.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Katherine Lowe, eldest daughter of Mrs. W. W. Lowe, to Mr. Allen Kent Haney of St. Louis, comes as a surprise to scores of Omaha friends, particularly as the wedding took place December 31 and was only made public previous to Mrs. Haney's departure yesterday afternoon for St. Louis to join her husband. Mr. Haney is a son of Colonel Haney, U. S. A., and is superintendent of the Hemphill Cement works of St. Louis, having formerly been connected with the Houshield Lumber company of this city and well known in society. Mrs. Haney has lived in Omaha most of her life and has a host of friends whose good wishes will follow her to her new home.

Pleasures Past.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gates entertained the Kountze Place Whist club last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bears Poppleton entertained the Chaffin Club last evening at their home.

Mrs. T. J. Baird and Miss Ott entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Buckingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robinson gave an informal reception Friday evening in the parlors of the Murray hotel, in honor of Miss Gusie Lehman and Mrs. Koenig, who have spent the last year in Chicago studying music.

Miss Edith Thomas gave a dinner at the Omaha club Sunday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. Fred Thomas, the guests being members of the Phi Lambda Epistol fraternity. The table decorations were of the fraternal colors, red, yellow and white. Later in the evening Mrs. S. A. McWhorter entertained a few young people for Mrs. Thomas. Mr. Thomas, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. W. Thomas, called Saturday morning for Germany, where they will spend the summer.

One of the most unique and cleverly arranged affairs of the year was the dinner given Monday evening by Miss Louise McPherson to the members of the east of "Mr. Bob." The little comedy given recently for the benefit of the Visiting Nurses association. The utter lack of conventionalities was a conspicuous feature. The table decorations consisted of the property in miniature, arranged on a silver tray in the center of the table, and from this radiated strings of theater tickets and ribbons, the same sort of festooning being hung from the chandelier. The place of each guest was marked with some object or object used in the part he or she had taken.

Mrs. F. W. Milroy was hostess at the meeting of the West Farnam Luncheon club Thursday, the members present being: Misses, Lyle Abbott, H. D. Reed, Albert Edholm, C. W. Axtell, H. T. Cole and Milroy.

Major and Mrs. Slaughter, assisted by their daughters, Misses, Gaudin and Mrs. Glimore, entertained informally at their home, 2022 West street, on Thursday evening, when those present were: General and Mrs. Wint, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weller, Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lottridge, Lieutenant and Mrs. Carleton, Captain and Mrs. Castle, Miss McCune, Miss Jessie McCune, Captain Wilcox, Miss Agnes Weller, Lieutenant Allen, Dr. Reno, Lieutenant Little and Samuel Slaughter.

Miss Lucille and Master Jesse Darby entertained a number of little friends Saturday afternoon at their home on North Fortieth street between 2 and 5 o'clock.

The rooms were decorated with pink and green and the afternoon was occupied with games, one of the most enjoyable of which was a wheel of fortune, each little guest taking home his fortune as a souvenir of the afternoon. Late in the afternoon luncheon was served, while Mrs. H. Shopen played the harp. The guest list included: Miss Lucille Hostetter, Mabel Owens, Mildred Jonson, Emma Jones, Gertrude Fehr, Nellie Ryan, Eleanor Patrick, Marguerite Nelson, Helen McCoy, Frances Althausler, Masters Walter Egge, Arthur Mathias, Malcolm Brown, Thomas Nelson, Eddie Fehr, Harry Hostetter, Loraine Ostrom, Edwin Landahl, Robert Althausler, Dean Wells and Walter Parnason.

The largest function announced for the week will be the ten given Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock by the Omaha Woman's club in its rooms in the First Congregational church, in celebration of the eleventh anniversary of its organization.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY.

The call for the seventh biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at St. Louis May 17 to 25, has been issued and provides for a meeting of the advisory council, composed of the board of directors and presidents of state and territorial federations, at 9:30 Tuesday morning, May 17, in Jontie hall, fourth floor of the Masonic building, which adjoins the Odéon, where the convention will be held. The council, composed of the board of directors, presidents of state and territorial federations and presidents of clubs, will meet at 11 o'clock in Jontie hall, and the convention proper will be called to order at 2 o'clock the same day. The program complete will be distributed May 1. The credentials committee will be in session Tuesday, May 17, at the Odéon, at 9:30 to 12 and at 1:30 o'clock. Receipts from the treasurer for the year May 1, 1904, to April 30, 1905, should be presented with the credentials.

The Hotel Jefferson, Twelfth and Locust street, will be the convention headquarters. Mail may be addressed care of General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Odéon, North Grand avenue. All club women are requested to wear a knot of blue ribbon upon their arrival that they may be distinguished by the trains' committee, which will wear a blue badge lettered in black.

Appended to the call are several proposed amendments to the by-laws of the General Federation.

The first, and principal one, amends section 6 of article I, and provides that several officers and eight directors of the General Federation shall be nominated and elected at biennial meetings, by ballot. The present system provides a nominating board, consisting of one delegate from each state and territorial federation, appointed by their respective delegations, which shall formulate a list of officers and directors to be voted upon by the convention. The other amendments carry with them provisions intended to facilitate the work of the organization and provide against complications.

Considerable significance is attached to the amendment of article II, which provides, in addition to the present provisions, that organizations desiring to join the General Federation must have been in existence at least one year to the time of the next biennial, and that it is not a secret society. Also that application for membership must be accompanied by the constitution and by-laws of organizations applying; that it must be stated whether or not the organization has previously held membership and that the membership committee shall admit no organization within sixty days preceding the first day of the biennial meeting.

Article III, which provides that the membership annual dues shall be 10 cents per capita, is amended by substituting the following: "The annual dues from clubs of less than twenty-five members shall be $2.50 and under 50 members at the rate of 10 cents per capita; from clubs of 50 and more members at a rate of 5 cents per capita."

The child labor committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has submitted the following resolutions asking that all delegates who will attend the St. Louis biennial be prepared to vote upon them. The committee consists of three of the best posted women on labor conditions in the general federation, Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, Mrs. Florence Kelley of the Consumer's league and Mrs. Caroline Granger of Georgia, who has been active in behalf of the children employed in the mills of the south.

That the General Federation of Women's Clubs recommend to the state federations and federated clubs that in all states in which children work at night and children who cannot read or write the English language, the federations should concentrate upon the passage of laws covering these points, namely:

First—That children under the age of 16 should not work between the hours of 7 p. m. and 5 a. m.

Second—That children should not work who cannot read and write the English language.

Third—In states in which these two points are already being enforced, the federations should urge the adoption of the Standard Child Labor law, as recommended in the Newsboys' law.

Considerable confusion and quite as much embarrassment resulted from the postponement of the teachers and patrons meeting arranged for Saturday afternoon by the department of political and social science and owing to the illness of the leader of the department, the meeting was called off, but unfortunately many of the teachers and patrons were not reached and embarrassing disappointment was the result.

Through some mistake, the impression prevailed, particularly among the teachers, that the gathering was for the special interest of the new superintendent, and that the Women's club had extended the invitation. As a matter of fact, the club had nothing whatever to do with the meeting; it was planned entirely by the social science department and but for the hiccups that occurred, would doubtless have proven all that was anticipated.

The National Florence Crittenton Mission will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary by holding a conference in Washington, D. C., April 24 to 29 inclusive. The regular sessions will meet in Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal church at 10 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Mr. Charles N. Crittenton, president of the mission, will preside and all persons interested in the work, though not delegates, will be welcome to attend. The headquarters of the conference will be 215 Third street northwest, where daily demonstrations in all practical kinds of work will be given between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. All correspondence should be sent to this address.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the conference are:

Mrs. B. F. Weaver, chairman of the membership committee of the Women's club, has called a meeting of the committee at her home, 225 South Thirty-first street, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Blanche Sorenson, voice, 50 Hange block.

AMATEURS TAKE TO STAGE

Creighton University Alumni and Other Stars Will Perform Tuesday Night.

There will be something doing at Creighton University hall next Tuesday evening. Members of the alumni have been rehearsing for months and have reached a degree of perfection in their several parts to justify their appearance at the footlights. There will be songs and dances, parlor stories, recitations, feats of magic rivaling the black art of India, and flashes of wit for which Creightonians are deservedly famed. It is not the purpose of the alumni stars to monopolize the whole stage. Others are booked to shine in the entertainment. Vocal and instrumental music will be furnished by Miss Purvis, the Elks quartet, the Knights of Columbus quartet and the Father-Mandolin club. Carl Reiter and Frank Dunlop will show how lawyers are made and Mrs. Etta Matheson will tell of "Mrs. Casey and Her Neighbors." All of which is worth twice the price of admission.

MRS. PAUL BURLEY VERY SICK

Undergoes Operation and Her Friends Fear She May Not Be Equal to Ordeal.

Announcement is made of the serious condition of Mrs. Paul Burley. She was operated on several days ago and it is feared she will live but two or three days at the most. She was compelled to undergo an operation about two years ago and at that time it was feared a second would be necessary. This proved to be true and was undertaken as the only chance of saving her life. Mr. Burley, who is the son of former sheriff Burley, was connected with the Merchant's National bank for a number of years and recently went into ranching in New Mexico, but was called home because of his wife's condition. Mrs. Burley is a sister of Milton Barlow of the United States National bank.

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—EMERSON.

The pen of this eminent American poet and philosopher seldom labored without recording some beautiful truism. The above terse and true saying is implied in all its meaning to the wonderful AHAMO scouring soap—

And as far as the East is from the West
So far is AHAMO the very best.

AHAMO

(Pronounced A-HAY-MO) is the new scouring and polishing soap that is winning fame and praise wherever it has been placed. It is winning this fame and praise honestly, because it is recognized by all who use it as the best that has ever been sold over the counter of a grocery store. And no honest grocer will deny this. It serves the two-fold purpose of a scouring and a polishing soap. It is an Omaha product—and it has a yellow wrapper.
