ALBANY, N. Y., April 18.-The demoeratic state convention for the election is $472. of delegates to the national convention selected the following delegates at large: David B. Hill of Albany, Edward Murphy. jr., of Troy; George Ehret of New York and James W. Bidgeway of Brooklyn. As alternates it selected C. N. Bulger of Oswego, W. Caryl Ely of Buffalo, C. H. Ackerman of Broome and Francis Burton Harrison of New York.

The delegates were instructed by a vote of 30 to 14 for Alton B. Parker as the state's candidate for president. Tammany was not treated as badly as had been predicted, being allowed to name a delegate at large, Mr. Ehret, and an alternate and one of the two electors at large. Harry Payne Whitney, the other being John T

The platform adopted is brief and in addition to instructing for Parker, compelled the delegation to vote as a unit. Among the district presidential electors are: Imdor Strauss, Robert B. Roosevelt, Hugh J. Grant, Herman Ridder and John D. Crimmins. The list of district delegates to the national convention includes the following:

The result was that when the doors were opened at three minutes before 2 o'clock the crosed burst in with a yell and a rush. In three minutes the top gallery was filled with a stamping and shouting mass of men and boys. In the galleries were a number of Hearst banners and a running fire of shouts and comments was maintained by the gallers crowd.

Order was finally secured and former State Secretary George Raines of Monroe county was introduced as chairman, and he delivered a speech to the conventi-

ST. PETERSEURG, April 18-An attempted landing by Japanese troops on the shores of Corea bay, between Port Arthur and the Yalu river, April 12, was frustrated by the Russians. A Japanese torpedo bout flotilla scouted the shores of the bay, but was received with such a heavy fire from land batteries at Taku Shan, Shing Tai Tse, Tchanbe and Bednine that it retired, Vice Admiral Togo's flagship then recalled nine transports which were on the way to land troops. A squadron of ten warships protecting the true sports withdrew with them. The Russians have most troops concentrated at Taku Shan.

Additional Description of Loss.

In the dramatic description of the sinking of the Petropavlovsk off Port Arthur wired from Line Yang last night by a Russian corespondent of The Associated Press, a portion of the account referring to the blowing up of the Petropavlosk was delayed. It is as follows:

Moving at reduced speed, the Petro-pavlovsk, came abreast of Electric cittle. The torpede boats were entering the harbor, when suddenly from the star-board side of the Petropavinsk's bow a Frielleges to Irrigators.
