The Milks' Emulsion Company,

Gentlemen:— Terre Haute, Ind.

I was a constant sufferer for five years with stomach trouble, which developed into appendicits as diagnosed by physicians, and for six months expected orders to be taken to the hospital to undergo an operation by knife, when I was induced to try a box of Milks' Emulsion, and not more than half a box was taken by me,
when I was given relief, and have no indication of any pain in my side or stomach since that

BATTING VERY LIGHT BY BOTH TEAMS

Omaha Bunches Hits in One Inning and Drives in the Three Runs Needed to Score a Clean Win.

The prettiest, snappiest game of ball played in Omaha this season was that between the St. Joseph aggregation and Pa's Pets on the Vinton street grounds yesterday afternoon. Again the visitors drew the small end of the game by one score, but it was base ball all the way along, and characterized by none of the loose work of Sunday's contest. The wind was cold and raw, but the men were full of ginger from start to finish and as distinguished from a slugging match the game was a splendid exhibition of field and box work. McCarthy, who was in the box for the home team at the start of the game, made three of the four errors in about as many minutes, but he made up for them in quick time and only one of the visitors' two runs could by any stretch of the imagination be laid at McCarthy's door. Belden was the first man up for St. Joe and went down on McCarthy's first error, which was a slow ball that went between his fingers. McCride hit another one to McCarthy and this one he held on to and sent down to second in time to eatch Belden. A minute later McBride was caught in the same satisfactory manner and Hartman went out from Downs to Thomas.

Interference by Dolan.

In the third inning Garvin led off with a sharp hit to second that was too hot to put a hand on. Delhi sent another to McCarthy, who promptly threw it ten feet over the first baseman's head and gave Garvin third and Dolan an Sarvin third and Deihl second. Belden made a soft infield hit in an attempt to sacrifice. Joey Dolan exercised his disagreeable habit of getting in front of the all, and instead of throwing Belden out at first caught Garvin at the plate and made a hole of his score. McBride made another baby crack at it and Downs had the ball waiting to hand Belden when he got to second. But Deihi had brought in his run meantime. Hartman sent the leather out toward the left pasture for a hit and the visitors were just thinking about getting in another run when Dusty Miller made a sprint for Kemmer's skyscraper to left field and gathered it in vithout a struggle. The St. Joes made the other half of their uns in the fifth. Delbl was first up and waited and walked to first. Belden tried to bunt his third strike and went to the bench on the umpire's suggestion that he was out. McBride popped one down third base way that spoiled Deihl's chances, for he tried to go home on it and was twenty minutes late. In the mixup McBride go to third, and when Hartman sent it down the line Dolan's way he brought in a run. Miller gathered Kemmer's fly in again and it was all over. They tried four more innings, but couldn't annex another run to the two already/ made. Three in One Inning.

Omaha failed to record a run until the seventh. Then Welch cut loose with a hit to left. Dolan gave it a wollop to the other side of the pasture and Thomas, just to show them what they were trying to do, banged ti back to Lesotte's territory for three bases. An error and a wild pitch by Delhi brought Thomas in, after which a strike out and a double play retired the side. Rourke's men made no more runs cause they didn't have to. This afternoon the down-river club plays again. The

AMES, Ia., April 18.—(Special Telegram.)

—Ames defeated the Cedar Hapids Three-I league in a loose game. If to 5. A cold wind is responsible for numerous errors and a batting game, both teams hitting the ball freely. Brown's control was excellent. One of the features was the work of the outfielders. Smith, right fielder for Ames, accepted four chances without an error. Paine's one-handed catch of a short fly was sensational. Evans, at first base, took a high foul off the bleachers and another from right field on a splendid run. Score:

DEFIANT AND VAINGLORIOUS TO LAST

Physicians Say Attempt May Prove Successful, but Efforts Are Made to Save Him for Gallows.

CHICAGO, April 15 .- Peter Niedermeier, he leader of the car barn bandits, contwo desperate attempts at suicide today. His condition as a result is so precarious that it is feared he will not survive. Should he still be alive next Friday he will be carried to the gallows and executed. Nieder-meier planned his attempted suicide carefully. First he masticated and swallowed the heads of seventy-five or 100 sulphur matches. While the phosphorous was burning his stomach he sawed at the radial artery of his left wrist with a sharp-pointed lead pencil. Striking a bone in the wrist, he gave up trying to sever the artery and jabs and a see-saw motion he lacerated the flesh and muscles of the arm and tore open the veins, leaving a large jagged wound exposed, through which the blood gushed in streams, dyeing his bed clothing and running down over the cell floor in pools.

His second attempt came after the wound had been dressed and closed by the county physician. Niedermeier was lying apparently unconscious in the hospital under a guard's care. His right arm and hand were hidden by the bed clothing and with hardly discernible motion he slipped the band-On the Omaha Bowling association alleys last evening the third of the five-game series between the tenpin bowlers and ninepin artists resulting in favor of the tenpin men by the following score:

He unconsciously uttered a groan and made a convulsive movement which attracted the attention of the physicians, nurses and the guard, and on throwing back the cover lids the attendants saw with horror that Niedermeier had torn away the bandages and reopened the wound. Niedermeler opened his eyes and with a leerinf, wan smile exclaimed: "Let why do you try to save my life?"

me die, Doc; go away and let me die. You were almost too late the first time. Now Niedermeier lost a large quantity of blood and was almost pulseless for a time. The most danger, however, is that the poisonous phosphorous has burned him so severely that his life cannot be saved for its final snuffing out on the gallows. Niedermeier says he got his idea of swallowing phosphorous when a prisoner in the jail committed suicide in that manner, while Niedermeier was awaiting trial. A letter written by Niedermeier prior to the attempt at suicide was found concealed in his cot. In the letter the writer incidentally expresses repentance of his career and he regrets leaving the few who loved him, but chiefly the letter is a morbid glorification of the writer's courage and his loyalty to his kind in contrast with Niedermeier's associate, Gustavo Marx. The letter says:

The letter says:

There are four reasons why I should take my own life.

First, because of the public boast that I cannot commit suicide while I am so closely guarded.

Becond, that I cannot chest the scaffold. Third, that they cannot say they executed me and made me pay for my critics. Fourth, to have another mystery for the ignorant police to solve.

The letter concludes as follows: It seems very pleasant to have this ever-lasting enjoyment of rest. I am an atheist and do not believe in any religion. PETER NIEDERMEIER During the day Niedermeier recognized hose about him and corsented to listen to Father Francis M. O'Brien of the Holy Name cathedral, who has steadily sought to convert the bandit.
