CORNHUSKERS ON TWO-WEEK TOUR Have Ten Games Scheduled with Colleges During Trip.

Lincoln, April 21.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Cornhuskers leave tomorrow for a two weeks' base ball tour of the central states, during which time they will be pitted against ten of the strongest college aggregations in the west. The Cornhuskers have performed with decided credit so far this year, winning from all opponents except the Omaha Western league, with which team they split even, the victory achieved by the collegians going to their credit by the one-sided score of 18 to 3. The Nebraskans have been playing high-class ball, the chief problem confronting Captain Townsend concerns the durability of his pitching staff, which is made up of Morse, Adams and Beltzer. The latter was Nebraska's mainstay last season, but this year he has not been in condition and seems to have lost much of his former effectiveness. Morse is the star of the trio and the bulk of the pitching probably will devolve upon him. Adams is only in fair trim, a fractured rib, sustained during practics two weeks ago, having put him on the hospital list, from which he only recently emerged. The rest of the team has been playing high-class ball, batting flercely and playing a strong game in the field.

Rainy weather has prevented outdoor practice during the last week. The Omaha leaguers were booked for two more games with the Cornhuskers during the week, but the elements interfered and both teams were denied the practice which they so badly needed.

The lineup of the Cornhuskers on their trip will include the following players: Bender, catch; Morse, Adams and Beitzer, pitch; Townsend (captain), first base; Hammill, second: Steen, third; Williams, short; Fenlon, left; Cooke, middle; Miller, right and change catcher. The schedule follows: April 25—Identify college, at Decorah. April 25—Identify college, at Decorah. April 25—Identify college, at Decorah. April 25—Identify college, at Beloit, Wis. A physician should always be called It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this

HOUSE PASSES SEVERAL MEASURES Provides for the Establishment of Terms of United States Circuit and District Courts

in East St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, April 21.-Immediately upon convening today the house passed a bill amending the revised statutes relating to the manner of importing goods into the northwestern section of the United States so as to include the Puget sound district within the law pertaining to the size of vessels authorized to import goods. The following bills also were passed:

For the construction of a wagon, toll and electric railway bridge over the Missouri river at Lexington, Mo.
Ratifying and amending an agreement with the Indians of the Snoshone or Wind river reservation, Wyoming.
Establishing a regular term of the United States circuit and district courts in East St. Louis, III.

Providing for the resurvey of certain townships in Routt and Rio Blanco counties, Colorado, for the protection of the Buil Run forest reserve and the sources of the water supply of the city of Portland.

Authorizing the Oxbow Power company to construct a dam across the Missouri river in South Dakota. A resolution was agreed to requesting the president to renew negotiations with governments where discrimination is made against Jewish citizens of the United States with the view to securing equal freedom of travel and sojourn with all other citizens. The bill to provide for a temporary zone at Panama and for the protection of the anal works then was taken up. The substitute for the Kittredge bill was onsidered. Messrs, Adamson (Ga.), Stevens the committee on interstate and foreign substitute, urged its passage, contending that it was word for word similar to what Jefferson had suggested and approved for the government of the territory of Louis-

The bill was vigorously opposed by Mr. despotism run mad, because it gave the president authority greater than any sovereign in the world. He sarcastically remarked that members ought to be grateful that the president had consented to consuit the house instead of legislating from the White House, as he is accustomed to

He though that on the eve of a presidential election "this autocratic power" would throw open to him 600 or 700 offices. Mr. Hepburn (Ia.), chairman of the committee, explained that in the absence of definite knowledge of the conditions existing in the Panama zone, the committee resorted to the great precedent of Thomas Jefferson. He got into a spirited colloquy with Mr. Gaines (Tenn.), who asserted that there already were statutes affecting the government of the canal zone, but that the president had ridden over them rough shod. "I doubt if it is the idea of the best standards of citizenship," tartly replied Mr. Hepburn, "that a man shall stand as a brawler constantly against the chief executive of the nation." The house got into a wrangle over a his title to his seat. The opponents of the but win sympathy from an aud was not proper, and the resolution was voted down, 84 to 124.

House Bill Increases Size of Homestead Entries in Nebraska. WASHINGTON, April 21.-The pension appropriation bill, carrying an appropriation of over $137,000,000, and the emergency river and harbor appropriation bill, which carries $3,000,000, were passed today by the senate, leaving only the general deficiency and the military academy bills of the entire list of supply measures still to be considered. The house bill increasing the size of homestead entries in western Nebraska to 640 acres also received favorable consideration. While the river and harbor measure was under consideration Mr. Gorman very sharply criticized the failure to bring in a general river and harbor bill.

Speeches were made on the pension measure by Messrs. McCumber and Scott, the latter declaring that he favored a service pension of $25 per month. The following bills were passed:

Authorizing the construction of a bridge over the Missouri river at Lexington, Mo. Amending the act granting a charter to the general federation of woman's clubs so as to give the organization the privilege of holding biennial meetings outside of Washington At 2 o'clock, under the rules, the pension appropriation bill came before the senate. That measure, however, was temporarily laid aside to permit the passage of the following bills: Amending the mineral law relative to the location of lode claims. Establishing a supreme court for the Indian Territory.

Carmen Matt Goodman George Shields P. J. McCarthy James McIntyre Mabel Campbell Matel Klar Mary Carrington Rose Cecilla Shay There is such a beautiful lawless disre gard of all of the seventeen sacred things in the naughtiness of Carmen-the disregardful abandon which we commonplace law-tamed mortals in certain moments envy so-that we all admire the capable wanton and secretly wish her luck. And Don Jose will keep a-hanging around, and in the last act gets his largest friendship from the audience for holding the cold steel so well He should have sung "Back to the Woods" early, when Carmen and the audience were tired of him-and have gone. Carmen is like some of the good little books in the Sunday school library-we all love the bad

Rose Cecilia Shay makes a bad-that is, a good Carmen. She is wantonly wicked right up to the limit, and sings the respectable gentlemen of Seville out of all remembrance of public opinion. She had not gained complete control of her voice last night, but the hoarseness was only noticeable at intervals, and when it permitted, the audience were much pleased with the quality of her contralto. Her song, "When Love Unfolds His Wings Above You," gained hearty applause, and her singing throughout, barring an occasional hoarse note, was very pleasing. James Stevens as Escamillo, the toreador, sang well again, although he might perhaps have thrown a little more abandon into the lilting song of the toreador. The chorus and ensemble in this song, however, were excellent. The chorus has more to (Minn.) and Richardson (Ala.), members of do than in some of the operas and sang well, the eigarette song to the smoke in commerce, which unanimously reported the the first act being specially good. A hearing of Biget's score with its smashing climaxes makes the auditor regret that the musician's early death cut us off, from more of this brand of music. Tonight "I Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" are to be given, Saturday matinee "Car-Harrison (N. Y.), who characterized it as men" and the final performance, "Bo-

> "Georgia Camp Meeting" at the Krug. An organization of colored vocalists is giving an entertainment of music and negro foolery at the Krug for the latter half of the week under the name of "Georgia Camp Meeting." Among the numbers on the program are several songs and choruses that have been made familiar by other singers and some old-time plantation ditties and negro hymns. Several of the company possess musical voices of some training and the choruses, while light in volume, are pleasing in tone. The general aspect of the show is not such as warrants any suspicion that it will set the river on fire at its present stage. The company will be at the Krug until after Saturday night, with the usual Saturday

Amsteur Matinee at the Orpheum. The amateur show given after the regular bill at the Orpheum matinee Thursday commanded more serious consideration than any that has been presented, three esolution to pay Mr. Slemp (rep., Va.) out of the four acts being of such merit as $1,500 on account of expenses incurred by to escape a thought of ridicule, each being him in defending before the Virginia courts given by children who could scarcely help resolution contended that as no contest had Misses McCane and Osterlitz, of about 8 been argued in the house the appropriation in years, danced prettly. Minnie Weber, of but about two years farther along in life, played the violin commendably. Singing, dancing and cornet playing by the two Becker children showed them to be SENATE PASSES PENSION MEASURE talented and versatile. The one turn to arouse the risibles was furnished by a little colored boy, Walter Broomfield. A discordant orchestra accompaniment exploded the aspirant's equanimity, which brought forth storms of laughter from the audience, but the lad succeeded admirably in turning the joke on Huster and his bunch, for he came up like a winner and let them play to suit themselves down in their own little yard while he reeled off the steps apparently unconscious of their existence. The Nickel Plate Road. Will sell tickets to Cleveland, O., and re-

Arrest Healy for Grand Larceny. Arrest Healy for Grand Larceny.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Captain John J.
Healy was arrested in this city today upon information from New York charging him with grand larceny. Healy was one of the organizers of the North American Trading and Transportation company and is widely known. Captain J. J. Langan of the New York detective bureau is the complainant against Healy. Captain Healy was formerly president of the Alaska Exploration company. According to J. Hamilton Lewis, counsel for Healy, the arrest is the outcome of a contest among the directors of the company.
