GERMANS BECOME EXCITED

Do No. Like Rumor of England and France Settling Eastern War.

KAISER SETS THAT TASK FOR HIMSELF
Doubt is Expressed of Truth of the Story, but Even the Suggestion of Being Left Out is Distasteful.

BERLIN, April 23.—(New York Herald Cablegram—Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The publication here of the article of the Novosti, suggesting the possibility of the mediation of England to end the war, caused an immense sensation.

From Tokio come dispatches that a peace party has already made its appearance on Japanese soil. All this furnished food for reflection in Berlin, but in spite of the apparent seriousness of the news the possibility of anything being done at this juncture is not credited.

HAS A SAY
The School Principal Talks About Food.

The Principal of a High School in a flourishing California city says:
"For 23 years I worked in the school with only summer vacations. I formed the habit of eating rapidly, masticated poorly, which, coupled with my sedentary work, led to indigestion, liver trouble, lame back and rheumatism.

"Upon consulting physicians some doped me with drugs while others prescribed, and sometimes I got temporary relief, other times not. For 12 years I struggled along with this handicap to my work, seldom laid up, but often a burden to myself, with lameness and rheumatic pains.
