ALLEN BROS. IN NEW HOME Wholesale Grocers Are Permanently Established and Have Put in Some Inhovations.

Allen Bros., wholesale grocers, have finished moving into their new building at largely done some time ago and possession was given March 15. The firm still has in and some storage and other space. This will be used until the new building is put up to the east of the present establishment, The new part of the house will be de voted to space for coffee roasting, the man ufacture of baking powder and to a pack ing department for bottled goods.

Since the grocery firm took possession of the Kingman building it has made some alterations in the place, which makes it, in the estimation of Allen Bros., one of the best grocery houses in the west. They have trebled the office capacity and built new stairs. The most interesting improvement, however, is the chute through which goods will be sent down to the shipping platform. This is a heavy metal tube, six feet across, which runs from the Dwer floor to the top. It is being fitted with a spiral incline like a winding stair. Doors on each floor will connect with the chute, so that goods may be loaded from the upper floors to any floor below, and also ent down from any floor to the bottom. A system of bell signals will control the tube and all the packages for one destination o one railway will be sent sliding down at one time and billed and loaded within a few minutes. These shipping chutes are an innovation and have been introduced in Sciation Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey of 3323 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pair and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Baim. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. Mr. Massey relates his experience for the benefit of others who may be similiarly afflicted. MATTER LEFT TO DECREE OF COUNCIL

City Electrician Intimates Course is Merely One Way of Evading Action in Order to Legalize Present Status.

President Nash of the Omaha Electric Light and Power company, in regard to the fight between the corporation and City Electrician Michaelson as to iron lamp poles in the conduit district, called upon getting the proposed action in the police court postponed indefinitely.

"We are willing to put in fron poles if the council wants them," President Nash told the city attorney. "We have the poles cently made by his counsel for a new trial and will put them in if the council expresses a desire to have them. The overhead suspension plan gives better light, and we don't wish to oppose the council. After Mr. Nash had agreed to take the matter up with the council the city attorney agreed he would not file complaint of violation of the ordinance in the police

Already Before the Council. The matter already has been before the ouncil and was argued at length by the electrician and representatives of the light company several weeks ago. At that time a resolution prepared by the electrician commanding the lighting company to remove wooden poles and substitute iron was placed on file. This was taken to mean the council desired to preserve no more than a neutral attitude. The city electrician then undertook to wage the fight, with the assistance of the legal department.

It is said the street railway company is going to be drawn into the fight and the two corporations may be pitted against each other, as they have been in the past The electric light people allege the street railway company is selling current for light and power downtown, with nothing but overhead wiring. They claim this is a discrimination against them and that these wires are just as dangerous as those carrying the 8,000 voltage to the arc lamps.

City Electrician Michaelson is displeased with the turn the fight has taken, and intimates it means merely procrastination and delay and an attempt to have the council make lawful an illegal act.

LEVIN IN TROUBLE Former Omaha Resident is Charged with Passing Worthless Check for Forty Dollars, Upon his return to Omaha J. N. Levin of Minneapolis, Minn., has been arrested by term there until November. Detectives Donohue and Heitfeld and the charge of obtaining money under false pre police station.

It is said Levin cashed a $40 check at the house of Bell Bartlett, Thirteenth and Davenport streets, April 5. The check was made on a Minneapolis bank and Levin's name signed to the check. The check was returned marked "no funds."

Levin was arrested about two months ago on the charge of forgery, it being alleged in Nickel Plate dining cars on American that while he was connected with the advertising department of the Omaha Daily News he forged the name of Mel Uhl to $600 check and endeavored to pass the same at the Boston store bank. At the time it was claimed he telephoned the bank saying he was Mr. Uhl and asked if he could have $600 with which to pay the employes. Levin was not prosecuted on the forgery charge.

MAY DAY PARTY FOR MONEY Unique Plan Adopted to Afford Pleas ure and Profit for Saving Institute.

Unique and catchy invitations have been issued by the nursery committee of the Child Saving institute for a May party to be given on the afternoon and evening of May 6. A dainty little silk sack is enclosed in each invitation and its presence explained by the following "touching" rhyme:

This May day party is given for you.

This something novel, 'tis something nev
We send you each a little sack;
Please either send or bring it back

Powdered Wigs Formed an Important Adjunct to a Gentleman's Apparel.

It is safe to say that the majority of bald men of today would gladly revive the old, dignified custom if they could. But, they can do the next best thing to it; that is, hold on to what hair they have. In cases where the hair root or hair bulb has not been completely destroyed by parasites that infest it, Newbro's Herpicide will do wonders in the way of encouraging a new growth of hair. > ATTEMPTS TO KILL HER CHILD Defeated in This Insane Woman Tries to Take Her Own Life.

While in an insane condition brought on by sickness, Mrs. Paul C. Jensen of 2933 Spaulding street, tried to murder her 9year-old daughter with a case knife early Saturday morning. On being prevented from doing this by her husband, she tried to sever an artery on her wrist. Here again she was unsuccessful.

Mrs. Jensen was observed to be violently insane Saturday morning at 4 o'clock, and City Attorney Wright and succeeded in at 6 o'clock got out of bed and tried to kill her daughter. Her husband, who had noticed her getting out of bed, followed her quickly and grabbed the child away from her before she could accomplish her purpose. Still retaining the knife Mrs. Jensen attempted to take her own life by hacking at an artery on her left wrist Hastily putting the child down, Mr. Jensen got the knife away from the woman and after a struggle managed to get her back to bed. At noon Saturday she again' began hacking at her wrist and succeeded in slightly cutting herself before the knife was taken away from her. Dr. A. A. Peters attended the woman, She was allowed to remain at her home last night and was watched by two women of her lodge and her husband. If there are any more attempts by her to take her life her relations say they will send her to a

> MAY NOT REACH COLBY CASE Federal Court to Open Next Week Possibly Will Not Try Former Adjutant General.

Among the cases set for trial at the May term of the United States district court, to convene in Omaha in one week, is that of the United States against former Adjutant General L. W. Colby, who was indicted at the last session of the federal grand jury for alleged misappropriation of government funds, while he held the position of adjutant general of Nebraska.

There is a bare possibility that the Colby ease may not be heard until late during the term, if at all during the May term. This is owing to the fact that an investigation of the records of the adjutant general's office is now being made, having been delayed because of the illness of the expert accountant employed on the work.
