Three boats which floated free from the wreckage were the means of saving fortyfive soldiers and nine of the Kinshiu Maru's passengers and crew.

Two captains and three lieutenants were among the soldiers drowned. The survivors succeeded in getting ashore and were conveyed by steamer to Gensan today.

Later reports' received here from Gensan concerning the sinking of the Kinshiu Maru by the Russian cruiser Rossia indicate that the soldiers who killed themselves as the vessel went down, or were drowned, refused to surrender to the Pussians, choosing death in preference. One noncommissioned officer committed "harikari" according to ancient custom, while the other men used rifles with which to put an end to their lives. Official reports agree in placing the number of casualties at seventy-three. It is not known here how many men the Russians took from the transport, or rescued after it was sinking. St. Petersburg Elated Over News. ST. PETERSBURG, April 19-3 p. m. The detail of Rear Admiral Yeszen's raid show that it was entirely successful. The admiral safely brought back his ships to Viadivostok, after inflicting material and moral damage on the enemy.

The cruise was most daring. The enemy's squadron was known to be in proximity, which necessitated the prompt sinking of the transport Kinshiu Maru. The conduct of the sinking of the Japanese transport of the 130 troops remaining on the Kinshiu Kinshiu Maru, which was torpedoed by the Maru, refusing to surrender and firing upon the Russians even while the transport was

WEATHER RETARDS STRUCTURAL WORK

Although Floods and Storms Have Interrupted Traffic Earnings for April Compare Favorably with Last Year.

NEW YORK, April 25 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will

Business continues to move in most conservative channels, purchases being restricted to immediate requirements and weather conditions dominating the situation to an unusual extent. At many points there has been little spring trade and the transition from winter to summer will be accomplished with scarcely any intermediate season. Considering this adverse factor, the current volume of business is remarkably satisfactory. Building operations are also deferred to a late date. Much structural work is projected, however, and at some favored points last year's record promises to be surpassed. As a rule manufacturing plants are not working at full capacity, idle machinery being most extensive in textile industries. Floods and storms have interrupted traffic yet railway earnings thus far reported for April are only 5.5 per cent smaller than last year.

Iron and steel conditions are still devoid of any definite change. In several departments the week has brought slightly increased activity, notably in merchant steel, pipe and structural shapes, but in many branches there is hesitation. Wire mills have maintained activity, but some tin plate works are interrupted by wage disputes. Contracts for Pennsylvania rall-road tunnel castings are being sought at very low prices and this business will soon be placed, while a fair volume of export trade is also approaching consummation. Fuel markets send conflicting reports, anthracite coal being freely sought to take advantage of the spring discounts, but soft coal and coke are abundant and cheap, because of idleness at many factories.

Conditions are less satisfactory in the cheap, because of idleness at many factories.

Conditions are less satisfactory in the dry goods trade than at any previous time this season. Distribution at retail is restricted by the weather, and there are no compensating factors. In men's wear, woolens and worsted goods it is estimated by some that about 70 per cent of the mills are now idle. Carpets are now dull and some cancellations are reported.

Activity and strength is reported in the western hide markets, sales of over 109,000 being reported on Thursday, when the leading interest resumed purchasing. Trading inforeign dry hides is only limited by arrivals, as demand is good at full values. Forwarding of footwear from Boston continues to fall about an average of 10,000 cases a week behind last year's movement. Bad weather is the paramount figure in maintaining quiet conditions in boots and shoes.

No general buying by the railroads is reported but numerous smail orders of rails for western roads have been worked and some large sales to eastern roads are under consideration. Export trade is enlargenge to the featively unimportant, though the tendency as a whole has been slightly downward. Cotton has been depressed by poor trade reports, and print cloths have further weakened, without, however, encouraging much new business. Curtailment is still a subject of discussion in manufacturing branches of the trade. Shoe manufacturing appears rather depressed. RUSSIA WILL MODIFY LAWS

Largely Responsible for Jewish Social and Economic Disorders. BERLIN, April 29.-The Tageblatt today announced from an excellent Russian source that the Russian government is about to moderate the anti-Jewish legislation. Minister of the Interior Von Plehwe last autumn sent a circular to the provincial authorities inquiring about the situation and the causes of distress and dissatisfaction of the Jewish population. The provincial authorities, with surprising unanimity, blamed the antiquated laws for the social and economic disorders which involved the whole country and a commission will be appointed later to consider milder legislation and especially to improve the situation of the Jewish proletariat. The greatest change, it is added, is likely to be a relaxation of the restriction on residence. It is not expected in any quarter that the revision will result

DEATH RECORD.

Minerva A. Fuller.

Mrs. Minerva A. Fuller died at her home in this city last Tuesday morning, aged 76 years. She was one of the first of the women from the east to go to California in the early gold-digging days, and many were the interesting stories that she could tell from her own experiences during the journey overland. She settled at Culloma, Cal., where gold was first discovered, and became the first school teacher in the The shanty erected for a school house had neither doors nor windows, simply openings covered by blankets. She became the wife of John A. Fuller, a gold seeker from Massachusetts. They later returned to Massachusetts where Mr. Ful-ler was engaged in manufacturing until his death which occurred about twenty in trouble, it refuses to work, and you years ago. Thereupon Mrs. Fuller came o Omaha where she has since lived with her children, who survive her. They are John A. Fuller, Mrs. John C. Howard and Mrs. J. M. Richards. The cause of her death was pneumonia, the result of grip. Mrs. David Neligh.

WEST POINT, Neb., April 29.-(Special.) -Mrs. David Neligh, aged 72, wife of a pioneer settler of West Point, died very suddenly at the family residence in this city yesterday. She partook of dinner and sitting on a rocking chair immediately after the meal she suddenly expired. She came to this place in 1858, with her husband, who homesteaded what is now the southern portion of the city of West Point. She leaves a large family of grown children and her aged husband. The deceased was born in Lehigh county, Pennsylvania. She was a woman of very great force of character and was highly esteemed in the ommunity.

Funeral of Harry Beale. OBCEOLA, Neb., April 22.—(Special.)—All that was mortal of Harry Beal was brought here from Omaha yesterday and laid to rest by the side of other relatives in Osceola cemetery. This young man was but $7 years of age and was in the railway mail service, running out from Omaha. He, with his parents, were former residents of this county, near Shelby. Rev. J. W. Embree, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the grave. The cause of Mr. Beal's death was diphtheria.
