HENDERSON ALSO GENEROUS WITH PASSES

Four Home Runs, Two of Them Credited to Each of the Teams-Hits of Omaha Not So Opportune as Those of Denver.

DENVER, April 26 .- (Special Telegram.) -The Denver Cubs took the third game of the series from Omaha today by the score of 12 to 8, in a slugging match in which the visitors outbatted the locals, repelving fourteen clean hits to thirteen for the Cubs. There were four home runs' made during the progress of the game, both teams sharing evenly in these. Welch and Howard for the Invaders are credite with a clear circle each, while Braun and Smith brought one home run each in fo the locals. Omaha lost the game throug the wildness of Henderson, who we touched up generously by the locals untithe sixth inning, when Shafstall came t the rubber and put a stop to the onslaugh by the Cubs. Kenna, too, was hit hard b the Omaha men, but they were of the son tered veriety and were nipped by the good fielding of the local men. Henderson wi accorded rather ragged support during the

COLLEGIANS BEAT THE AL Lively Game on Creighton Field Won

The once or twice postponed game between the Creighton university bail team of the present day and the has-beens of the same institution was pulled off on Creighton field yesterday afternoon and resulted in showing that the heyday of the graduates has unmistakably passed, when it comes to putting up the quality of base ball that is required in these troublesome times. O'Houlan, the pitcher selected to do things for the old boys, got his quietus in the fifth inning and Primo, who took his place, proved to be not so much for the college boys. But they all had lots of fun and that was what the game was played for. The score: shy the Youngsters.
