HEARST CAPTURES CASS COUNTY Bitter Fight Ends in Complete Victory for New Yorker.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 30.—(Special Telegram.)—The democratic county convention which met in this city today was one of the warmest in spirit held for some time.

The Cass county Democrat, the only democratic paper in the county, assisted by L. L. Delano, the only democrat who was ever elected to the state legislature from this county...

Delegates to the state convention were named as follows: John Goodspeed, Washington Elder, John Baker, Henry Gillett and L. L. Delano of Atlantic, William Gerlach, S. H. Lamborn of Griswold, and Ed. Cate of Anita.

Mr. Delano has agreed to pocket his opinions and go to the state convention to stand by Gerlach and Hearst in order to have harmony.

ONAWA, Ia., April 30.—(Special Telegram.)—The democratic county convention met at the courthouse this afternoon. W. H. Wonder of Onawa was chosen chairman and C. E. Campbell of Morehead, secretary.

HEARST MEN CARRY BIG COUNTIES Claim to Have a Majority of the Instructed Delegates.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—(Special Telegram.)—In republican caucus counties today the standpatners had everything their own way and selected delegates instructed for Dr. Hooster and Judge Henderson, respectively, for delegates to the Chicago convention.

About twenty democratic county conventions were held today and returns received here indicate that the Hearst men had the best of it. They carried Scott county, but a rump convention was held and a contest will be on hand.
