Mamle Worth quit at the five-eighths pole. Something seemed to discourage High-ball just before the turn was reached and he backed up as if done. He was clear at the time and no reason for his faltering was apparent, especially in view of the fact that he came on again strongly in the stretch.

Coming around the turn Irish Lad held his lead, but the others began to draw nearer as they straightened out for home. Irish Lad seemed to slow up as if to encourage his competitors, but Shaw was taking no chances.
