FIELD CLUB FORMALLY OPENS FOR SEASON

The Social Calendar.

MONDAY—May party of Tom Moore club. Mrs. Scriber entertains. TUESDAY—Miss Ethel Andrews, a luncheon. WEDNESDAY—Mrs. Charles Kountze entertains the Country Club. THURSDAY—Mrs. and Mr. Scriber entertain the Harmony club.

One of Omaha's daughters, a member of the season's debutants set who has spent the past month or so in another land than her own and received the homage of many, writes home that notwithstanding all that has been done in her honor the foreigners are not to be compared with the American matrons and this is not her first visit to a foreign land, either.

With the opening of the field club yesterday afternoon the summer season was finally launched—the summer season and summer affairs, and from now until late in the fall society, such of its members as are in town, will confine its operations to this resort and the Country club. Of course that is but generally speaking, for there are always those people and those functions that are better suited to the house than to the club, besides the many affairs of those who happen to be identified with neither of these organizations. But for those who make up the pleasure loving, pleasure giving set commonly referred to as "society," the clubs will be the rendezvous. In spite of the dark afternoon there were interested spectators, and plenty of them, too, at the various matches of the afternoon, and for more than an hour before dinner the veranda was filled with chatting, laughing members and their guests. The dance in the evening was preceded by several dinner parties and the table d'hôte dinner was generally patronized.

Out at the Country club there was the usual Saturday gathering, though some of the faithful deserted for the occasion to participate in the opening and its attendant pleasures at the Field club. The dinner parties were neither numerous nor large, those entertaining being Mr. and Mrs. C. Allison, who had four guests; Mr. Fred Hamilton, seven guests, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Poppleton, two guests. The Wednesday tournament promises to be a very interesting feature this summer that will afford a mid-week assembly almost equal to that of Saturday.

There was but little last week to enliven society. As one woman put it, "one literally has no place to go or no place to stay—everybody is cleaning house." This week promises little more, but, then, the gay season is over and every one seems to feel that her duty has been done so far as entertaining is concerned, and society will have to be content with such as the clubs afford and such affairs as can be managed in houses dismantled for the summer.

Lowe, will be solemnized Wednesday afternoon at half after 4 o'clock, at the Garner home, 339 California street. The wedding is to be a very quiet affair, the guests to be limited only to the members of the families. Mr. Lowe is now engaged in the lumber business at Lexington, Neb.

A pretty home wedding took place Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hommel, 342 Chicago street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Almeria Hommel, was given in marriage to William H. Quilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Quilley of this city, the Rev. C. Clyde Cissell, pastor of Hanson Park Methodist church, officiating. The parlors were artistically decorated in green and white for the occasion. Mrs. Nettie E. Moore played the wedding march from Leberghin and Miss Grace Hommel, sister of the bride, and Miss Louise Bennett, daughter of W. R. Bennett, acted as ring bearers. The bride was tastefully gowned in white. A delicate collation was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Quilley will be at home to their friends after May 21 at 208 South Twenty-fourth avenue.

TELEPHONE REVEALS TROUBLE

New York Police Called Out by Accident in Central Office.

(Copyright by New York Herald Co., 1904.) NEW YORK, May 7.—(New York Herald Service—Special to The Bee.)—In a perfunctory manner Sergeant Dominick Henry at police headquarters took down the receiver as the telephone at his elbow rang.

He put the instrument to his ear in a singular manner. In a moment he was startled out of his official calm and was straining every nerve to catch the startling words that came over the wire.

"Help! Murder! Stop choking me! Help!" The cries sounded sharply above the unintelligible rattle of other voices. It was like the buzz of a phonograph.

In a moment the sergeant realized that by some trick of the wires he was overhearing what might be a tragedy. "What's the matter?" he almost shouted over the telephone. There was no reply, but the cries continued, growing fainter and then there was silence.

The sergeant at once called the central exchange and learned that the police telephone had been connected by mistake with 121 West Fifty-sixth street. He called the West Forty-ninth street station and made a hurried statement of his experience. Detectives Ray, Hartineau and Heaney and four patrolmen jumped into a patrol wagon and the horses were whirled into a run.

When the wagon reached the Fifty-sixth street house sounds of a heated argument were heard on the first floor. The policemen entered and arrested two men and two women, who described themselves as John Parker, Mary Frauley and John and Annie Parker, each 41 years old. None of the four were intoxicated, but they were charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct. In-court they were fined $10 each.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY.

The musical department of the Woman's club held its final meeting and election Friday morning. Mrs. Samuel Katz being elected leader, to succeed Miss Corinne Paulsen, who declined to serve again.

Mrs. W. W. Noble, first assistant; Mrs. C. W. Noble, second assistant, and Miss Helen Mackin, secretary and treasurer. A vote of thanks was extended to the professional talent of the city that has so generously contributed to the department programs during the year; also a vote of thanks to Miss Paulsen for her effort and enthusiasm that have aided so materially in building up the department during the past two years. There are now enrolled fifty active members and twenty-two associate members, the average attendance at programs for the year being 100. Sixteen public recitals have been given by the department this year.

The Omaha Woman's club will hold its annual election of officers tomorrow afternoon and the entire occasion will be devoted to business. It is doubtful if there has ever before been a keener interest or more real anxiety as to the outcome than has been felt during the past few weeks by those having the interest of the club at heart. The increasing responsibility attaching to the first office has deterred several women, especially well fitted for it, from accepting a nomination and so far as the general club is concerned there is no particular candidate for this reason. Four of the seven members of the executive committee are eligible to re-election, but it is understood that some of these will decline to serve again.

Almost all of the class work of the Young Women's Christian association closes for the summer this week. The Bible classes will be continued through June. Thirty-five new members and thirty renewals have been added to the association membership during the past month.

The English literature department of the Woman's club will hold its last meeting of the spring Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. "Adam Bede" will be the subject of the afternoon, and the lesson will be followed by a business session, at which officers for the coming year will be elected.

Secretaries of Federated clubs of Nebraska are requested to send names of officers of their clubs for '04 and '05 to the state corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. W. Miller, 278 Webster street, Omaha. Attention is called to Mrs. Miller's change of address from Lincoln to Omaha.

Mrs. M. E. Patterson of Omaha, superintendent of the franchise department of the Nebraska Women's Christian Temperance union, has sent out a letter to the unions of the state urging the best of farmer's wives while they are in town. At a recent entertainment the union cleared nearly $30, which will be devoted to this work.

Mrs. May Wright Sewall, president of the International Council of Women, has given the following outline of the program of the quinquennial, to be held in Berlin, Germany, June 4 to 13:

The German committee is endeavoring to secure permission to hold the meeting in the building, while it is expected that its public meeting on peace and arbitration will be held in the Club of Nations. The hostesses will be the Palais hotel. The hospitality committee, Frau Dubitz chairman, will aid visitors who wish accommodations in other hotels or pensions.

The business sessions of the council are not open to the public, but all other meetings are free and open to all.

Day meetings of the congress will be held simultaneously June 12-15 by each of the four sections into which the congress is divided. Twenty-four sessions in all.

An official reception will be given to the council by the German committee on the evening of June 8, and on June 10, the congress by the German committee of arrangements. Other social functions are in progress.

As near as it can be estimated about 150 women will go from the United States, a large number of whom will sail on Friedlander's Grosser, Saturday, May 15.

June 4—Meeting of committee of arrangements. June 5 (morning)—Meeting of standing and special committees: (a) Press, chairman, Mrs. Emily Cummings of Toronto, Can.; (b) Peace, chairman, Mrs. J. H. Cannon, Wash., D. C.; (c) Legal, chairman, Mrs. Oiga von Baschwitz, Berlin; (d) Finance, chairman, Mrs. Dignam of Toronto, Can.; (e) International, acting chairman, Mrs. Wright Sewall.

Afternoon—Meeting of executive committee to receive reports of committees: (a) Affiliate new councils; (b) Elect new patrons; (c) Present unfinished business. June 5, 6, 7—Sessions of the executive, morning and afternoon. At these will be considered resolutions on the situation and the consideration of the propositions to add to the program these subjects: (a) "Abolition of White Slave Traffic"; (b) "Political Equality for Women." This latter proposition will stand on the agenda as follows:

"Inasmuch as all governments equally affect the men and women of the world, and therefore be resolved that under all governments, whether nominally republican or monarchical, whether political rights or privileges are accorded to men, or to corresponding conditions, to be accorded to women."

PUBLIC EVENING SESSIONS. June 8—Greetings, responses. Address by international president. June 9—Six-minute speeches by the "speaking representatives" of each of the eight nationalities. June 10—Peace and Arbitration. Addresses by Lady Aberdeen (in English), Miss Segot (in French), Baroness Bertha von Suttner (in German).

PROGRAM OF CONGRESS. June 13—"Present Status of the Woman Movement in All Organized Lines." June 14—"Women's Work." June 15—"Relation of the Woman's Movement to Political Parties and Religious Sects." June 17—"Woman's Suffrage." June 18—"The Underlying Principle and the Aims of the Woman's Movement."

NORFOLK, Neb., May 7.—(Special.)—After one of the most successful meetings which the Federation of Woman's Clubs of the Third congressional district has ever known, the 100 delegates and visitors who came from every corner of the territory included, are leaving the city. The meetings were held at the First Congregational church and were presided over by Mrs. J. Darland of this city, Mrs. Stutenborough of Plattsmouth, secretary for Nebraska of the General Federation, was present and delivered an address which was eminently able. Mrs. T. F. Memminger of Madison also read a paper on "Lobbying to the Schools," which received much favorable comment.

Card of Thanks. I wish to thank the kind neighbors and friends for their kindness shown me during the sickness and death of our beloved son and brother, also for the beautiful flowers.

WHAT HAPPENED TO BIG TEN

In Bee's First Contest of the New Series for Ten Exposition Trips.

DARK HORSES TRAMPLE FIVE UNDER FOOT

Cold Storage Freezes Out One, Leaving Only Four in the Triumphal Group—Fifteen Dark Horses Enter.

The first contest of the new series in which The Bee is giving ten trips to the St. Louis exposition, this week for ten weeks has ended with far more vim than the daily scores would have indicated, and not a few of those who watched its progress will be surprised at the result. That the light frolic was only simulated is clearly shown both by the heavy increase in the final vote and the entrance of fifteen dark horses at the finish. Fortunately for a few of the candidates, the majority of the equines were short-winded, leaving a few of the prizes to the big ten, who saved four out of the ten prize-trips.

The vote at the close was: Curtis Leland, Omaha, 5,639; T. K. Bunde, Omaha, 5,111; Alice Marie Smith, Omaha, 4,796; Thad J. Wrenn, Omaha, 4,540; Grace Sheeley, Omaha, 4,414; Roy Miner, Omaha, 3,570; W. O. Cave, Omaha, 3,121; Walter Leomin, Omaha, 2,938; F. M. MARK HANNA MEMORIAL TREE

Senator Dick and Secretary Dover Perform Services Intended for Deceased Statesman.

(Copyright by New York Herald Co., 1904.) WASHINGTON, May 7.—(New York Herald Service—Special to The Bee.)—A novel memorial to the late Senator Hanna now stands in the United States Botanical gardens in this city. It is a little Japanese tree which was planted this week by Senator Charles Dick and Elmer Dover, secretary of the republican national committee and private secretary to the late senator.

The arrangements for the interesting event were made by Superintendent Smith of the botanical gardens. It had been Senator Hanna's intention to plant the tree himself this spring and the ceremony would have taken place with him as the leading figure about this time had not death intervened. The botanical gardens contain a large number of rare trees dedicated to the memory of or named after conspicuous public men.
