Base Ball, Tennis, Bowling and Other Sports Have Their Devotees-Wind Up with Informal Dance in Evening.

It would be hard to imagine a prettier or Allen Thomas more animated scene than that presented W. H. Brown by the Omaha Field club house and Fetters Buckingham sion of the formal opening. The bright green carpet of the field, stretching away in graceful undulations numerously dotted with the bright colored garments and gowns of the players and spectators, the grandstand, banked with eager and excited faces, the dun brown of the base bull diamond and tennis courts and the Scribner picturesque house itself all combined to make up a whole that was quite near the ideal. A better day could not well have been had for the carrying out of the program of sports and they were entered into with a seal and enjoyment that were in keeping with the surroundings. The most interest was attached to the golf tournament, in which there were no less than sixty-seven entries. It was played on the new eighteen-hole course and two of the five prizes effered for the best net and best gross score were carried off by B. versity of Nebraska.

Fresh from its victorious tour of the middle states, the University of Nebraska team yesterday afternoon defeated Creighton on the latter's grounds by a score of 12 to 6. Creighton played a hard and interesting game, but was thable to cope with the Cornhuskers, who have been beating such teams as Knox college, University of Minnesota and Notre Dame, which it has never before defeated.

Morse had the Jesuits at his mercy, and allowed only two hits, and none until the Eighth, when Prendergast found the ball for a single. Lannigan was the other Creighton man whose stock connected with the ball, and Eddie Creighton succeeded in getting a base on balls. Lannigan especially distinguished himself by getting as far as second base in the ninth inning.

McCornick was easy for the collegians, and had indifferent support. Bender made the longest hit of the season over the middle field fence, and caught a difficult foul fly. Cook, in middle field, played a star game, making sensational catches and spolling several long hits. Nebraske's error column was a blank, and this, with Morse's faultless pitching, tells the story.

Only a small crowd saw the game. The score:
