

DES MOINES HAS WALKAWAY

Undertakers Take Third Game from Pa with Hands Down.

MAKE SEVEN WHILE OMAHA GETS ONE

George Clark, One of Omaha's Young Catchers, Works for Des Moines and is a Star of the Game.

No, it wasn't so nice as it has been for three or four games, but it wouldn't have been ladlike for Pa's boys to have sent Des Moines away without winning a game. They won yesterday's emphatically enough to hold them for a while and will go on their way after they are beaten this afternoon, thankful that it was no worse.

The defeat of the home team is explained by the fact of thirteen hits being made by Liebhart for a total of eighteen bases. In other words, he was pounded all over the lot, when and where the Des Moines players chose. Several errors and exhibitions of poor judgment in both coaching and playing were responsible for the rubbing-in part. Dolan was again the star player of the home aggregation, covered all kinds of posture and offered at everything that came his way. The error that it was necessary to score to him he doubtless would not have made had Shipke kept out of his way. Shipke's game was again of the extra order as it was Sunday. Umpire Kneefe also had his wires somewhat crossed, but roared both sides about alike, so that Omaha cannot shift much blame to his shoulders.

Of the visitors put up a better, snappier game than did George Clark behind the home plate. Clark is the stepson of Robert Gilder, news editor of the World-Herald, and got his base ball training with the originals of this city. He made three hits, with a total of four bases in the four times he came to bat, and caught an errorless game besides.

The visitors made their first little dose of three runs in the second inning, when a two-bagger by George Clark, a three-base hit by Shugart and being hit by a pitched ball for Tholl did the business. In the fifth they made two more on three well placed singles and three equally well placed errors by Shipke, Fresno and Carter, respectively. Then they rested until the ninth, and just to make it good swiped out two two-baggers and a single for two more runs, making a total of seven. The only time that Omaha ventured to peep was in the eighth, when singles by Fresno and Carter got Shipke over the slab. The score:

The Last Words of Mrs. Baxter

HEN Richard Baxter, noted in England in 1638, lost his wife he published a broadsheet headed: "The Last Words of Mrs. Baxter," which reached an immense sale. His printer seeing the profit in it brought out a broadsheet entitled: "More Last Words of Mrs. Baxter." To which Mr. Baxter replied that "Mrs. Baxter didn't say anything else." If Mrs. Baxter were living today she would, like us, have a lot of "last words" to say about
