West Point People Give the Brothers

a Good Name. WEST POINT, Neb., May 11.-(Special.) -The articles which have appeared during the last few days in the state press purporting to give a description of the Herring brothers' home in Keya Paha county and of their conduct and reputacontained so many exaggerations that the correction of the same is asked by the citizens of Cuming county and of West Point in particular.

The three Herring brothers, Harry, Frank and Elmer, are the sons of the former Mrs. Herring, who some years ago married D. J. Creilin, police judge of this city and a justice of the peace for many years. The boys were brought up on a farm in Cuming county, owned by their mother, between this city and Beemer, and were always noted for their good behavior and studious habits. Their ntegrity has never been questioned in this community. Their mother and stepfather have the esteem of everyone and are counted among our best people. Year as against a three days' session last AUBURN, May 11.-A regular monthly meeting of the Commercial club was held at the club room last evening. It was decided to hold a Fourth of July celebra-tion at Auburn this year and the club took charge of the matter. Necessary and proper committees were appointed. It is the intention of the club and of the citi-zens of Auburn to have the best program ever given at a celebration in Auburn. TECUMSEH. May 11.-Master Charles Campbell, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Campbell, broke his right arm here today. He was in the baymow endeavoring to unwind the wire from a bale of hay. The wire stuck under the bundle and he was tugging at it, standing in close prox-imity to the little door in which the hay is passed. The hold of the wire was sud-derily broken and he fell over backward, and of the doorway to the ground, fourteen feet below. A surgeon was prompily sum-moned and the broken arm given the re-quired attention.
