OMAHA DOES GREAT BIDDING

Local Jobbers Surpass the Country in Securing Contracts for Army Supplies.

Omaha has won out remarkably well in the contracts for Indian supplies. R. C. Jordan of the Indian supply depot returned Rogsevelt and Webster club at a large and from Chicago Thursday evening and is much elated at the showing made by local

"The contracts will not all be awarded the most active and prominent colored for some weeks," said Mr. Jordan, "for there were 600 bidders. When it is considered Omaha entered the field against the whole United States, I feel this city has done remarkably well. It has secured a large part of the contracts so far awarded. The commission first considers those things on which the price fluctuates and they are among the largest contracts. Armour & Co., for South Omaha, secured the contract for bacon and salt meats, the amount of which will be 350,000 pounds. McCord. Brady & Co. were awarded the contract for catmeal, amounting to 105,000 pounds. These two are for the entire supply of these articles. As has been announced, Paxton & Gallagher secured a large portion of the sugar contract, but New York and San Francisco also were recognized. Wells, Abbott & Neiman of Schuyler drew the entire contract for cornmeal, in amount 140,000 pounds, and hominy, 35,000 pounds. In addition the flour, grain and fresh meat contracts have been let and Omaha and the state have secured a large part of them."

"Same Old Story," Says He When Shown Report of Removal to Chiengo.

A St. Louis paper recently revamped the story to the effect that the general passenger offices of the B. & M. in this city would be removed to Chicago, probably within the next two or three weeks, and that John Francis, general passenger agent of the line, would thereafter make his headquarters in the Windy City. The paper printed it as a fact, with no reservations. When shown the report Mr. Francis said:

"I have just returned from Chicago and It seems queer to me if there is any truth in the report that someone there would not have mentioned so important a move to me. I think it is the same report which has been going the rounds for some time."
