Spring Suits in the Smartest Fabrics VOILES BROADCLOTHS Panama Cloths VENETIANS MOHAIRS Fancy Suitings English Cloth:

Today we offer the ladies of Omaha the most important bargain ever presented in women's wearing apparel since this store was opened. We bought the entire surplus stock of one of the greatest and most fashionable of the New York manufacturers of ladies' tailored suits, at an amazing sacrifice—the manufacturer was left with a large stock of spring suits on hand-rather than risk the slightest charge in style that would affect such expensive garments for another season, he decided to sell instantly. We bought the entire lot and offer An exceptional chance to buy an elegant $30 tailored suit at $9.50.

> Every stylish suit in this great showing was manufactured for this season's swell trade. Every new fashion feature is embodied. All the newest cloths and colors are shown—the display is a rare style show in itself. Made in the new Eton, blouse and military styles, with the broad, graceful sloping shoulder effect—the new Colonial pleated skirts. The skirts are all beautifully trimmed and some have full silk drop linings. The suits come both in the latest dress and walking styles. Suits with nothing like the style of these have sold at double the price we ask. The newest and something if the head is crowned with sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The littie white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. British Expedition Advances in Ferce Against Natives of Thibet.

OPPOSITION IS GROWING STRONGER

Younghusband's Party Finds Defenses at Jong Extraordinary in Extent and Construction and Tries Finnk Movement.

NEW YORK, May 18.-British troops made a reconnaisance in force on Wednesday, says a dispatch from the Times correspondent at Gyang Tse, Thibet. The larger part of the expeditionary force, which has been halted before Jong for some days, was taken by Colonel Brander to flank the hills behind and to the east of the Thibetans' strongheld. The Jong monastery on the mountain side was visited, because it had harbored the enemy's horsemen two days ago, but was found to be inhabited by aged monks from Gompa, and, therefore, left unharmed. Ne opposition was offered by the Thibetans until the column had nearly reached the post, when a hot fire opened from Jong. The fire continued for nearly an hour and excellent practice was made. The elevation of Jong enabled the Thibetans to pour s plunging fire and adds greatly to the range of their weapons, which have been fairly accurate and effective since the Thibetans got the range of the mission post. The embardment was renewed late Thursday afternoon and kept up until dark. Earlier in the day a village about 1,50 yards to the east, from which our chief defenses could be enfiladed, was occupied and partially destroyed by the Thirty-sec and ploneers, but the British force was insufficient to hold both places. The Thibetans are reported to be ad vancing lines on the plain under the pro-

Reinforcements of small parties have been seen from time to time concentrating by the Shigatse and Lhassa roads, upon Gyang Tse and the new fortifications at Jong, which are extraordinary, both in ex tent and excellence of construction, are being carried on night and day. DEATH RECORD.

Dr. O. Priestly. DES MOINES, May 13 .- "One, two, three." Raising himself to his elbow and slowly but painfully breathing his last breaths, Dr. Crayke Priestly, a great-great-grandson of Dr. Joseph Priestly of England, discoverer of oxygen, with seemingly studied emphasis, counted time against pneumonia death. As he faintly whispered "three" he gasped, his muscles relaxed and he fell back dead.

Dr. Priestly was one of an unbroken line of physicians of more than ordinary disinction since the days of the great London physician. His father, James Taggart Priestly, survives him. Young Priestly be came affected with pneumonia a few days ago. He grew rapidly worse, but rallied and was thought to be improved. Suddenly he became worse, messengers were dis-patched for friends, who came in time to see the young physician count himself out.
