CHARGES THE DOCTOR WITH FRAUD Washington Man Says He Did Not Get

His Money's Worth. gram.)-Dr. A. E. Disbrow of Creighton, Neb., a wealthy ranchman and a physician, with a "whisky cure" formula, is in the city jail, charged with obtaining money on false pretenses and defrauding J. Hannah of Bellingham, Wash., out of

$3,000 in cash. The deal for which Dr. Disbrow is now in custody was consummated on February 16, 1963, at Bellingham, Wash., where he sold to Mr. Hannah the patent rights of a "whisky cure" formula for the entire northwest. The purchaser how claims the cure was simply a morphia "hope," which buoyed up the alcoholic soaked spirits of the inebriate only long enough to permit of his seperation from his money. Wearing the white tie, the frock coat and the spotless linen of men of the cloth, the prisoner stoutly maintains his innocence, declaring his reputation to be spotless and himself to be known as a good citisen throughout Nebraska. He says that his arrest is a travesty on deceney and an insult. He claims to be a graduate of the National Medical college, Chicago.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, May 17 .- (Special.)-On the eve of the republican state convention to select delegates to Chicago and adopt an expression of party views on the issues of the day, the great mass of the 2,000 delegates are much in the dark as to what is going to be done, aside from the things which have long since been outlined and over which there is no controversy. The delegates-at-large have long been agreed upon and most of the district delegates, and it is known, of course, that the convention will indorse Roosevelt and perhaps ready to give their services free in his the state administration, and refer to prodefense. Rev. standpatters in regard to the platform. The tions, and in the drier lands of the southissue was on the question of giving room for tariff revision. Secretary Shaw had come direct from the councils of the administra-tion at Washington, and while he denied fairly good conditions of soil and tilth. that he had been commissioned to present to the republicans a platform that would meet with the approval of the administration, he did in fact present in the informal conferences held a draft of a platform on the tariff question, which he declared would second president and general manager of be satisfactory in the east and would not be in conflict with the views of the lows republicans. But it was turned down cold by some of the standpatters. It was understood that J. W. Blythe, Lafe Young and some others contended that the platform was too mild and that if adopted it would be virtually a victory for Governor Cummins and that the governor would immediately indorse it and take the stand that it was all sufficient for him.

There was some talk that Governor Cummins would refuse to go as a delegate-atlarge, but his friends gave it out that he would not be a quitter unless the convention adopts a standpat platform. The four delegates-at-large will be Cummins,

A new candidate was sprung in the Sec ond district today, Colonel G. W. French, president of the National Reciprocity league, but he will be opposed by Euclid Sanders of Iowa City. There is still a fight between Gale and Smith in the Fourth and the ticket in the Sixth is not finally settled. In the Eleventh the delegates will be A. Van der Meide and R. L. Cleaves, with Dr. Cram and Robert Lipton as alternates. There is a fight on in the Ninth between E. F. Ellis of Red Oak and Colonel John Scott of Atlantic, but George Wright of Council Bluffs will Governor's Position. Governor Cummins, owing to his illness, has taken no part in the preliminaries. Speaking of the national platform, as out-

House conference, he said: "If I could have my own way abso lutely and make the platform just to suit myself, I would make but one change in the draft of the national platform as outlined by Senator Aldrich. That would be to not leave the time for commencing revision indefinite. I would declare that we should enter upon an examination of the schedules next December with a view to determining whether some of them might not be changed to advantage. With that change the platform, as it has been outlined already, would be an ideal one for the party."

Talk of Second Convention.

Conferences have been held in regard to what will be done at the second state convention, when the state ticket is to be nominated. There has been much effort to bring about an agreement as to a fight to defeat all the active Cummins men for office. Secretary of State Martin, Treasurer of State Gilbertson and Chief Justice Deemer are said to be slated for defeat. It is known that J. W. Richards, a newspaper man of Waterloo, is a candidate secretary of state, but would prefer to have the fight put off, as Attorney General Mullan of his own town, will be renominated. W. W. Morrow of Union county is supposed to be planning to succeed Gilbertson, but would like to have the fight postponed two years. Dr. Porterfield of Atlantic, who wanted the endorsement of his district as candidate for railroad commissioner, was not pleased with the fact that Secretary Martin's county refused to endorse him, and it is understood an effort is being made to fetch out a candidate for secretary of state in Harrison county.
