GIVE THE RAILROADS A REST

Incidentally the State Board of Equalization Members Lay Off for a Day.

WANT MORE FIGURES ON ROCK ISLAND

Pending Arrival of These the Board Devotes Some Attention to the Union Pacific—Getting at Value a Hard Job.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 21.—(Special.)—The State Board of Equalization today took up the Union Pacific, without having finished the Rock Island, the members of the board having found it necessary to secure additional returns or details from that road before the final value of the tangible property can be arrived at. This additional testimony will be presented Monday by the tax agents of the road.

A member of the board said today that the work of finding the value of railroad property was beyond doubt a most difficult proposition, notwithstanding the enormous amount of data furnished by the railroads. This member also said it was his opinion that the board would finally arrive at a valuation upon a basis of the value of the stocks and bonds, and that there would be no record of the value of each item, as the majority of the board had at first voted.

No meeting of the board was held this afternoon because Governor Mickey went out to Kearney to spend Sunday at the Industrial home, and the rest of the board members were glad to get a little time to attend to their other duties. They have found counting ties almost as hard work as walking over them and there is not a member of the board but who will be glad when the final report is made.

No Inquest on Sisson.

The body of W. D. Sisson, the Beatrice brakeman who shot and killed himself last night, was taken to Beatrice today by an undertaker from that city, Coroner Graham deciding not to hold an inquest. Mrs. Barnum, the landlady with whom Sisson was in love, said she had refused to marry the young man, though he had repeatedly requested her to do so, and that yesterday afternoon when she again refused him, he told her that he intended to shoot himself. This, with the note Sisson left, made the inquest unnecessary. Sisson was well fixed financially and his mother, a widow residing at Beatrice, is also said to be wealthy. His family is highly respected.

Burnham Freeman, manager of the Lyric theater, last night met a couple of the girl waiters from the Capitol hotel, where he boards, and asked permission to escort them home in a hack. The girls consented and Freeman had the hack drive to a disorderly house in the lowlands. When the girls realized where they were a general alarm for help was sent in and Freeman was arrested. This afternoon he plead guilty to being drunk and acting disorderly and was fined $10 and costs.

New Cartridge Belts.

A sample of the new combination cartridge belts with which the regular army is now being equipped has been received at the office of Adjutant General Culver. The belt is a combination of duck webbing and wire hooks, patterned something like a double bandolier. Its chief merit is the combination of broad shoulder straps supporting the weight of the belt and haversack together with the canteen from the shoulders. All of the fastenings are made to slide so that no matter whether the wearer leans to one side or the other the weight is evenly distributed. Pouches just large enough to hold five cartridges in a clip are attached to the belt each with a flap covering held down by a snap. The canteen snaps onto the belt, while the knapsack, which is very large and roomy, is attached behind. An effort will be made to secure these new belts for the guard as soon as the regular army is supplied. They are designed especially to go with the new Springfield rifles with which the army is eventually to be equipped.

Adjutant General Culver says that the old-fashioned belt fastened tightly around the waist causes a soldier much discomfort on the march and leads eventually to the impairment of the health. The entire equipment of the soldier, weighing many pounds under the old plan, must be hung on this belt.

Normal Commencement.

State Superintendent Fowler has received the commencement day program of the Peru normal. It will last from May 22 to 26. Tomorrow the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. H. C. Swearingen. Field day comes on Tuesday and in the evening a reception will be held.

State Superintendent Fowler and Deputy McBrien are getting a touch of the strenuous that comes to persons who occupy these offices once each year. It is commencement work and as both have established reputations as orators they are just now in great demand. Miss Dean's Voice.

In Lincoln musical circles Miss Helen Sylvia Dean is being discussed as a vocalist whose future is assured and the prediction is being made by critics that before her are great possibilities. Miss Dean, who is scarcely more than a girl, gave her first public recital Thursday evening at the Conservatory of Music before an audience including the most critical of musicians, and if the recital failed to create a sensation it has occasioned more favorable comment than any recital of the year.

Miss Dean has a lyric soprano voice of exceptional charm and beauty, showing thorough control of tone production and breathing. Her interpretation is artistic and refined, her pronunciation is unusually clear and distinct, her stage presence is modest, unassuming and graceful. "Salve Regina," by Dana; "Serenade," by Moszkowski; "When a Lad Comes from Freischuetz" were among her best numbers. Mr. Tunberg played the accompaniment.

Miss Dean is a pupil of the Nebraska Conservatory of Music and for the last year she has been under the personal tutelage of Clemens Movius. She is a graduate of Ripan's college, Wisconsin, and upon finishing the school course she came to Lincoln to complete her musical education. She is a niece of J. H. Ager.

SUICIDE'S MOTHER TRIES SUICIDE

Mrs. Mary Sisson is Prevented by Friends from Shooting Herself.

BEATRICE, Neb., May 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Heartbroken and ill at her home in this city because of the shock attending the suicide of her son, William D. Sisson, which occurred at Lincoln last night, Mrs. Mary Sisson, a widow, attempted suicide this morning with a revolver which she had in her room. She was frustrated in carrying out her designs by several friends who were with her at the time she secured the weapon. The remains of Mr. Sisson were brought here tonight and the funeral will be held tomorrow.

Don W. Sisson, who committed suicide at Lincoln Friday evening, was the only son of the late Dr. W. J. Sisson of Beatrice, one of the earliest physicians of southeastern Nebraska. Young Sisson was well known in Omaha and Fremont. He was a young man of excellent habits, very industrious and of independent means in his own right. Just three years ago his only sister, Mabel Sisson, was killed by falling from a street car while visiting in Chicago. He was passionately devoted to his widowed mother, Mrs. Sisson of Beatrice. Her husband, Dr. W. J. Sisson, died suddenly of heart disease about ten years ago and only a few years afterward her only daughter was killed by accident in Chicago and now comes the tragic death of the last of her family by suicide.

FEAZEL'S BROTHER INVESTIGATES

Expects Parties Under Arrest Will Be Proven Guilty.

HUMBOLDT, Neb., May 21.—(Special.)—Thomas J. Feazel returned yesterday from Nuckolls county where he has been engaged in superintending the work of ferreting out the murderers of his brother, Eli Feazel, the farmer who disappeared mysteriously last November. For a time it looked as though the matter defied solution, but since the recent finding of parts of a human body on the farm and a grave underneath the kitchen of the farm house, evidence has been steadily accumulating, and Mr. Feazel says everything points to the guilt of the parties under arrest charged with the murder of the old man. The search has been a long one, but the movements of the suspected ones have been carefully traced until it seems the web is woven too tightly to be broken. The parties under arrest are Mrs. Hutchinson, the housekeeper, her son, Charles, and Harley Feazel, a nephew of the missing man. The preliminary hearing is set for June 13 at Nelson, and by that time the prosecution hopes to have more definite trace of the body which it is now believed was dug up from under the kitchen and placed in the field, afterwards being taken up from the field and deposited in the river.

Election Judge Demands Full Pay.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 21.—(Special.)—A case was tried in Judge Timblins' court today of more than passing interest to a great many towns in the state. The city council has for years refused to pay the judges and clerks of election more than $2. The statutes provide for the appointment and fix the salary at $2, with a special provision that in cities of the first-class they shall receive $4 for each election. One of the clerks who served a year ago brought suit against the city to collect the full amount of $6. The matter was taken under advisement by the court and an opinion will be delivered Monday.

PLATTING NEBRASKA LAND

Interior Department Busy Preparatory to Putting Kinkaid Bill Into Effect.

TWO AGENTS NOW WORKING IN STATE

Draft of the Republican Convention Program Now in Hands of President—Contemplate a Session of Three Days.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, May 21—Secretary Hitchcock, appreciating the necessity of passing upon certain features of the Kinkaid bill throwing open the northwest section of Nebraska for settlement under the amended homestead laws, has turned over to the geological survey for report that portion of the provisions of the bill wherein certain lands which, in the opinion of the secretary of the interior, may be reasonably practicable of irrigation, are exempt from its provisions. The director of the survey, Prof. Wolcott, has commissioned two of his corps to look over the ground prior to the date when the bill goes into effect, June 28. The Kinkaid bill provides that the secretary of the interior shall, after examination, exempt from the provisions of the law whose lands that may be reasonably practicable to irrigate by means of water conducted from natural streams by gravity, and the secretary shall, prior to the date when the law goes into effect, designate and exclude from entry lands, particularly along the North Platte river, which, in his opinion, it may be possible to irrigate through operations under the national irrigation law or by private enterprise. The law further states that the secretary thereafter shall from time to time open to entry under the act any of the lands so excluded, which upon further investigation he may conclude cannot be practically irrigated in the manner as above set forth. Two members of the engineer corps of the geological survey are now in the section included within the limits of the Kinkaid bill looking over the territory for the purpose of deciding upon the lands susceptible of irrigation, and their instructions are to make as early report as possible in order that the sections reserved may be posted conspicuously in the territory and at the land office which will have charge of this business, for the benefit of intending settlers.

Draft of Convention Program.

President Roosevelt today received a rough draft of the program for the national republican convention, which meets in Chicago on June 22. According to the program there will be a three days' session of the convention. The Wisconsin situation, wherein two sets of delegates were selected, will doubtless take up considerable time before the committee on credentials, as both the La Follette and Cook factions are determined seemingly to carry their differences not only to the convention, but to the courts as well. It is expected Senator Spooner, one of the contesting delegates-at-large from the Badger state, will present the claims of the Cook faction to the committee. The program for the convention contemplates but few seconding speeches. The speech nominating Theodore Roosevelt for the presidency is to be made by ex-Governor Frank Black of New York. It is expected that seconding speeches will be confined to sections and that the speech from the west will be made either by Senator Dolliver or Congressman Robert G. Cousins.

THIRTEEN DEMOCRATS AND A SCRAP

Majority Favors Kansas City Platform and Instructs for Bryan.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Just thirteen democrats met here today in a county convention to elect delegates to the state convention. The fact that only a baker's dozen were present did not prevent a political scrap from backing out. The trouble grew out of some resolutions introduced by George Tibbets which indorsed A. C. Shallenberger for governor and condemned the republican state administration. Judge Dungan and Editor Wahlquist opposed the resolutions upon the ground that they were inopportune and could have no effect upon the state convention. After a much heated discussion the resolutions were indorsed.

The resolutions favored harmony, but bitterly opposed "deserting every principle for which 6,511,000 democrats have fought to purchase the treacherous co-operation of 133,000 allies." The Kansas City platform was indorsed and delegates instructed for William J. Bryan for delegate-at-large to the national convention, and the delegates were instructed to oppose "all candidates who opposed democracy as laid down by Thomas Jefferson and repudiated by Grover Cleveland." The republican state administration was condemned for its subserviency to the railroads and Governor Mickey for improper use of his office.

The delegates to the state convention are: G. W. Tibbets, J. C. Stevens, H. S. Dungan, Henry Brumgard, Charles Larsen, J. W. Braingan, S. S. Snyder, A. K. Deffenbaugh, R. B. Wahlquist, Robert Hohfeldt, Ed Joynb, W. M. Baxter, Lane Tibbets, Percy Jones, M. B. Harden, W. M. Decker, L. Blumenthal, Thomas Frahm, N. D. Kidder.

Congressional delegates are: W. Brookley, D. H. Wentworth, H. C. Hansen, A. H. Ferrens, H. S. Dungan, W. E. Haven, John Kieffe, Raymond Jones, Thomas Frahm, C. B. Wahlquist, Ray Dameral, J. J. Simmering, F. C. Babcock, Harry Brewer, Ernest Hoeppner, S. J. Owens, Charles Hohfeldt, Otto Ortman.

STEAL A GUN AND A DOLLAR

Boys Enter Barber Shop to Get Water and Help Themselves.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 21.—(Special.)—Two boys, 10 and 12 years old, entered the barber shop of Caudy & Shufleberger at noon yesterday to get a pail of water. The proprietors were standing outside a few feet from the door when the boys entered. Returning to the shop a few minutes after the boys left it was discovered that a 22-caliber revolver and been filched from the drawer and the cash register had been relieved of $1 in silver. The boys were brought to task shortly after dinner, but neither the dollar nor the gun could be found in their possession and they denied all knowledge of the stolen property. Later the revolver was found in a second-hand store where it had been disposed of. The punishment of the young pilferers will be left to their parents.

More new residences than for many years, and of the better class, with modern improvements, are being built, while the whole city, under the active administration of Mayor Allen G. Fisher, is donning its spring apparel and bids fair to become the city beautiful of northwest Nebraska. It is now an important educational center, with its academy and high school. The dedication of its new $10,000 Young Men's Christian association building has been one of the pleasant events of the spring.

Druggists, Undertakers, Populists.

FREMONT, Neb., May 21.—(Special.)—Fremont will entertain three state organizations within the next six weeks, the druggists, undertakers and populists. Preparations for all three of them are being made and there is considerable interest in which will have the largest crowd, the dispensers of prescriptions and bitters or the prophets of hard times. The populist party in the city will have hard work to muster enough for a reception committee without drawing on the Commercial club for assistance. With one or two exceptions, all their leaders are either keeping very quiet or have gone back to their original parties, the republicans getting their full share. Out in the country a similar condition is reported.

Tit for Tat.

CHADRON, Neb., May 21.—(Special.)—A prominent politician, in discussing the state republican convention just held at Lincoln, said:

"When Omaha sits down on its citizen, E. Rosewater, who would have had great influence in a national convention, all that is left for the state to do is to sit down on Omaha, as it did."

In their petition they allege that on account of the road putting in a garbage dump near their land at the county line of Sarpy county the high embankment resulting has caused the water of the Papio creek during flood time to back upon their farms. For the three years past their crops have been entirely destroyed, thus decreasing the value of their land.

BEATRICE, May 21.—Three boys, giving the names of Clyde VanDorn, Frank O'Neal and Tony Raynor, and claiming Council Bluffs as their home, were lodged in the city jail here yesterday. When searched at the police station each carried a revolver and the trio gave every indication of being tough lads. They were released upon promise that they would return home.

We paid $100,000 for Liquozone; and we paid $500,000 more to buy a million bottles and give them to a million sick.

We paid $100,000 for the American rights to Liquozone. And we have spent $500,000 in the past four months to buy a million bottles and give them to a million sick ones. Don't you realize that this product must be of wonderful worth to humanity? Won't you see what it means to you?

Acts Like Oxygen

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process which requires immense apparatus and 14 days' time. Each cubic inch of Liquozone represents the virtues of 1,250 cubic inches of the gas. The process by which these virtues are concentrated into liquid, stable form has been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research for more than 20 years.

The result is a product which does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the nerve food, the blood food, the scavenger of the blood. It is the very source of vitality, the most essential element of life. But oxygen is a gas and unstable, while Liquozone is fixed and concentrated. It gets an excess of oxygen virtues into the blood, to go wherever the blood goes. The result is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare.

Kills Inside Germs

But the great value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it kills germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. There is nothing else known which will do that. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. For that reason medicine is practically helpless in any germ disease.

Liquozone is so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables, and an excess of oxygen—the very life of an animal—is deadly to vegetable matter. Liquozone is certain destruction to germs, yet to the human body it is the most helpful thing in the world. There is no other way to end the cause of any germ disease.

Germ Diseases

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble it invariably ends the disease, and forever.
