RECRUITS ON THE INCREASE

In The Bee's Fourth Contest for Tea Prize Trips to St. Louis Exposition.

VOTING STRENGTH IS A MASKED BATTERY

Royal Serenade Coming at the Close and No One Knows the Strength or Number of the Force.

While the number of votes thus far registered in The Bee's fourth contest for ten prize trips to the Louisiana Purchase exposition is increasing at a rather mild rate, the number of candidates is gaining nicely and a sharp, live contest may be looked for. How many votes it will take to win is as difficult as ever to forecast and there is only one rule safe to adopt, and that is to get every vote you can and don't take chances of losing out by a small margin. The wise candidate will be out after votes early and late during the few days still left.

The vote at 3 p. m. Wednesday, May 26, was:

Did They Come Out Yet?

We mean the bed bugs which always "make themselves felt" about this time of the year.

Schaefer's Sure Death is the annihilator of all bedbugs. It is in liquid form and is very volatile—that is it evaporates readily and leaves a pink crystalline powder, near which no bug will stay. Every bug touched with the liquid is certainly a GONER, as you can see if you will try it. All bedbugs die in four days—pinks, lice, fleas, etc. Half gallons, 60c; gallons, $1.00; and a pint of can with a long spout, free, with the tin and 80 sticks.

We deliver to any point in Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs, from our own stores.
