JETTERS WIN IN A FAST GAME Defeat Nonparells in Brilliant Contest by Score of Four to Three.

by Score of Four to Three.

One of the best amateur games seen in Omaha for many a day was that played between B. Jetters of South Omaha and the Nonparelis of Council Bluffs yesterday. Jetters won by a score of 4 to 3. The game belonged to either side up to the finish. Ballinger managed to keep the seven hits which the Nonparelis got, well scattered and by this means only saved the day for his team. Captain Rodman made a phenomenal catch of what looked like a clean hit when two men were on bases. The Jetters play the Joe Smiths of Council Bluffs this afternoon. The score:

Will Lay Cable Before Fall. It is the hope of Chief Signal Officer General A. W. Greely to have the cable between Sitka and Valdes completed and laid before the 1st of October. The Burnside, which is to take the cable counscting these two points, is now at Scattle loading for its long trip. Last year 700 miles of cable were laid under tremendous difficul- H. A. BABCOCK PASSES AWAY ties. Very early springs, late autumns, enormous anowfalls, the constant succession of icebergs making the trip of the Burnside most memorable. Then delays in the arrival of the Burnside at Seattle last year delayed the work of laying the cable from Juneau until stress of weather and the closing of navigation compelled the Burnside to put back to Seattle. Later the the military authorities, was sent 'o the Philippines, where a portion of the interior of the Philippine Island cable was laid. Peremptory orders, however, had been is sued by the army authorities that the Burnside should take up the work of completing the cable from Queen Charlotte island to Sitka and from Sitka to Valdes and this cable, 780 miles in length, is now being taken on board the vessel especially equipped for cable laying purposes.

Purely American Made. The cable between Sitka and Valdes is part of the longest cable ever undertaken in America, the appropriation for the cable having restricted it to be of domestic manufacture. It is also noteworthy that this American made cable was for a greater depth than that in which any domestic cable had ever been made, its manufacture inspection and transportation involving more intricate difficulties than had surrounded any previous work of the signal corps. While this cable was manufactured in the vicinity of New York City, yet it was necessary to transport it some 16,000 miles around Cape Horn, under unusual conditions as to storage and care, as to insure its delivery in perfect condition to the cable ship Burnsıd, which was to receive it in Seattle harbor. Although seemingly insurmountable barriers presented themselves to those who had undertaken the manufacture of this cable, yet the signal corps never let up in the work of supervising and inspecting its manufacture. In order to insure its acceptance it was found necessary to select and train men of the signal corps in the complicated profession of cable telegraphy. Nothing daunted, however, General Greely began the work of installation with a determination to meet, if possible, the urgent desire of the secretary of war that at least one section of this cable should be in operation by the and here in the city were quite well attime congress convened last December. Most Memorable Gathering in the History of the Church.

IMPORTANT IN LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Election of Eleven Bishops and Retirement of Five Others Probably Attracted the Widost Attention.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.-It was after midnight when the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal convention reached final roll call lest night which brought to a close the most memorable gathering in the history of the church. Today memorial services were held during the afternoon and in the evening a jubilee service in the pavilion closed the service of the meetings. When the final roll call was taken last night 600 of the 750 accredited delegates were in their seats. The decision to adjourn was not arrived at until late Saturday evening and in order to finish the business before the assembly it was necessary to run over into Sunday the work of calling the roll.

The conference just closed has accomplished much for the interest of the Methodist church and will go down in church history as one of the most important in the point of legislative action.

The action of the general conference in retiring five bishops and electing eleven others probably attracted the widest attention of any other single happening, but there were many other subjects that affected the great membership of the Methodist church and which were watched with deep interest. Among these were: Some of the Work Done.

The decision to stand by the present attitude of the church on the subject of prohibited amusements; the refusal to return to the time limit of pastoral services; the exoneration of theological schools of the charge of heretical teachings; the unification of the Methodist publishing houses; the consolidation of the boards of church benevolence, providing means of support for superannuated ministers; fixing the status of superannuated bishops; creating a commission to revise the ritual of the church; continuing the commission appointed four years ago to bring the various branches of Methodism closer together in the use of the common prayer book, hymnal and catechisms; a referendum of the much discussed question of a colored bishop and many other matters of smaller importance. Today memorial sermons were preached in nearly every Protestant church in this city and in other nearby cities by bishops or ministers in attendance upon the conference. Perhaps the most largely attended service was that at the Christ Methodie church, where Dr. J. M. Buckley delivered an eloquent memorial address. The entire auditorium of the church was occupied by old soldiers. At the pavillon tonight Dr. Morrison of Louisville, Ky., addressed a large crowd, nearly all the delegates to the conference being present. There was a farewell service. This marked the closing meeting of the conference. The delegates will begin to leave for home tomorrow morning.
