

WAR VESSELS ARRIVE

United States Gunboats Angler to Back Up Negotiations at Tangier.

People Impressed by Warships in Fleet. Frightened Residents on the Coast are Moving Out of Range.

Secrecy Regarding Negotiations. British and American Representatives Send Messages to Sultan.

MOROCCO EXECUTIVE MUST COME TO TIME. Sultan Will Have to Recover American Navy Being Held by the Bandits or Suffer the Consequences.

TANGIER, Morocco, May 31.—The United States gunboats Morocco and Castine arrived here during the night, completing with the cruisers Brooklyn and Atlanta which arrived yesterday, the American squadron sent here in connection with the kidnaping by the bandits, Raisuli, of Mr. Percidaris, the American, and his stepson, Cromwell Varley, a British subject. The population is deeply impressed by the assembling of so many United States war vessels and people living outside the city are removing here for safety.

The British and American representatives have sent a special courier to the sultan concerning the prisoners. The officials maintain strict secrecy regarding the negotiations in progress.

A death has occurred on board one of the American ships. Funeral services were held today. The British dispatch boat Surprise arrived here during the day with the admiral from Gibraltar to confer with the British minister in regard to the kidnaping of Percidaris and Varley. The United States flagship Brooklyn saluted the Surprise.

The inhabitants of Tangier are uneasy and the British residents outside the town have been requested by their consul to come to Tangier.

Asks France to Help. WASHINGTON, May 31.—Through Ambassador Porter, Secretary Hay has requested the French government to exercise its good offices regarding the release of Percidaris, the kidnaped American in Morocco. The French government has undertaken the task and, because of its closer association with the various elements of Morocco, it is believed here that it can accomplish more than any other government. The British also is acting with great energy in behalf of young Varley, the stepson of Percidaris.

Admiral Chadwick is not expected to present to land a party from his fleet, but it is stated positively that he will execute his threat of killing his captives this government will insist that he be run down and executed at any cost. It is expected at the Navy department that the South Atlantic squadron, now at Tangier, will be reinforced today by the European squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Jewell and consisting of the Olympia, Baltimore and Cleveland, which left the Azores Saturday. The battleship Iowa left Horta, Azores, today for Lima, whether it was preceded by the battleships Kearsarge, Maine and Alabama or Rear Admiral Barkley's squadron. The Percidaris matter was discussed some length at today's cabinet meeting.

Chadwick Sends Cablegram. The cablegram has been received at the Navy department from Rear Admiral Chadwick, commanding the South Atlantic squadron at Tangier.

The seizure of the American citizen was by insurgent chief so as to bring pressure on the sultan of Morocco to release the demands of the tribe. Our sense of the gravity of the case has been expressed by the sultan of Morocco to the sultan of Morocco, the only real means of releasing captives. There is the strict authority for the statement that an attack on Tangier or an expedition against the brigands will be followed by the immediate murder of the captives.

At the instance of Secretary Hay no instructions will be sent Rear Admiral Chadwick for the present, pending the result of the representations of Ambassador Jewell at Paris to the French government requesting the exercise of its good offices in obtaining the release of the captives.

Instructions French Minister. PARIS, May 31.—Foreign Minister Delcasse, in consequence of a communication from the State department at Washington transmitted through Ambassador Porter, has telegraphed instructions to the French minister at Tangier to use his utmost endeavors to obtain the release of Percidaris and Varley.

American officials are hopeful that the French influence with the Moroccan government, together with the presence of the American fleet, will secure an adjustment of the affair. Reports through French official channels show that Raisuli's demand for ransom is $70,000.

The American view is that if the ransom should be paid through the family of Percidaris, Raisuli could be dealt with subsequently and the money restored to the family, but French officials who are familiar with the situation in Morocco are less sanguine of a settlement owing to claims that Raisuli has put forward which threaten to raise political and international entanglements.

According to information received at the Foreign office he requires the sultan to give him a subordinate kingdom with the right to levy taxes throughout a region embracing thirty-eight square kilometers, lying directly along the main routes from Tangier to Fes. Officials say Raisuli would thereby become one of the dominant political forces in Morocco.

Raisuli Looking for Power. Moreover Raisuli's demand that he may levy taxes on travelers on the main route to the capital is considered untenable. Reports received show that the sultan is ready to pay the ransom, but that he is unwilling to yield to the political ambitions of Raisuli. However, the French minister at Tangier secured the release of a Frenchman held under similar circumstances by enlisting the influence of chiefs of tribes and sheikhs and similar influences will prevail here.

The French authorities are not likely to view favorably the seizure of a port or the landing of troops, being of the opinion that the Monroe doctrine should hold both ways. It is pointed out that an expedition inland would be wholly impracticable owing to tribal and material considerations.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR QUAY

Remains of Distinguished Pennsylvania Are Laid to Rest in Cemetery at Beaver.

BEAVER, Pa., May 31.—For two hours today during the funeral services over the remains of Senator Matthew Quay business, as announced, would be suspended throughout the entire Beaver valley. Arrangements were made that not a wheel should revolve in any of the numerous mills and workshops in the towns of Beaver, Rochester, New Brighton, Beaver and nearly a dozen other centers for miles around.

In this place, Senator Quay's old home, the streets were thronged with crowds from the surrounding towns, anxious to pay their last tribute to the dead statesman. During the earlier hours the residence of the late senator was closed to the outer world and those who were closest to him in life spent the last hours with the dead free from intrusion.

A private service was held at the house and under a guard of honor from the Beaver Guard Army of the Republic post the remains were removed to the First Presbyterian church, where for three hours the public was given an opportunity to look for the last time upon the face of the dead senator.

One of the first arrivals here was Governor Pennypacker, who with ex-Lieutenant Governor Walter Loya and a number of relatives of the late senator came in the train. The party was at once driven to the Quay home. Every train brought on persons of prominence in the state and country who wanted to be present for the last rites. A large silk American flag was draped across the casket and no other decoration marked it.

During the time the body lay in state several thousand people viewed the remains. At the public services a committee of the United States senate was in charge as a guard of honor. The services were marked by simplicity.

Rev. D. Appletton Dash of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated at the opening prayer. A passage from the scriptures was read by Rev. Mr. Fields of the Church of Christ and Rev. J. S. Ramsey, pastor of the Presbyterian church, delivered the funeral oration. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. R. P. Miller of the United Presbyterian church. The organist and choir from the Christ Methodist Episcopal church of Pittsburg furnished the music, the quartet singing Senator Quay's favorite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide with Me."

The organist and choir from the Christ Methodist Episcopal church of Pittsburg furnished the music, the quartet singing Senator Quay's favorite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide with Me."

Among the floral tributes was a great wreath of American Beauty roses and white peonies with maidenhair fern interwoven from President Roosevelt.

The court sustained the law and the suit brought in test case to recover a penalty for selling bogus butter.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The supreme court of the United States, in an opinion by Justice White, today upheld the constitutionality of the oleomargarine law of the United States in the southern district of Ohio to recover $50 paid by him as a penalty for the sale of a fifty-pound package of colored oleomargarine containing a stamp tax of three-quarters of a cent a pound, instead of 10 cents a pound.

The chief justice and Justices Brown and Peckham dissented.

The court also upheld the validity of the law in the case of Schick and Broadwell, coming here from Chicago. In these cases the court, in an opinion by Justice Brewer, held that the fact that in the trial of the cases the defendants waived the right of a jury did not invalidate the verdict, which was against them.

MURDERER GETS NEW TRIAL

Kills Son in Circus Tent When Mob Threatens Him with Violence for Another Crime.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 31.—John M. Speyer, a circus performer, who killed his young son in a tent at Kansas City in 1902 by cutting his throat with a knife and who was found guilty and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary, was granted a new trial today on a technicality. Speyer had been accused of assaulting a young girl who was threatened by a crowd who killed the boy's brother, as he said afterward, that he would be lynched and not desiring the child to live alone. Speyer's wife lives at New Orleans.

SEE NO SIGN OF A BREAK

Republicans at Springfield Expect No Nomination for Several Days.

ALL ASPIRANTS CLAIM FORMER VOTES. Illinois State Convention Assembles After Ten Days Vacation, with No Apparent Change in the Situation.

SPRINGFIELD, May 31.—The republican state convention, after a session lasting an hour and a half and after taking three ballots for governor, adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow without having broken the deadlock. The convention after an eleven-day recess, reconvened at 11 this afternoon. There was a manifest falling off of enthusiasm. Governor Yates was cheered as he entered, a few minutes before the convention was called to order, but the entry of the other candidates was unobtrusive.

Chairman Cannon opened the proceedings by having read the rule of the house of representatives, which, among other things, prohibits smoking on the floor of the house. "Gentlemen," said Chairman Cannon, "you have adopted that rule, and the chair enforces it. Without the co-operation of the delegates, and the chair desires to know what the will of the convention is?" Then he put to a vote the question of enforcing the rule. The affirmative vote was practically unanimous, and the chairman then gave peremptory instructions to the assistant sergeants-at-arms and the police to see that all smoking in the hall was prevented. The chair then referred to the delegates, who were requested to be reported to the chair for the action of the convention, and persons not delegates who persistently violate the rule to be ejected from the hall.

Chairman Cannon who, while refraining from smoking, has been chewing tobacco pretty freely during the monotonous deadlock, answered gravely: "The resolution is silent on chewing." (Laughter.) The roll was then called for the fifty-third ballot. There was trouble over the vote of Bureau county. C. P. Lovjoy challenged the vote as announced. Delegate Daisell of Bureau replied that Lovjoy was neither a delegate nor an alternate. Chairman Cannon after consulting the official list of delegates, announced that he appeared on the roll as a delegate. Daisell replied that a new list had been made up by the county committee, but Chairman Cannon said that until the new list was presented to the convention and accepted it would not be considered as such.

"I desire to be recorded for Richard Yates," said Mr. Lovjoy. "The gentleman will restrain his zeal," said the chairman, "and we will proceed under the rules." (Laughter.) The roll of the Bureau delegation was called. There was controversy as to how the six absent delegates should be voted. Finally they were voted 3 for Lowden, 2 for Deneen, 1 for Pierce. The vote of the delegation then stood: Yates, 1; Lowden, 6; Deneen, 5; Hamlin, 1; Pierce, 1.

Three Votes for Lowmer. Judge Solon Philbrick of the Champaign delegation created amusement by inadvertently calling "Three votes for Lowmer," which he changed to "Lowden." The changes on the fifty-third ballot from the fifty-eighth, the last one taken before the recess, were as follows: Sixteenth ward, Chicago, Deneen lost 1 to Lowden; Edwards county, Warner lost 1 to Yates; Jackson, Yates gained 2; Lowden, 1; Hamlin, 1; all from Warner; Liasella, Sherman gained 1 from Pierce; Madison, Hamlin gained 1 and Sherman 1 from Lowden; Mason, Yates gained 1 from Warner; Menard, Hamlin gained 1 from Yates; Perry, Hamlin gained 2 and Sherman 2 from Lowden; Richmond, Yates gained 1 from Warner; Union, Yates gained 1 from Warner; Woodford, Lowden gained 3 from Hamlin. The fifty-ninth ballot resulted: Yates, 87; Lowden, 38; Deneen, 38; Hamlin, 16; Warner, 4; Sherman, 3; Pierce, 3. On the sixtieth ballot the changes were slight. The ballot resulted: Yates, 84; Lowden, 38; Deneen, 38; Hamlin, 12; Warner, 4; Sherman, 3; Pierce, 3. The sixty-first ballot resulted: Yates, 84; Lowden, 38; Deneen, 38; Hamlin, 12; Warner, 4; Sherman, 3; Pierce, 3.

BELLWOOD IS GREATLY EXCITED

Man Accused of Committing Assault on the Streets. The citizens of Bellwood were greatly excited yesterday and all they lacked was a leader for a "hemp party."

A man named Coffin from David City, who is a well-to-do farmer, was arrested yesterday on a charge of assault on a woman named Wilson. Wilson is a widow, who works in the country and left his 13-year-old girl to take care of his house. Shortly after Coffin was seen to enter the house and the window curtains were lowered, which was a dwelling occupied by a man named Wilson. A crowd gathered and a woman named Wilson, who is a widow, was in the house and immediately sent for the girl's father. A crowd surrounded the house and he forced an entrance to the house and the father brought the child to the street and assisted by an excited crowd, landed him in jail. He begged for mercy from them, claiming he had not assaulted the child. He was finally taken to David City and confined there for a few days. His father, who is about 60 years old, has been running after her for several months and that she has been in his company often before. His trial will come off before this term of court.

NEW MAYOR NOW IN BALTIMORE

E. Clay Timanus Takes Oath of Office in Succession to Mayor McLane.

BALTIMORE, May 31.—President E. Clay Timanus of the second branch of the council, took the oath of office at the city of Baltimore today, becoming the successor to Robert M. McLane, who ended his life yesterday by a pistol shot. Under a provision of the city charter Mayor Timanus will serve out the remainder of Mayor McLane's term, three years.

Mayor Timanus is a republican. He announced today that it is too early for him to definitely outline what his policy may be, but it is not believed that he will undertake to undo the appointments of his predecessor, who was a democrat. Mayor Timanus is a leading manufacturer of the city, director in a national bank and a prominent member of the Chamber of Commerce and other business associations. He is 41 years of age and has been a member of the city council several times.

ARGUE DENNISON EXTRADITION

Applicants Appear Before Governor and Urge Action in Extradition Case.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., May 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Elmer E. Thomas, attorney for the Omaha Civic League and the Jewelers' Protective Association, and County Attorney Fallon of Harrison county, Iowa, accompanied by United States Marshal George M. Christian, appeared before Governor Mickey tonight and urged that the governor honor the extradition request issued by the Governor Cummins for the return to Iowa of Tom Dennison, charged with receiving stolen property. Attorney General Fallon said that the governor and the two will take up the matter Thursday morning to consider it.

Dennison was neither present or represented, consequently the procedure was a reversal of the usual order, inasmuch as it is the custom of the governor to receive the accused and to refuse extradition unless the government honor the extradition request issued by the Governor Cummins for the return to Iowa of Tom Dennison, charged with receiving stolen property. Attorney General Fallon said that the governor and the two will take up the matter Thursday morning to consider it.

President Roosevelt is determined, so far as may be possible, to take all appointments in the forestry and Indian service of the Interior department entirely out of the realm of politics and in the future have these appointments made on the merit system. The president today wrote a letter to Secretary Hitchcock advising him that appointments in the forestry service are not being regarded as congressional patronage and that he is to be advised of forest reserve land promotions and other forest work from the position of head ranger, thus recognizing faithful service to the government. The determination is in keeping with the effort of the president and the Interior department to cause a general clearing up of the public land service in view of recent scandals and to keep the service above reproach.

Another decision of the president and Interior department which was recently made known will have a tendency to reduce the number of federal Indian agents, by the disposal of agents and members in western states. This is the settled policy of the administration to place Indian reservations as far as possible in the hands of bonded superintendents instead of Indian agents. The number of Indian agents to be selected usually from the Indian service and outsiders will have little chance of getting these places.

CAUSES DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL

Deft Sweet of Holt County Held on Serious Charge. NORFOLK, Neb., May 31.—(Special Telegram.)—The Holt county dastardly crime with which Deft Sweet, a farm hand, is charged and as a result of which the little 5-year-old girl, Maude Storis, is dead.

Sweet was an employee on the Storis farm at Norfolk, where he worked for the little girl, hardly big enough to talk and walk, was given the most loathsome of diseases. A few weeks ago she was brought to Norfolk for treatment in a hospital here. Gradually she grew weaker and now she is dead. Excitement ran high at Norfolk upon receipt of the news of the victim's death. Deft Sweet is in jail there awaiting the charge which will be filed against him. The charge may be murder.

ST. LOUIS, May 31.—After a consultation with Vice President and General Manager Russell Harding of the Missouri Pacific railroad today a committee representing the telegraphers employed by the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain systems announced that certain demands which had been refused by Mr. Harding will be placed in the hands of the federated board, which will meet here next Monday, for adjustment.

STRIKE REACHES A CRISIS

Three Thousand Machinists Walk Out at Chicago to Protest Against New Orders.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Three thousand machinists employed by the companies that compose the Metal Trades association, went on strike tonight as a protest against the ten-hour day. STAYS BOARD OF TRADE CASE

Outside Brokers Can Still Use Quotations if They Can Get Them.

CUTTING DOWN POLITICAL PATRONAGE. Appointments in Forestry Service to Be Made on the Merit System in the Future by Promoting Subordinates.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, May 31.—(Special Telegram.)—On motion of Charles D. Fuller of Ottumwa, Ia., the United States supreme court today granted a writ of certiorari directed to the circuit court of appeals at Chicago, which is in the nature of a stay of proceedings in the case of the Board of Trade of Chicago in its efforts to prevent outsiders from using its quotations. The circuit court of appeals on Friday last granted a permanent injunction against these outside brokers and a mandate would have issued tomorrow, but for the prompt action of Mr. Fuller in preparing his brief, applying for a writ and in hurrying to Washington to appear before the supreme court today. There was almost an identical case in the Eighth circuit, which embraces Iowa, Nebraska and other western states, which is decided by Judge Shiras in a very able opinion in which he took a diametrically opposite opinion to that of the Chicago court. The United States supreme court today acted promptly. A recess of five minutes was taken for the purpose of considering the plea of Mr. Fuller, which is almost unprecedented, and Mr. Fuller believes that it indicates a disposition on the part of the supreme court not to be influenced by the opinion of the Chicago judges. "In any event," said Mr. Fuller tonight, "the issuance of the writ will serve as a check on proceedings for two years and will prevent the Board of Trade from monopolizing the quoted price of wheat, corn and other grains and products traded in that board."

LESS FOR THE POLITICIANS

President Roosevelt is determined, so far as may be possible, to take all appointments in the forestry and Indian service of the Interior department entirely out of the realm of politics and in the future have these appointments made on the merit system. FARM FOR SALE

It has been recommended by the supervisor of Indian schools, J. F. House, that the Indian farm attached to the Indian school at Pierre be sold, provided a reasonably fair price can be obtained for it. The only reason for selling this farm is that it is located some five miles from the school and this distance is considered too great to render it valuable for practical purposes. The teaching Indian pupils ideas of agriculture. A farm near the main school is desired if the old farm can be sold without loss to the government.

COREANS FLY FROM RUSSIANS

Russian Cavalry Said to Be in Close Pursuit and Have Cut Telegraph.

(Copyright by New York Herald Co., 1904.) P. M. HUNG, May 30 (via Seoul, May 31).—(New York Herald Cablegram-Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The Korean garrison at Seoul, Korea, has fled through here at midnight in full flight toward the south. They report 700 Russian cavalry following them closely. The Russians are now arriving here and the wires are destroyed.

SMALL GARRISON NOW AT SEOUL

Considered Ample Sufficient for All Purposes. (Copyright by New York Herald Co., 1904.) P. M. HUNG, May 30 (via Seoul, May 31).—(New York Herald Cablegram-Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Reinforcements sent to Ping Yang and Anju have reduced the strength of the local garrison to about 2,000, which is considered sufficient, as any Russian attempt via the sea to land troops at Seoul would be known through the numerous Japanese squads located in every village to the north and east. Furthermore, these could be easily used to reinforce Seoul. No local disturbances are feared, the Korean coast being completely outside Russian influence, which is daily strengthened by the substitution of Japanese troops even in the lower strata of Korean officialdom.

Attempts to persuade the emperor to remove his residence to the East palace, where the emperor's chief advisers are still court women. Contrary to the reports, the Japanese are pushing with great energy the construction of the military railway from Seoul to Wiju. Steamer loads of munitions are being sent to the coast and thousands of trained workmen and engineers are busily engaged on the earthworks and timber trestle bridges. The greatest activity prevails everywhere.

The people of northern Korea are entirely favorable to the Japanese occupation. They have suffered heavily under the enforced provisioning of Russian troops, which the perfect Japanese commissariat precludes. Japanese transports have now laded shells, men and horses at Antung for the coming army. The Japanese are using only local garrisons.

The first detachment of newspaper correspondents quartered at Antung was not permitted to proceed further. The Japanese report now extends from a forty-mile strip east of Feng Wang Cheng, to Feng Huang, and from Hailu Yuen to Polandiu. The intermediate country is patrolled by strong scouting parties, easily reinforced from the Manchuria littoral, Antung, Takushan, Pitsewo and Kingtan.

The opinion of military officials here is that the Japanese are not satisfied with the occupation of Hai Cheng, as in 1894, but will push on against Liao Yang and then to Mukden. The necessity of protection for a lengthy line of communication precludes consideration of the route to the coast. Desultory Russian raids on the eastern Korean coast are futile, except for intelligence purposes, the only effect being to change the previous favorable Korean sentiment there against the Russians, as the preparations fall most heavily on the natives.

Frequent glimpses of a strong Japanese fleet cruising off the east coast indicate that a close watch is kept on the Vladivostok squadron by the Japanese. Japanese wireless operations on the Korean coast are being vigorously pushed. All guns and other movables have been removed to Saesoo. The raising will be difficult, as the Vladivostok is on its port side, deep in the mud, which is continually oozing through the small holes made by the shells of the Japanese shells. It is estimated that the cost of putting the ship in commission will be 1,500,000 yen.
