Wool Market.

BOSTON, May 31.—WOOL—Old wools are now practically cleared up in the local market. There is not, however, very much dealing in the new clip which has begun to arrive. Some of the largest buyers have been picking up available lots, though the market on the whole is quiet. Some complaint is heard as to shrinkage of the new wools. The movement of old territory wools is still small. Pulled wools are firmer. The market on beef steers could be quoted active and steady to strong. Some sales of the more desirable grades, in fact, looked a little higher. Buyers all had lib-al orders to fill and as there were scarcely enough in sight to meet the requirements of the trade the market was very active. As high as $555 was paid for some white-faces, which was the top of the day and also for the year to date. There were quite a tew good cattle on sale, as will be seen from the sales below. The market was in very satisfactory condition to the selling interests and shippers were well pleased with the prices received.

The cow market was also active and steady to strong. There were comparatively few included in the receipts and with a liberal demand from all sources it only took a short time for everything in sight to change hands. Some Whiteface helfers sold as high as $4.85, or $5c higher than some from the same bunch brought last wednesday. The only kind of butcher stock that was not in active demand was common cutters and canners, but still even those sold to as good advantage as they did yesterday.

Bulls, veal calves and stags could be quoted steady to strong.

The same as has been the case of late there were very few stock cattle in sight, but the demand was sufficient to take those that were offered at good steady prics. Representative sales:

TRAMP LOSES FEET AT WATERLOO

German Traveler Falls Under Train and is Brought to Omaha. WATERLOO, Neb., May 31 .- (Special Telegram.)-A tramp giving his name as Ernest Muhlbock and his address 73 Oak street, Newark, N. J., where his sister, Mrs. Ida Harman, lives, was caught by local train No. 26, eastbound, and had both feet cut off at 1:15 o'clock today.

He was attempting to board the train and fell, his feet swinging under the cars with the above result. Dr. H. T. Harris and others did all possible to help the man and the trainmen had orders to leave the train and take the injured man to Omaha, which was done, the special leaving here at 2:05. Dr. Harris and Chester Pederson accompanied the man to the hospital. He was a gritty fellow and made little outcry, but when he found both feet were off begged to be shot. The man said he was German.

New Cemetery Superintendent. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., May 31 .- (Special.)-L. B. May, lately of Camp Nelson, Ky., has been appointed to succeed Major Dow as superintendent of the National cemetery, located at Fort McPherson. The gentleman who takes charge was superintendent at Camp Nelson for four years, is a member of Company I, Twenty-fourth New York infantry and served for two years in the war of the rebellion; was wounded in the battle of the recond Bull Run, and takes pride in the fact that he is not a major or a captain, or an officer of any rank, but simply a high private.

Major L. H. Dow, who has had charge of the Fort McPherson National cemetery for eeveral years, and whose superintendency has been most satisfactory to all concerned, has been transferred to Springfield, Ill., Catch Boys Seining.

YORK, Neb., May 31 .- (Special.)-Arthur Cline, Claude Lloyd, Guy Mitchell and I. Mitchell were caught seining bullheads by John Stapleton, the county game warden. They were using a fifty-two-foot seine, the property of Mr. Lloyd, and had dragged out several ponds before the warden captured the outfit, which was confiscated in the name of the state. Owing to their youth the boys were not prosecuted. At Thayer last week the warden learned of parties seining and expected to confiscate four seines. He found eight men, with a minnow net, some lines and a keg of beer, but could not discover any evidence wherein they had violated the law. The warden says that hereafter no one violating the fish law can expect any sympathy, and that he will prosecute all who may violate

Lightning Fires Residence. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 31 .- (Special.)-A fine rain visited this section this morning. It was accompanied by fierce lightning and thunder. Lightning struck the residence occupied by Mrs. Livengood, son and mother, setting it on fire. The fire department responded and quickly extinguished the flames without much damage. The little son of Mrs. Livengood was shocked by the stroke, but not seriously injured.

Cotton Firm Suspends. NEW YORK, May 31.—The suspension of S. Munn & Co, was announced on the Cotton exchange today. The firm is one of the oldest in the cotton trade in this city.
