

Individuality is beyond question the first essential qualification in the attributes of a fascinating woman. This may, to the casual reader, seem a far-fetched idea to bring into a corset talk, but, individuality being the fundamental principle in our method of corsei fitting, we wish to emphasize this very important fact. In no way does individuality so truly express itself as in the numberless lines and graces of the figure when properly brought into effect by a scientifically fitted corset, We have a comfortable fitting room and prefer to fit every corset we sell in prices from $3.50 to $13.50 each.
